

SEARCH ENDS—Mrs. Agah Sauer Wegner is all smiles in Salt Lake City, Utah, as she holds telephoto of her twin sister, Sophie (Za Za) Sauer, taken in Miami, Fla. Separated since they fled the Russians in 1945, each had thought the other dead until Za Za learned recently that her twin was alive. Publication of Za Za's picture brought a call to a newspaper telling of Agah's whereabouts. The twins are now planning a reunion.

Christ Can Change Life, Graham Tells Bay Area Throng

San Francisco — Fifty thousand London bus drivers and conductors quit work Monday in a strike that crippled commuter services and threatened the metropolis with monumental traffic jams at the start of a record tourist season.

Many Britons feared the bus strike, effective Sunday night, would be followed by a similar walkout over wages by employees of the nationalized railroad and by a sympathy strike of the city's subway system, the Underground was expected to absorb most of the load of city transport in a 2,000 square mile area where 10 million persons live. But union officials refused in a "solidarity" move to run extra trains to take care of the overflow.

"No human mind can grasp it... you must accept Him on faith."

"Christ lived only 33 years," Graham said. "His longest journey was less than a hundred miles. All his ministry was in an area the size of the state of Rhode Island — yet, He has transformed history and after 2,000 years has millions of followers all over the world."

A Graham spokesman said Sunday's crowd boosted the eight-day total to 135,500, as compared to 136,500 for the same period during the New York crusade.

The spokesman said 598 responded to Graham's plea to "accept Christ" Sunday, bringing the total to 5,071 for the same period at Madison Square Garden.

Graham will rest tonight before continuing his six-week crusade. As the stragglers left Sunday's session, workmen began erecting a boxing ring for tonight's middleweight battle between Joey Giardello and Rory Calhoun.

"There are four attitudes you can take toward Christ," he said. "You can ridicule Him... you can reject Him outright... you can neglect Him... or you can receive Him. I'm asking you today to accept Him."

Graham told his audience he didn't see how any woman could reject Christ.

"In parts of the world where Christianity has not gone, woman is little more than an animal. Christ elevated women," he said.

Graham said he did not see how labor leaders could turn away from Christ because "the labor movement began 300 years ago by a few Christian people who felt a responsibility to their God and their neighbors."

"Orphanages and old people's homes don't exist where there isn't a Christian civilization," he added.

Graham said that people often say, "Billy, I can't understand the Trinity — God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Spirit — How can there be three persons in one?"

"And I tell them my answer — 'I don't know!'" he said.

29 Killed in Colombia Voting

Bogota, Colombia — Alberto Lleras Camargo won a landslide victory Sunday in a presidential election marred by violence in which at least 29 persons were killed and 9 wounded, it has been announced.

Returns representing about a third of the ballots cast gave 848,983 votes to 124,700 for Jorge Leyva and 3,351 for "others."

Lleras was the "National Unity" candidate of his own Liberal Party and most of the conservatives who are their traditional foes. Leyva was nominated by an extremist conservative faction. The "others" mentioned in the returns presumably were write-in candidates.

Leyva conceded defeat in a statement to the United Press at 9 p.m. Sunday. He added, however, that Lleras' victory was a hollow one because there was no real contest.

"The whole thing was a farce," he said. "I am very happy, and Lleras should be very sad. Of course, I conceded two weeks ago, not tonight."

Lleras, who has served once previously as president, promised in a victory statement that he will "govern for the good of all Colombians."

Russia Sticks To Conference Demand

London — Russia Monday agreed to carry on pre-summit talks with the western ambassadors in Moscow but still demanded that the big decisions be made at a foreign ministers' meeting.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko told the ambassadors of the United States, Britain and France at separate meetings in Moscow that the agenda and membership of a summit conference should be settled by the foreign ministers — not by the ambassadors, as the West had suggested.

Portland — The spring commercial fishing season on the Columbia river has been closed until 60,000 salmon pass over Booneville dam.

Bus Service in London Crippled By Driver Strike

London — Fifty thousand London bus drivers and conductors quit work Monday in a strike that crippled commuter services and threatened the metropolis with monumental traffic jams at the start of a record tourist season.

Many Britons feared the bus strike, effective Sunday night, would be followed by a similar walkout over wages by employees of the nationalized railroad and by a sympathy strike of the city's subway system, the Underground was expected to absorb most of the load of city transport in a 2,000 square mile area where 10 million persons live. But union officials refused in a "solidarity" move to run extra trains to take care of the overflow.

Commuters Warned

Civic authorities warned commuters to allow themselves 24 minutes to walk a mile in city traffic and told women office workers to wear low-heeled shoes. Men were told to wear leather-soled shoes in place of the crepe rubber soles popular in England.

The busses affected were the famed red double-decker busses serving central London and the single deck Green Line counterparts that serve the suburbs.

The strike was called by the Transport and General Workers Union to back demands for more pay. The busmen ask $1.47 weekly increase and rejected a $1.19 raise that would have applied only to 32,000 in central London. The government opposes the raises for fear they will touch off other demands.

Ike Urges Closer Ties Among Peoples

Washington — President Eisenhower has called for a closer relationship among peoples of the world.

"I believe," the President said, "there is no single individual in the United States who can escape his duty" to "the last individual in China, in Madagascar or at the North Pole."

The Chief Executive made the statement at Stratford, Va., where he and Mrs. Eisenhower participated in ceremonies honoring Robert E. Lee.

Contrasting the colonial period with that of today, the President said: "this is the difference between the oxcart and the jet."

Eugene — The condition of Charles V. Stanton, editor and general manager of the Roseburg News Review, remained critical today, attendant at Sacred Heart Hospital here said.

245 Store Doors Left Open During April, Police Say

Medford police reported a total of 245 open doors in their nightly checks of business firms during April, according to their monthly report.

Open windows discovered by the department numbered 74, open safes found amounted to 13, six open gates were found and 185 night lights were reported out, police said. Seven vacation house checks were made by the department during April.

Police reported 43 car collisions in the city in which eight people were injured. Six people reported to police of being bitten by a dog in April.

Lost persons, animals and property reported during April numbered 18 cases while found persons, animals and property amounted to 23 for the month, they said.

Top Citations

Citations for not stopping at traffic signals or stop signs topped the number of traffic offences during April with 90 issued, police said. Violation of basic rule citations numbered 89 for the month.

Police reported a total of 205 parking citations during April with an additional 3,108 meter tickets issued. Twenty-seven people were cited by city police for failing to have an operator's license.

Twenty-one citations were issued for void vehicle licenses for the month, police reported. Police issued seven citations for violation of right-of-way to pedestrians and vehicles.

A total of 58 other citations were issued by police during the month, they said.

NAM Renews Demand For Tax Cuts, Economy

Washington — The National Association of Manufacturers Monday renewed its demand for tax cuts, government economy and a curb on the "power of union monopolies" as measures to cure the recession.

The University of Miami, opened in 1926, had fewer than 2,000 students in 1945. Today some 13,000 students fill three campuses and more than 50 new buildings.

Pickets Close Plywood Plant at Coquille

Coquille — The Coquille Plywood Corp. plant here was closed down Monday when a majority of employees refused to go through a picket line set up around the mill.
