

Church Rites Wed Pair in California

Williams — Miss Barbara Jean Parsons became the bride of Jack Edward Collier in a ceremony held March 28 at the La Loma Church of Christ in Modesto, Calif. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Parsons, Williams. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Roy Blom, Modesto.

The Rev. Sherman L. Cannon officiated at the double ring ceremony held at eight o'clock in the evening. About 125 relatives and friends attended. White calla lilies and blue Dutch iris decorated the church.

Music for the ceremony was by the a cappella choir including Mrs. Norman Ellis, Mrs. Richard Wallers, Miss Becky Greff, Ted Langford, Leland Wright and J. B. Pemberton. It was under the direction of Mr. Langford.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white cotton and dacron flock dot frock fashioned with a back panel of white satin which formed a train. Seed pearls trimmed the tulle yoke of the dress and also the crown which held her veil. She carried white orchids on a white Bible.

Mrs. D. D. Sage, Castro Valley, Calif., was honor attendant for her sister and Miss Edna Jarrell was bridesmaid. They wore pale blue linen sheath dresses with dark blue satin panel in back. They carried blue and white carnations.

Norman G. Ellis served as best man while Charles Key and Richard Wallers seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at church parlors. Blue and yellow flowers decorated the rooms for the event. The couple are making their home at 1532 1/2 Pearl street, Modesto, following a wedding trip to Santa Cruz and Monterey, Calif. For her traveling attire the bride chose a beige linen suit with yellow and white accessories.

The bride attended Central Point grade schools and is a graduate of Grants Pass High school. She attended Abilene Christian college, Abilene, Texas, and is employed by the Campbell Soup company, Modesto.
