

Program Given by Students

A gymnastic demonstration by the sixth grade of Lincoln school, directed by the coach, Herbert Wing, and the student teacher, Jerry Martin, was the program for the Lincoln Parent-Teacher association meeting on Thursday, April 17. The children demonstrated the different physical activities of the year.

Announcers for the demonstration were Ralph Mobley and Paul Jenny. All sixth grade boys took part in calisthenics, directed by Greg Gande and Don Ambuehl. A football demonstration of passing, blocking, and running was put on by Robert Childs, Richard LaFluer and Greg Gande.

Two sets of square dancers took part. Chuck Kimball and Paul Jenny demonstrated shooting baskets, dribbling, and passing, for basketball.

After a group of the boys and girls demonstrated tumbling, a simulated track meet was held. Clifton Roberts did the high jump; Richard Robertson the shot put, and Don Root racing starts.

Charles Rhode, Frank Kula and Charles Haas, showed how baseball could be played. The climax of the program was a roping-jumping demonstration by the sixth grade girls, jumping in unison to music by the piano. One group was directed by Linda Ellison, and another by Linda Wilkes. The "egg beater" was demonstrated by Janet Howard, Peggy Bowen and Kathy Coday; the ropes were turned by Eugenia Sparling and Darla Sue Williams. Linda Wilkes then did a tap dance while jumping rope.

A short business meeting preceded the program: Mrs. Virgil Stickley, Mrs. Johnny Weber and Mrs. Eric de Place were elected as the auditing committee.

Health day will be May 9, and school will be out June 6. The next PTA meeting will be May 9, with the installation of new officers and a report of the Oregon Congress of PTA convention being given by the delegates.

New officers are Mrs. S. J. Fagone, president, Mrs. Dexter Williams, vice-president, Mrs. Glen Stewart, secretary, and Mrs. Johnny Weber, treasurer.

The meeting was opened by prayer by Mrs. John Lusk; the flag was presented by Den I. Pack 2, Cub Scouts, led by Mrs. Virgil Stickley. Refreshments were served by the fathers of Lincoln PTA.

Medford Group Holds Election

Mrs. Ruth Hunter was elected chairman of the Medford Home Extension unit at the April meeting held in the courthouse auditorium. Other officers elected were Mrs. J. A. Bartlett, vice chairman; Mrs. E. H. Trefren, secretary and Mrs. E. F. Arther, treasurer. The nominating committee was Mrs. I. D. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Fred Middlebush and Mrs. H. W. Morrow.

Plans were discussed for sending two delegates to the annual state council training meeting for chairman and secretaries at Corvallis, May 6-8. The homemakers festival will be held on Wednesday, June 4th at Central Point Grange.

Mrs. Archer, safety and health chairman, gave a report entitled "Silence is Soothing" by Dr. J. W. Cox.

Mrs. Trefren reported on the last round for the C.C.A. fund raising credits for the club.

Mrs. Clarence O. Lack was appointed to assist Mrs. Trefren with the program planning for the coming year.

During the afternoon session the country agent, Miss Mary Pat Lucy, gave a detailed demonstration on coordinating wardrobe.

Mrs. Roy Guyer and Mrs. Lowe will give a demonstration on skin care at the May 14 meeting.

June 11 the Medford unit will hold the annual family picnic at 11:30 a.m. at Hawthorne park.

Rogue River — A special meeting of Rogue River Garden club will be held Wednesday, April 23, at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Harold Dunham, president. Reports and comments on the flower show held April 12 will be given.

At the last meeting of the club, held at the home of Mrs. Sam Bellah, Mrs. Bellah identified wild flowers brought for display. Included were white trillium, fritularia, dodecatheon or bird bill, buttercups, cynodossom or hound's tooth, saxafage, or cream cup, orange wall flower, leucogum or snowflake, Oregon grape, erythronium or dog tooth violet, kitten ear, calypso bulbosa, miner's lettuce, swamp forget-me-not, larkspur, dwarf lupine and other varieties.

The nominating committee reported. Nominated were Mrs. Roy Larsen, president; Mrs. Guy Hanley, vice-president; Mrs. Earl Brooks, secretary and Mrs. Herbert Brooks, treasurer.

Mrs. Edna McGarvie became a member of the club at the meeting. Mrs. Dunham presided, and Mrs. Hydn Williams was Mrs. Bellah's co-hostess.

Guest Here

Mrs. Olai Bache-wiig, Waukesha, Wisc., has arrived in Medford to visit her sister-in-law, Mrs. Bjarne Ravn, Route 1, Medford.

Guest Honored At Many Parties

Mrs. Dorothea Glass, formerly librarian of the Veterans Administration domiciliary at Camp White, spent the last two weeks in Medford and Ashland as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Bean, Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Girard, Ashland.

A number of social events honored Mrs. Glass during her visit here. An Easter dinner party was given at the Girard home in Ashland, a luncheon at the home of Mrs. J. M. Bali in Medford, and a card party at the L. D. Hodgkins' home, also of Medford.

Miss Grace Stuhr entertained Mrs. Glass with a dinner at Camp White at which other domiciliary librarians were also guests, Miss Enid Holmes, the present librarian, and Miss Helen Webster, librarian from 1948 to 1950.

Mrs. Glass, who retired from that position in 1954, is now living at Campbell, Calif., her childhood home. She is active in a number of organizations there, and has recently taken extended trips to Europe and to the Orient.

Committee Head Goes to Eugene

Mrs. Fred Rankin, chairman of the Community Services committee of the Oregon State Council on Aging, left Monday for Eugene where she will attend the inaugural dinner of the Emerald Empire Council of Aging this evening at the Eugene Hotel.

This is the second of the three such councils formed in Oregon which Mrs. Rankin is chairman. On the same date, a council is being organized in Oregon City, Clackamas county, where Dr. Walter Dr. Walter Brodie, a member of the committee, is working. The Rogue Valley council in Medford has been an active group since January 20.

Wednesday morning the committee will confer with the executive secretary, Miss Julie Johnson at the state headquarters at the University of Oregon on the further development of such community committees in other counties.

Dr. Frank Roberts, recreation chairman of the local group, also expects to attend the dinner meeting and recreation groups of senior citizens in Eugene while in that area.

Altrusans to Hold Dinner Meeting

Medford Altrusa club will hold a dinner meeting Thursday, April 24, at the Medford hotel Rogue room at 7 p.m., according to the hostesses, Miss Grace Stuhr, Mrs. Esther Mohr and Mrs. Judy Stoll.

The Altrusa information committee will be in charge of the program with an informal "This is My Line" discussion by the new members present.

Miss Alma Peterson, a Portland Altrusa club member in Medford to make a special "hard of hearing" survey in the public schools in cooperation with the public health department, will be a guest. Miss Peterson is on the staff of the Oregon State Health department.

Girl Scouts Troop Elects

Troop 11, Girl Scouts, recently elected new officers. They are Bette Pace, president; Catherine Watson, secretary; Karyn Fixsen, scribe. Two members of the troop were eligible and attended the Girl Scout Mardi Gras. They were Jeanne Centers and Patricia Warren.

Karyn Fixsen, Troop Scribe.

Hold Picnic

Troop 40, St. Mary's fourth grade Brownies, held a picnic at TouVelle State park to celebrate the winning of a $5 prize in the Pear Blossom parade. The leader is Mrs. George Davy.

During Girl Scout Week the troop had a display in the window at Jewett's Office Supply company. The display was of handwork the members had done and it won a blue ribbon.

At a troop meeting recently the girls put on a skit, dressed as their mothers. Later they served refreshments to the mothers present. The troop meets at St. Mary's school.
