

Lee Walls Smacks Three Homers As Cubs Wallop LA Dodgers 15-2

By UNITED PRESS
Lee Walls, a "lousy golfer," used the Los Angeles driving range to hit three perfect "nine-iron shots" that had the Dodgers plenty teed off today and the surprising Cubs sitting pretty atop the National league.

As a golfer, Walls shoots in the 100's and as a hitter he totaled only six home runs and 33 runs batted in last season. But the Cub outfielder really takes to that coliseum "course," especially the friendly left-field green which is only 83 yards from home plate—an easy nine-iron shot for any pro. He liked it so much Thursday that he blasted three home runs over it and drove in eight runs in a run-away 15-2 victory over the Dodgers.

Walls didn't play any favorites, either. He socked his first homer off loser Don Drysdale with one on in the first inning, his second off Roger Craig with two on in the fifth, and his third off Ron Negray with one on in the seventh. Bobby Thomson also homered for the Cubs.

Rookie Gene Fodge shut out the Dodgers until Charley Neal hit a homer in the seventh. Don Zimmer also connected in the eighth. What burns the Dodgers so much about that (censored) screen is that some joker told them it would work out to their advantage. It certainly hasn't so far. Opposing clubs have hit 14 homers at the Coliseum while the Dodgers have hit only nine. Three of these enemy clouts were off Drysdale, who dropped his third straight game Thursday.

The only consolation the Dodgers had was that Duke Snider played six innings and got one hit in three trips. Snider had been fined a day's pay for spraining a tendon Wednesday night while trying to toss a baseball over the rim of the Coliseum.

In other National league games, Warren Spahn and Hank Aaron combined to lead the Braves to a 6-2 triumph over the Redlegs; the Giants came up with two runs in the ninth to beat the Cardinals, 6-5, and the Pirates defeated the Phillies, 7-4. The Red Sox climbed out of the American league cellar with a 4-3 victory over the Orioles in 10 innings. Kansas City retained second place with a 7-2 decision over Detroit, and the Indians dumped the White Sox into the basement by beating them, 6-4. Rain postponed the Yankee-Senators game.

Spahn—who beat the Redlegs six games out of seven last year and holds a 46-15 lifetime edge over them, held Cincinnati to seven hits while Aaron connected for his third and fourth homers of the campaign. Brooks Lawrence yielded Milwaukee's first three runs and was charged with the loss.

The Giants won their game from the Cards when Daryl Spencer beat out an infield hit with the bases loaded in the ninth. Ex-Giant Ray Katt had put St. Louis ahead with a homer off winner Ray Crone in the top of the ninth but Katt's error allowed San Francisco to score the tying run in the bottom of the frame. Hank Sauer hit his fourth and fifth homers of the year off starter Wilmer Vinegar Bend Mizell but reliever Billy Muffett was the loser.

Bob Friend was credited with Pittsburgh's victory over Philadelphia although he needed Roy Face's help in the ninth. Friend blanked the Phils until the ninth when he ran into a pair of singles, a double, triple and Bob Bowman's two-run homer. Face came in, served up one pitch which Harry Anderson hit back to him for the final out. Dick Groat and Bob Skinner each had three hits to account for half of Pittsburgh's 12-hit total. Curt Simmons was the loser.

Pinch hitter Dick Gernert singled home Gene Stephens with the bases loaded in the 10th inning for Boston's win over Baltimore. Gernert struck his blow off Billy O'Dell, who took over the Orioles' pitching in the eighth inning. Mike Fornieles gave up seven hits in going the route for the Red Sox. Milt Pappas started for Baltimore and gave up two

Three Veterans In Semi-Finals Of North-South

Pinehurst, N. C.—Three veterans of amateur golf competition and a "youngster" met today in the semi-finals of the 58th North-South invitation championship. Herb Durham of Dallas, Tex., 33, met Jack Penrose, a 42-year-old Miami insurance man, in one match. The other sent 47-year-old Dick Chapman of Pinehurst against 42-year-old William Hyndman III of Abington, Pa. Durham, who upset defending champion Bill Campbell of Huntington, W. Va. Wednesday, added another Walker Cupper to his list of victims Thursday as he downed Arnold Blum of Macon, Ga., 3 and 1, in the quarter-finals.

Crater High Trims Ashland Trackmen

Central Point—Crater high school defeated Ashland 70½ to 59½ yesterday in a track meet here.

The meet was close despite the fact that the Comets took nine of the 14 first places. Kerman Bennett was the day's only double winner, taking the 100 and 220-yard dashes in the good times of 10.3 and 22.1 for Crater.

There was only one sweep and that was by Ashland's runs, including a homer by Jim Piersall, before leaving in the seventh.

Vic Power drove in three runs in leading the A's to their victory over the Tigers. Wally Burette was the winning pitcher although he needed relief from Tom Gorman, who checked Detroit on one hit over the last 2 2/3 innings. Bob Shaw was the loser.

A fine relief job by Don Mossi of the Indians sent the White Sox down to their fifth loss in a row. Mossi came to Dick Tomaneck's rescue in the fifth, gave up two hits in that frame and then limited Chicago to two hits thereafter to gain the victory. Jim Wilson started for Chicago and was rapped for five runs in three innings. Russ Nixon and Minnie Minoes each homered for Cleveland.

Phil Paquin Goes 14-3½
Corvallis — The Oregon State Rooks took 10 first places Thursday in handing the Oregon Frosh a 72½ to 58½ defeat in a track meet here. Frosh pole vaulter Phil Paquin set a meet record of 14 feet 3½ inches in the pole vault.

Beaver Gridders Begin Practice
Corvallis — Coach Tommy Prothro expected 65 candidates including 20 lettermen today as the Oregon State Beavers, co-champions of the Pacific Coast Conference, opened spring practice.

RECORD TROUT CATCH—George Langston hefts the 26-pound, two-ounce brown trout he caught in the tailwaters of Dale Hollow Dam near Celina, Tenn. This is the largest brown trout ever caught on the North American continent.

Move Over, Grid Pros
San Francisco — Move over, Forty Niners, there's a new ball club in town which also leaves its patrons limp with last second victories. This one is called the San Francisco Giants, and they did it for the second straight time Thursday by defeating the St. Louis Cardinals, 6-5, with a two-run rally in the ninth inning.

Daryl Spencer, whose two-run homer with two out gave the Giants an 8-7 heart-stopper over the Cards in the ninth frame on Wednesday, drove home the winning tally again Thursday with an infield single.

Two were out and the bases full when Spencer tapped a roller down the third base line and Danny O'Connell roared home. Third baseman Ken Boyer, seeing he didn't have a chance on O'Connell, made a desperate peg to first to try and nail Spencer for the third out but the big shortstop got there first.

Lebanon Hires Barney Holland

Lebanon, Ore. — Barney Holland, former basketball and football star at Oregon, today was named as head basketball coach at Lebanon high starting next fall. Holland is now at Coquille Junior High school.

MARTIN MAY BE LOST
Kansas City, Mo. — Detroit Tigers shortstop Billy Martin, batting .378 in nine games thus far this season, may be lost to the club for two or three days because of an injured thigh. Martin suffered the injury during spring training and aggravated it during Wednesday night's game with the Athletics.
