

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

"CHICO" MARX, reminiscing about highlights in those wonderful old Marx Brothers movies, lingered over a scene in "Duck Soup." The brothers were in a room discussing war when a rain of bullets began pouring in. "I'll put a stop to this," boasted Groucho—and pulled down the window shade.

"You can't beat stuff like that," concluded Chico.

Dizzy Dean thinks the 1958 vintage big league ball player is too soft and peaceable. "What baseball needs," Dis told reporter John Lardner, "is wild men like we used to have on the old St. Louis Cards—the gashouse gang—such as me, Rip Collins, Pepper Martin, Frank Frisch, and them."

"What was the salary in those days?" asked Lardner. "That," explained Dizzy Dean, "is what drove us wild."

"The stinger of a bee," points out the Maryville News, "is only .03125 inches long. The rest of the 12 inches is pure imagination." © 1958, by Bennett Cerf. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

Quotes From the News

By UNITED PRESS

Stratford, Va.—President Eisenhower, making a plea for better international understanding on a person-to-person basis:

"There is not a single person in the United States that is not affected every single day by what happens in Africa, in far Asia, in Europe and all of South America."

San Juan, Puerto Rico—Pablo Casals, in appealing for an immediate end to the nuclear armaments race:

"It is incredible that civilized men can continue to build always new and more destructive weapons instead of devoting energies to make this a happier and more beautiful world."

New York—Multimillionaire industrialist Cyrus S. Eaton, charging that Americans are snooping on each other with a spy network bigger than the Nazi Gestapo:

"There are no Communists in America to speak of except in the mind of those on the payroll of the FBI."

Billy Graham Still Draws Huge Crowds

San Francisco — Billy Graham wound up the first week of his crusade here Saturday still drawing capacity crowds to the huge Cow Palace arena.

An overflow throng of 17,500 heard the powerful evangelist deliver a treatise on "spiritual heart disease" Friday night. Five hundred had to stand in the aisles and 500 more were standing in the entranceway.

The crusade, which opened last Sunday, has already drawn an attendance of some 95,000. Graham's aides have recorded 2,422 "conversions" including 539 who stepped forward Friday night to "encounter Christ."

The evangelist went on a nationwide TV hookup Saturday at 7 p.m. (PDT) over the American Broadcasting Co. network.

"Heart disease is the No. 1 killer today," Graham told his audience Friday night, "but the Bible indicates the heart has a spiritual disease, a moral disease, that is even worse than the physical."

The fiery evangelist said he was asking his listeners "only one question: Is your heart right before God and your fellow man?"

"I am not asking about your intellectual life, your financial status or your social standing . . . Only one question: Is your heart right?"

Holding a Bible in his outstretched left hand, Graham pointed his finger at the crowd and said piercingly that people "who go to church on Sunday and sing 'All Hail the Name of Jesus'—the Bible says these people draw night unto me with their lips, but their heart is far from me."

Woodworkers Make No Raise Offer

Portland — The International Woodworkers of America Friday offered to go without any wage increase for its 45,000 members in five Western states — at least until September.

The proposal was made to employers in a negotiation meet here by the union's regional negotiating committee. A union spokesman said employers were surprised by the proposal and that they appeared favorable to it.

The union said the proposal was made after "considerable thought, discussion and analysis of economic conditions which have prevailed in our industry for the past 18 months."

An employer spokesman said the proposal would have to be submitted to various companies for approval but that he saw no reason why it would not be forthcoming.
