

Annual Student Art Show Represents All Schools

The annual student art show is being held this week in the boys' gymnasium of Medford High school. The show is open each day during school hours, from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Thursday evening will be open from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Anyone interested is invited to view the work.

For the last five years the art department of senior high school has held a spring show—a retrospective of a year's study and classroom projects. This year to give more scope and understanding to the problems in art expression, the work of the junior high schools and the elementary schools has been included.

The department has tried to assemble examples of personal expression that reflect an understanding of environment and materials, according to a release. This includes a first grader's "picture of my family" in crayons, as well as the twelfth graders' "figure group" in oils.

Grade school work is composed of expression of reflection of environment, attitudes and feelings, knowledge of materials, and organization.

Junior high and senior high work consists of paintings, drawings, commercial art.

Riders to Train 'Dance' Group

Medford Trail Riders are planning this year to train a "square dance" unit which will perform at events throughout the area during the spring and summer. The riders execute intricate formations and patterns on horseback wearing the traditional square dance costumes.

Six couples are used for the drills, and the first practice will be held Thursday, May 1, at 6 p.m. at the Ray Bernard ranch near Central Point. Pat Murphy is "caller."

The group sponsored a ride last Sunday, with 25 taking part. They assembled at the Willow Springs school, and rode to the Crane hill area.

Lloyd Hanscom is president of Trail Riders.
