The realigned Pacific Coast league made its debut in two of the loop's three new cities Tuesday with the season's largest crowd coming at Spokane, the PCL's second smallest city.

Broncs Ride Herd With 5-0 Record

By UNITED PRESS
The Lesiston Broncs are riding herd on the rest of the Northwest League and now sport a 5-0 mark in the young baseball campaign.

The Broncs rattled 14 hits off five Yakima hurlers Tuesday night to top the Bears 14-5 in the Lesiston home opener.

Manager Hillis Layne led the attack with a single, double and homer in four trips. He drove in four runs.

The Tri-City Braves opened their home season and turned in a 9-3 victory over Eugene before 2784 fans.

Five Hits Scattered
Hillary Stanton went all the way for the winners scattering five hits while fanning three.

Catcher Don Whitcomb was the hitting hero for the Braves with three bingles. He hit a solo homer in the sixth and added two singles good for four runs batted in.

The Salem Senators scored two runs without a hit in the top of the ninth to edge Wenatchee 13 to 12.

Four Walks, three passed balls and a wild pitch sent the Salem runs home.

Wenatchee loaded the sacks in the bottom of the ninth and had one run in when Hank Bivens popped out and Joe Bassila fanned to end it.

Runner Fresh; Fades at Wire

Knoxville, Tenn. — High school track man Jerry Long seemed straggle fresh when he put on a spectacular surge in the last lap of a mile run.

In spite of his burst, however, he faded at the wire and lost to another runner.

Then officials learned why the early laps hadn't tired Jerry: he had sneaked in on the last lap after teammate John Looney dropped out.

FIGHTS

FROSH DIVOTERS WIN
Corvallis—The University of Oregon's frosh golf team Tuesday crushed the Oregon State Rooks, 15½ to 2½, in the first meeting of the two teams this spring.

opening-game attendance of former years, while 4,115 showed up at San Diego's new Westgate park for the Padres' afternoon opener against Phoenix. Over 7,000 fans attended the night contest with the Giants.

Portland eased back into first place in the standings via the percentage column by downing the Solons, 9-5, although Vancouver, a half game ahead of the Beavers, handed Salt Lake an 8-4 thumping. The Padres took both ends of their day-night double-header with Phoenix, winning the first, 5-3, and the second, 3-1. Spokane edged the Rainiers, 6-5.

Losing Grandslammer
Although Sacramento's Jim Westlake hit a grand-slam homer in the sixth to give the Solons a temporary 5-4 lead, Portland rallied to push across five runs in the eighth for the victory. The Beavers collected 14 hits off five Solon hurlers to give veteran pitcher Elmer Singleton his third victory of the season. Red Adams was charged with the loss.

Sacramento officials said the disappointing attendance was primarily due to the fact that the Solons opened the season in Portland this year rather than in Sacramento as had been done in previous years. They added the western invasion of the Giants had little bearing on the low turnout.

At Salt Lake, the Mounties scored three runs in the second frame, four more in the fourth and another in the eighth for their win. Southpaw Ron Moeller, who gave way to Joe Hatten in the eighth frame, was credited with the victory, his first against one loss.

The crowd, although disappointingly small, was held down because Salt Lake's Derks field is currently undergoing enlargement.

Gorbous Adds Runs
Outfielder Glen Gorbous smashed a three-run homer in the fifth at Spokane to pace the Indians to their victory. The home club had 10 hits to the Rainiers' nine. Reliever Bill George gained the win, his second against no defeats.

At San Diego the Padres, although going hitless over the final six innings, won the first game by scoring three unearned runs in the second frame. The Pads had opened the scoring with a single run in the first.

In the second game, Bill Werle gave up only six hits while going all the way for the winners. Larry Raines paced the Padre hitting attack with a homer in the second and a run-scoring single in the fourth. Dusty Rhodes scored Phoenix' only run when he put one out of the park in the second inning. It was his first homer since reporting to the Arizona club from the San Francisco Giants.

Crater JV 4-1 Victor
Central Point—Bill Anhorn pitched two-hit ball and Loyal Higinbotham slapped three hits in four times up yesterday with the Crater high baseball junior varsity tipped Ashland 4 to 1 in a game at Ashland.

Anhorn struck out 13 and walked seven. His mound rival, Duane Nelson, tossing a six-hitter, fanned five and yielded six bases on balls. Steve Harris got both Ashland hits.

Crater combined a single by Higinbotham and a double by John Anhorn with two walks, a hit batter and two fielder's choices for two first inning runs. Ashland tallied in the same frame on Harris' single, a walk, a ground out and a dropped third strike error.

For two more runs in the sixth stanza Higinbotham and Ron Hale doubled and there were two bases on balls.

Speedway Opening for Practices

Indianapolis, Ind.—The roar of engines will echo around the vast Indianapolis Motor Speedway Thursday when the famed oval emerges from an 11-month slumber and practice gets under way for the 42nd annual running of the Memorial Day 500-mile race.

About 25 of the 56 racers vying for positions in the 33-car starting field were expected to be on hand when the loudspeaker blares out the familiar "The track is now open for practice."

The others will arrive within the next two weeks, in time for mechanics and drivers to take shakedown runs in preparation for the qualification time trials May 17-18 and May 23-24.

No fewer than 15 rookies will attempt to crash a starting field dominated by the likes of national champion Jimmy Bryan and former "500" winners Troy Ruttman, Johnnie Parsons and Pat Flaherty. Nine of the rookies still must pass familiarization tests.

Beaver Nine Hands WSC First Loss

Corvallis—The Oregon State Beavers nipped powerful Washington State, 3-2, in a Northern Division baseball game here Tuesday. It was the first conference loss for the Cougars this year.

Bever pitcher Gary Moore engaged in a duel with WSC hurler Dick Montee and scattered nine hits while Montee allowed six of OSC's 10 hits to cluster into two damaging innings.

Oregon State took the lead in the fourth inning by scoring twice on a walk, a fielder's choice and singles by Dan Luby, Gene Bates and Moore.

Arlie Kangus of the Cougars doubled in the sixth and scored on a pair of infield outs.

The Beavers scored again in the seventh and WSC picked up one more run in the ninth when Montee brought in Jack Nagel with a double, his second of the day.

In another game Tuesday, Washington blanked Idaho 6-0.

Washington State, now 3-1, meets Oregon, 2-0 at Eugene today and plays the Ducks again Thursday.

Graveside Rites Honor Hickman
Jacksonville, Fla.—Herman Hickman, the Tennessee farm boy who became an American sports legend, was buried in a quiet, palm-lined cemetery here Tuesday.

A small group of about 150 persons gathered for the simple graveside ceremony. Among them were some of the country's leading sports figures, including Coach Earl (Red) Blaik of West Point, former head coach Frank Leahy of Notre Dame, Coach Robert Woodruff of the University of Florida, and Coach Hank Foldbert of the University of Miami.

Stadium Better Place To Play Than To Watch

By GENE BLUDEAU
United Press Sports Writer
Chicago—Los Angeles Coliseum is a better place to play a baseball game than see one, Manager Bob Scheffing of the Chicago Cubs said today.

"Even with that short left field," he said, "I don't think it's too bad a place to play. Of course, your good hits to left field there are singles, and the outs are home runs. The better the hit, the fewer bases."

But seeing it, he said, the uncovered seats are far distant from the field and all in all, he'd rather play than watch.

Scheffing, whose team played three games against the Dodgers in the Coliseum last week, wasn't overly critical of the 42-foot screen in the short left field.

"After we got 15 runs in that last game," he said, "I'd liked to have stayed there a month. But they're learning how to play that screen. A ball hits it and it doesn't bounce. It just falls down. The better the hit, the less you get."

So the line drives that would go out of any other park just fall. The higher ones take longer to get there and you might get two bases. And of course the real long high flies that are out in other parks are home runs there.

Virgil Bewley Heads Shooting

Virgil Bewley was top gunner at Medford Gun club on Sunday, breaking 50 straight at 16-yards and winning the Ed Peace handicap.

In the handicap Bewley and Martin Clogston each shattered 48 birds and each busted 23 out of 25 in the shoot-off. Bewley then won the coin flip. Charles Skeeters, Harry Elden and Henry Niedermeyer followed the leaders, each cracking 47 birds.

Both 16-yard and handicap will be shot this Sunday at the club.

Jacksonville—Jacksonville high varsity pushed over three runs in the fourth inning and four more in the sixth frame yesterday to overcome the Medford high junior varsity baseballers 9 to 2.

The Redskins picked up their markers in the fourth inning on two bases on balls, a triple by Ron Davis and a single by Dennis Caird. The four in the sixth were on three bases on balls, a three-baser by Caird, a single by Wayne Goldschmidt, a stolen base, a passed ball and an error.

Goldschmidt and Caird hit two for three and Eddie Paxton two for four for Jacksonville and Bob Eckel two for three and John Cantrall two for four for Medford.

Prospect Edges Eagle Point 9-7

Prospect—Prospect high downed Eagle Point 9 to 7 here yesterday in a non-league baseball mix.

Eagle Point put a possible winning run on base in the seventh inning but a runner was tagged out coming home. The Eagles got 10 hits in the tussle and Prospect nine. Floyd Scaife had three hits in four times up for Prospect and Dave Gardner hit two for three.

Bout Unlikely To Go Distance

Chicago—Clarence Hinnant and Jesse Bowdry meet in a light-heavyweight fight tonight, but it's unlikely they'll hold the audience for the scheduled 10 rounds.

Each loasts a knockout punch and each has been knocked out, so the finish of the scrap might come at any time. Bowdry, though only 19, has kayeod 18 of his 23 opponents and has lost only twice. Hinnant, 25, has scored 20 knockouts in 37 fights, but has lost 11 times.

Forest fires in the U.S. each year, 90 per cent of them man-made, destroy enough usable timber to build approximately 86,000 new homes.

NOTICE OF SCHOOL ELECTION UPON QUESTION OF INCREASING TAX LEVY OVER AMOUNT LIMITED BY SECTION 11, ARTICLE XI, STATE CONSTITUTION
Notice is hereby given that an election will be held in School District No. 89 of Jackson County, State of Oregon, from 2 P.M. to 8 P.M. on May 14, 1958, at Shady Cove School in said school district for the purpose of submitting to the legal voters of said district the question of increasing the tax levy for the fiscal year 1958-1959 over the amount limited by section 11, article XI, of the Constitution of Oregon.
The reasons for increasing such levy are:
The second and third class districts, now individually responsible for their own budgets have no tax base, and hence must vote their entire required levy.
The amount of tax, in excess of the 6% limitation, proposed to be levied for said fiscal year is $37,462.77.
Dated this 22 day of April, 1958.
