

21 of 36 PCL Frays Victimized by Rain

By GENE BRYANT
United Press Sports Writer

The shadow of the weather loomed large over the Pacific Coast league today after it went through one of its worst opening weeks in years.

Off to a disastrous start with 21 of 36 games rained out, the PCL will make another attempt this week at getting the current campaign off to a respectable start.

Barring more rain, Vancouver will host Spokane tonight while San Diego is at Portland and Phoenix enters Sacramento. Salt Lake City will go against Seattle

FLOYD PATTERSON MIGHT DEFEND AGAINST HARRIS

New York — Floyd Patterson, jokingly referred to by critics as "the youngest retired heavyweight champion," may defend his title against Texan Roy Harris at a Long Island harness racing track in August.

Plans for a proposed Patterson-Harris bout at Roosevelt Raceway were revealed Sunday night by Emil Lence, the little dress manufacturer-fight promoter who staged Patterson's defense against Hurricane Jackson last summer at the Polo Grounds.

McKay Victor At River Oaks

Houston, Tex. — Berry McKay, a six-foot, three-inch Davis Cupper from Dayton, Ohio, smashed down Louis Ayala of Chile to win the men's singles title in the 24th annual River Oaks tennis tournament Sunday.

McKay whipped the Chilean 6-4, 6-3, 6-3, in competition delayed twice by rain.

In men's doubles, Ham Richardson of New Orleans and Dick Savitt of South Orange, N. J., whipped Billy Talbert of New York and Sammy Giammalva of Houston 6-2, 6-3, for the title.

W. E. Hester of Jackson, Miss., beat C. E. (Red) Sledge of Dallas, 6-4, 4-6, 6-2, to win the senior men's singles title.

Y-Not's 5th In Tourney

Medford Y-Not's were fifth in the volleyball competition and the Pacific Northwest YMCA Sports festival Saturday at Vancouver, Wash.

The Y-Not's won from Tacoma, Wash., 15-10, 15-14, then lost to Portland Northeast 15-1, 15-9 and to Ellensburg, Wash., 15-4, 3-15, 15-13.

Medford Y-Not's lost to Ellensburg 15-4, 15-7 and to Longview, Wash., 15-4, 15-1. Seattle won the tourney by whipping Portland NE in the finals.

Zaharias Title Won by Suggs

Beaumont, Tex. — A field of touring lady pros led by Louise Suggs of Atlanta, who became $833 richer Sunday by winning the $5,000 Zaharias Open, headed for the $7,500 Dallas Open tournament today.

Miss Suggs took the lead on the 17th hole of the last round and finished in 71-74-69—214, one stroke better than Marlene Bauer Hagge's 72-79-74—215.

MEDFORD TRIBUNE SPORTS

JUNIOR HIGH RECORD—Mike Hood, McLoughlin Junior high ninth grader, is shown clearing the high jump bar in the dual affair with Hedrick on Friday. He set a Medford junior high mark of 5 feet 8 1/2 inches. McLoughlin won all three divisions of the meet.

HOCKEY

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Boston — The Montreal Canadiens had the Stanley Cup in their possession, champagne in their tummies and beaucoup d'argent in their pockets today.

All three came about at the Garden Sunday night as the Canadiens won their 10th National Hockey league playoffs, their third straight, topping the Boston Bruins, 5-3.

The Canadiens were so sure they'd win the sixth and deciding game of the best-of-seven series that they brought the huge, albeit $50, cup with them.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Springfield, Mass. — The Hershey Bears, the runaway kingpins during the regular American Hockey league campaign, reigned today as the new Calder Cup champions.

Hershey whipped fourth-place Springfield, 2-1, Sunday night, to win the best-of-seven final series, four games to two.

Wings Leading International
By UNITED PRESS
The Rochester Red Wings aren't wasting much time in staking claim to the best pitching staff in the International League.

The Wings blanked Havana's Sugar Kings for 15 consecutive innings Sunday while sweeping a doubleheader, 3-0 and 3-2. The double win boosted Rochester into first place with a 5-1 record, half a game ahead of Columbus.

In other Sunday action, Montreal tripped previously-unbeaten Columbus, 6-5 in 10 innings; Richmond went 11 innings before downing Toronto 6-5; and Miami squeezed past Buffalo in both ends of a twin-bill, 4-3, 2-1.

Ducks Drop Cougars in Track Tilt

Eugene — The Oregon Webfoots won their 26th consecutive dual track meet Saturday, defeating Washington State 71 to 59. The runners battled headwinds of seven to nine miles per hour.

The Ducks captured eight first places and the Cougars took seven events.

Cougar Dick Frye was the only person to break a field record. He shattered the shot mark with a 54 feet, 1/2-inch heave, and erased the mark set by WSC's Burl Grinols in 1956 of 51 feet, 8 3/4-inches. Frye also won first place in the discus.

Steve Anderson of Oregon edged Washington State's Don Maw in the 100, running it in 10.1 seconds. Maw came back to shade Anderson in the time of 21.9.

D. C. Mills, ex-Medford high, was second in the javelin, and Jack Morris, ex-Medford, was third in the 100-yard dash competing for the University of Oregon in its dual meet with Washington State college.

MULLOY WINS DOUBLES
San Remo, Italy — Gardner Mulloy of Miami headed for his next stop on the European tennis circuit today with another title. Mulloy and Yola Ramirez of Mexico won the mixed doubles final in the San Remo International championship Sunday.

Two Saved From Drowning in River

Springfield, Ore. — Two North Bend residents saved themselves from drowning in the swift waters of the McKenzie river Saturday by clinging to their overturned "drift boat" as they were swept 1 1/2 miles downstream before washing up on a small island.

State police said Andy Fred Varga, 49, and Lee Sundbaum, both of North Bend, were treated for shock after being rescued from the island. Dr. Allen Boyden, Portland, was in the area and attended the men. He said they were in satisfactory condition.

Officers said the pair was conducting trial runs on the McKenzie in preparation for Sunday's White Water boat parade, 40 miles east of Springfield when Varga stood up in the boat as they approached a dock and fell into the water. Sundbaum reached for him and the boat overturned and both were swept downstream, police said.

They were spotted by John West of Vidas, who took them off the island in his boat.

Lumber Workers Vote Against Woodworkers

Portland — The regional office of the National Labor Relations Board here Saturday reported that employees of Simplot - DeVoe Lumber company, Chiloquin, voted 23-9 against naming the International Woodworkers of America as bargaining agent.

In another NLRB election, employees of the MJM Manufacturing company at Albany named the sheet metal workers as their bargaining agent by a vote of 7 to 4.

Newport Plane Crash Kills Two

Newport — A man and woman were killed Sunday afternoon in the fiery crash of a single-engine Beechcraft Bonanza plane as it came in for a landing at Newport airport.

The victims were burned beyond recognition, police said, but they were believed to be Dr. and Mrs. Jack Leonard McMillan of Vancouver, B. C. The plane was registered to the McMillans and two pieces of luggage thrown clear of the aircraft was identified as theirs.

The blue and yellow four-place craft crashed near the south end of the airport. Civil Aeronautics Authority officials were investigating but said cause of the crash was not yet determined.

Police said a Dr. Ross Edwards, believed to be McMillan's partner called from Vancouver to inform them he was leaving for Newport to attempt to make positive identification.

WHY IS OLD HERMITAGE SO POPULAR IN OREGON?

Old Hermitage came over the Oregon Trail from Kentucky in 1877.

The answer's easy—Hermitage is a fine Kentucky bourbon at a surprisingly moderate price... one of the first whiskies across the plains and into the West!
