

This prize-winning vermiculite sculpture by Dewanda Winchell is part of the annual art exhibit of the Medford public schools being held this week at Medford High school. The sculpture won Miss Winchell a gold achievement key in the annual Oregon Scholastic art exhibit held earlier this year at Lipman and Wolfe store, Portland. This week's exhibit is open daily during school hours, and will also be open Thursday between 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. for a special showing.

State President Guest of Group; Delegate Named

Plans for sending delegates to the annual state convention of the Oregon Federated Women's clubs were made at the April meeting of the Medford Junior Women's club. The convention is to be held in Salem May 7, 8 and 9. Mrs. John L. Holmes will represent the Medford group. Special guests at the meeting were Mrs. George Rossman, president of the state organization, and Mrs. W. A. Burnap, state junior director. Highlights of the convention plans were given the group by Mrs. Rossman. May 7 is designated as Junior day with the program planned to be of special interest to the junior clubwomen. A luncheon and fashion show in the Oregon room at Meier and Frank store will be on the day's agenda. In the evening a banquet is scheduled in the Gold Room of the Marion hotel. Mrs. Clifford McGinty was hostess for the meeting, assisted by Mrs. F. J. Hope and Mrs. Robert Gustafson. Mrs. Thomas Goff attended as a guest.

Visitors Leave

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones, Yuma, Ariz., left Medford yesterday after visiting several days with his brother and family. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jones, 428 North Holly street. This was the first time in 10 years the two men had been together, and the Arizona man was en route to Cashmere, Wash., to visit a brother he had not seen for 28 years.

It was one of 30 pieces sent from Medford High school for the annual Portland showing. These works, as well as art work from the city's junior high schools and elementary schools is being exhibited this week in the boys' gymnasium of Medford High school during hours. A special showing is set for Thursday between 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. and the public is invited to attend.

Altrusans To Aid Council on Aging

Medford Altrusa club which met for dinner at the Medford hotel April 27, voted $25 to be given to the Rogue Valley Council on Aging to be used for expenses entailed in sponsoring the Golden Age recreation club and for its further development. Altrusa has an international project in geriatrics and the local club has given several grants to assist older women to re-train themselves for the employment field.

Many clubs sponsor and financially aid Golden Age clubs which meet in the evening and other support craft shops such as the Senior Craftsman of Oregon have in Portland to market their handicraft articles. Visiting Altrusans in Medford last week were Mrs. Gertrude Houk Farris and Dr. Martha Springer who were both on the program for the state convention of American Association of University Women at Rogue Valley Country club Friday night. Mrs. Farris of the Portland board of Altrusa, and Dr. Springer is the president of the Albany club.

Miss Alma Peterson, Altrusa member with the Oregon Public Health office, will remain in Medford one more week.
