

Spokane Takes Top Position In Pacific Coast Loop Race

By GENE BRYANT
 United Press Sports Writer

The hard-hitting Spokane Indians, holding a slim one-half game lead over Vancouver in the Pacific Coast league pennant race, move into Portland tonight for the first tilt of a seven-game series with the Beavers.

The Indians powered their way into the top spot Sunday with a 12-5 victory over Seattle. The winners' 17-hit attack increased their hit total for the last four games to 56.

In other games, Sacramento dumped Portland twice, 6-3, and 4-3; San Diego split a day-night twin bill with Phoenix, winning the first game, 5-2, but dropping the finale, 7-1; and Vancouver pasted Salt Lake City in both ends of their doubleheader, taking the opener, 8-5, and the nightcap, 3-0.

Five Tied for Third

Sunday's action left five clubs tied for third, one game behind Spokane, followed by cellar-dwelling Seattle, two and a half games off the pace. The Rainiers have been the only club unable to play 500 ball or better so far this season.

Relief pitcher Bill George took over on the mound for Spokane in the first inning when Seattle threatened to make it a runaway after scoring three runs off starter Glen McMinn and from then it was all Spokane.

The Indians scored a single run in their half of the first, added two more in the second, five in the fifth, one in the sixth and three in the seventh. Catcher Bill Sherry led the winners' hitting attack with a tremendous home run in the fifth frame.

A crowd of 8,086 attended the contest, bringing to a week's total for the six-game series to 35,003. Spokane won the series, 4-2.

Mounties Break Spell

At Salt Lake, the Mounties broke the home club's four-game winning streak with their double victory. Vancouver collected 14 hits and made five double plays in the opener, then pushed across three runs in the third inning of the nightcap to ruin the day for 5,812 fans. Salt Lake's largest crowd of the season, although the Bees took the series, 4-3.

Sacramento's sweep of the twin-bill with Portland gave the Solons a 4-3 edge in their series. Carlos Paula paced the winners in the second game with a three-run homer and Ray Webster had three for four in the first contest. About 1,500 fans attended each tilt.

At San Diego, Phoenix scored three runs in the bottom of the 10th to win the opener. Max Surkont held the Padres to four hits in the seven-inning nightcap to give the Giants an even split for the day.

Roy Campanella Moved to Start Rehabilitation

New York — Former Brooklyn Dodgers catcher Roy Campanella, paralyzed in a Jan. 28 auto accident, was moved today to New York's NYU-Bellvue Medical center to start an active program of rehabilitation.

Doctors were hopeful that Campanella would progress to the point of being able to use his arms for "ordinary living" but said that "total recovery would be very unusual."

Campanella's doctors said that his spirits were good and that he was "eager" to start on the rehabilitation program. But they admitted that he still was "quadriplegic" — meaning paralyzed in all four extremities.

Anthony Goes Against Miller

New York — Second ranked light heavyweight Tony Anthony gets a chance to test his punching power against a heavyweight tonight when he meets Artie Miller of New York in a scheduled 10-rounder at St. Nicholas Arena.

Pioneers Snatch NW Doublebill

By United Press

Lewis and Clark snatched a doubleheader from Pacific university, 10-6, and 8-3, in Northwest conference action Saturday, all but eliminating Pacific's loop title hopes. The double loss dropped Pacific to second place in the standings, with a 5-4 record. Colleger of Idaho was idle, and remained on top of the heap with 9 wins and 2 losses in conference play.

In other Northwest conference action over the weekend, Linfield and Willamette split a doubleheader at McMinnville. The Bearcats snapped up a 14-6 win in the opener but were edged by the Wildcats in the nightcap, 4-3.

LaSorda Shines In International

By UNITED PRESS

Tom LaSorda, assuming the triple tasks of pitcher, coach and hitter for the Montreal Royals, today stood out as the most outstanding player in the International League during the early weeks of the new season.

The stocky leftlander set back Havana on six hits in the opener of a doubleheader Sunday, 14-0, for his third consecutive shutout. As a hitter, he slugged a homer, his second of the campaign, and as pitching coach he can take partial credit for the seven inning shutout thrown by teammate Babe Birrer in the second game, which Montreal won, 10-0.

The double win boosted the Royals within percentage points of the league-leading Rochester Red Wings.

In other Sunday action, Pat Scantlebury pitched Toronto to a 5-4, 10-inning win over Miami in the first game of a twinbill. The second contest was halted by curfew after five innings with Miami leading 4-3. Richmond edged Buffalo, 2-1.
