

Kindsfather Will Open For Salem

By RAY ANDREWS
United Press Sports Writer
Salem—The Salem Senators will lead with an ace, Vern Kindsfather, when they open their Northwest league season Thursday against Eugene.

Kindsfather posted a 17-13 mark last year as the Senators finished third in both halves of the split season and looms as the bulwark of Manager Don Lundberg's hurling corps. Kindsfather will be backed up by Tom Flynn, Hal Larned, Gus Carmichael, Humberto Marquez, and Ey Aldridge. Carmichael showed a 7-7 mark with Wenatchee last year, Marquez was 12-9 with Visalia in the California league, Aldridge had a 5-8 mark with Tri-City and Flynn is a well-regarded lefty from the Cincinnati Redlegs.

Power Hitter
On the power side, the Senators have acquired Vince Moreci who can belt the long ball. He led the loop in homers with 36 in 1956 and could drive home a flock of runs. Lundberg can also look to some sharp hitting from veteran Jack Dunn. Dunn clicked off a .328 mark last year and sent 45 runs across the plate. Roy Parker, an outfielder who hit .238 with Wenatchee last year also figures in Lundberg's plans.

Two Latin players who may make it by opening day are Alfredo Conton and Julio Pirela. Pirela is a shortstop and Conton an outfielder. Lundberg Busy
Rigoberto Mendoza, a third baseman owned by the Cincinnati club also may make the grade. Lundberg was behind the plate in 123 games for Wenatchee last season and undoubtedly will handle his share of the catching chores this year with Salem.

He belted Northwest league pitching for a .311 mark and drove in 69 markers. His bat will be a big help to the Senators. As with other Northwest league skippers, Lundberg will probably do a lot of shuffling during the early going. Both the Los Angeles Dodgers and Kansas City Athletics have notified Salem officials they have several players earmarked for duty with Salem.

Overall in the 1957 campaign, the Senators were just a shade over the .500 mark with a percentage of .507.

Rene Hurls 3rd Royal Triumph

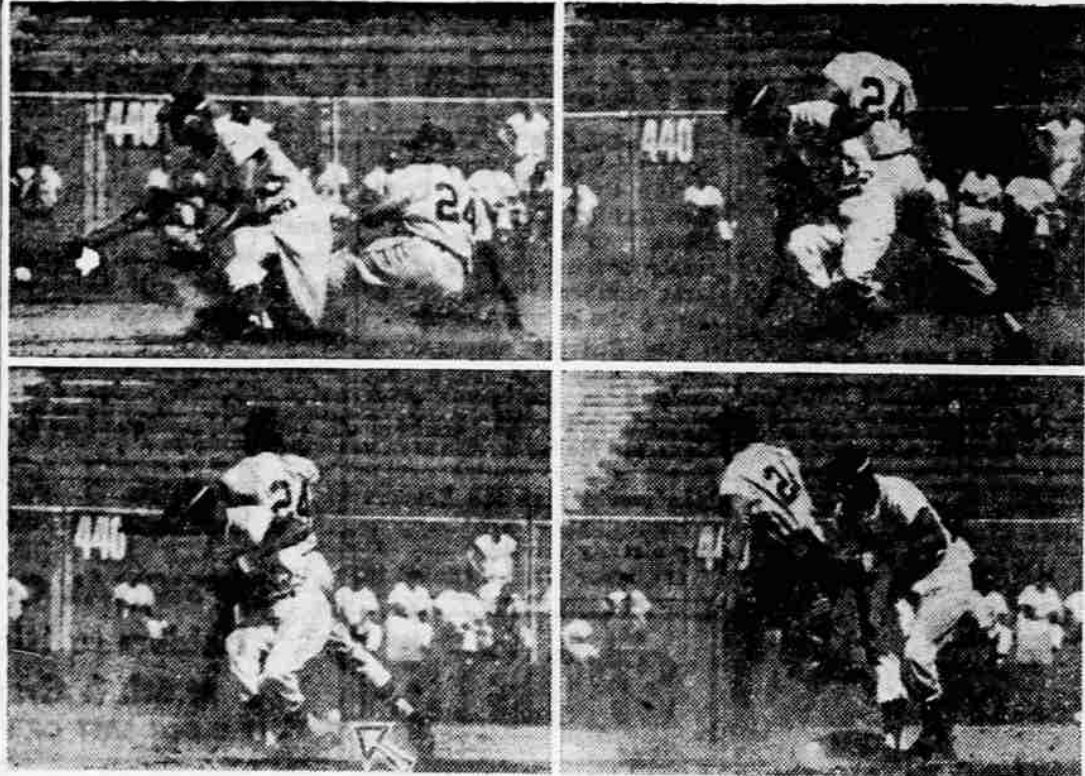

By UNITED PRESS
Rene Valdes of the Montreal Royals, whose pitching in spring training a year ago almost won him a job with the Dodgers, was putting in another strong bid today with three straight victories in the young International league season.

The lanky, six-foot-three righthander from Cuba coasted to a 16-2 victory over the Columbus Jets Tuesday night. Valdes, using his sidearmed curve effectively, spaced out 11 hits, including a solo homer by Emil Panko. The victory boosted Montreal into a first-place tie with idle Rochester. Columbus fell into a third-place tie with Havana and Miami.

Rolfe, Grass Valley, Ore., ran into the house to get upstairs but was forced back by smoke.

McMinnville Fire Chief Ivan Pearson said the fire apparently started in a room occupied by Ralph Branson of Belgrade, Mont. Branson lost all his belongings.

The defeat severed the Coyotes' six-game victory string and dropped them to second place in the conference behind Pacific, with a 3-0 record.

Dick Brown and Ron Parrish both clouted homers for the Wildcats, and righthander Carl Meeuwseu had a three-hitter going before Coyote Don Brokop homered in the seventh inning to spoil the shutout bid.
