"THE MUSIC MAN" is this season's big Broadway hit show, and the original-cast album featuring Robert Preston is now available on Capitol. "The Waltz Queen" features vivacious Patti Page singing her big ones, on Mercury.

MUSIC FOR FAMILY LISTENING: Lennie Hayton, a most talented fellow, does a masterful job on the score of the new show, "Jamaica," via Roulette. Roger Roger and his orchestra present a musical tour of the "Heart of France," on Decca, and with the warmer weather here, "Summer," a new Disneyland LP by Camarata, is most welcome and appropriate. Still on an instrumental kick, spin RCA's "Thank You for a Lovely Evening" as played by Billy Butterfield and his band.

For those who prefer their music on the vocal side, a number of good releases are now available. Included are "The Many Sides of Pat Suzuki," a Vik etching; "Voices in Latin," wherein the Four Freshmen take the Capitol road South of the Border; Cadence's "The Chordettes," singing many of their big sellers; "Walter Schumann Presents the Voices," a most interesting present from RCA; and "I Get Ideas," Camden's bargain-priced package featuring the singing of Tony Martin.

"I Remember Buddy" is Jerry Vale's musical salute to the vocal gymnastics of the late Buddy Clark, and it's Jerry's best Columbia effort in a long while.

JAZZOMANIA: "Mardi Gras Time with the Dukes of Dixieland" is the sixth in a series of albums recorded by this swinging
