First Rites At Church Wed Couple

The first wedding to be held at the new Ascension Lutheran Church of Medford wedded Miss Irma Hoffman and Vernon Delmar Dahlke on March 28. The Rev. Elvin S. Tollefson officiated at the eight o'clock evening ceremony attended by 73 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffman, Route 1, box 488, Talent. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dahlke, 411 Haven street, Medford.

The bride wore a white ballerina length lace over satin dress fashioned with scoop neckline and elbow length sleeves. She carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations. She was given in marriage by her brother, Elynn Hoffman of Ashland.

Miss Yvonne Woodson attended the bride. She wore a pink colored ballerina length frock and carried pink carnations.

Cecil Owings served as best man and seating the guests were James Tizek and Allen Dahlke, brother of the bridegroom.

Baskets of spring flowers decorated the church for the ceremony.

Following the wedding rites, a reception was held at the church. Rosebuds and ferns decorated the table that held the wedding cake baked and decorated by a friend of the bride, Mrs. Herbert Good.

The bride attended Phoenix High school. The bridegroom attended Medford High school and Southern Oregon college. He is employed as a tabulating business machine operator at Harry and David.

Nancy Conroy To Give Recital At Marylhurst

Marylhurst — Miss Nancy Conroy, Marylhurst college senior music major, will be presented in a voice recital May 1 at 8:15 p.m. The recital will be held in Flavia salon on the campus. Miss Conroy will be assisted by Miss Annette Brosch, cellist. The Misses Beverly Pecchia and Barbara Campbell, pianists, will accompany her.

The program will open with an aria from Verdi's "Magnificat", "La Pastorella" by Schubert and "Charmant Papillon", an early air, by Campra. Three pastoral songs by Roger Quilter, with string accompaniment, will follow. "Caro Nome" from Verdi's "Rigoletto" and contemporary settings of American and English folksongs will complete the program.

Miss Conroy, daughter of Mrs. C. T. McKinley of 1102 West Ninth street, is a graduate of St. Mary's school, Medford. During her four years at Marylhurst she has appeared frequently as soloist as well as with the Choralists and College Chorus. She was soloist at a concert in Salem April 21.

She has participated in student activities as shown by her present office of senior class secretary-treasurer, and membership in the drama club, resident student council, and class representative to the Student Union committee.
