

Giants Scare Pirates in 9-Run Inning; Hamner Leads Phillies to 8-3 Victory

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer
Three different doctors told Granny Hamner he'd never play ball again but the diagnosis went haywire somewhere.

of quitting baseball a year ago because of a serious shoulder injury, drove in five runs in an 8-3 victory over Los Angeles.
He teed off on Don Drysdale for a triple with the bases full in a five-run first inning, then slammed the 100th home run of his career off reliever Jackie Collum with one on in the fifth. Stan Lopata followed with a homer of his own over the fence-the left field one, naturally.
Hamner's heavy stickwork sent young Don Drysdale down to his fifth straight defeat without a victory, and while Dodge owner Walter O'Malley figures to make a bundle in California, it certainly hasn't proven at all lucrative to the luckless, 21-year-old righthander so far.

Five-Hitter
Roman Ray Semproch of the Phils turned in a neat five-hitter in achieving his third win. The Dodgers scored all their runs off him in the fourth with Carl Furillo's two-run homer highlighting the rally.

The Giants threw a scare into Pittsburgh by coming up with nine runs in the ninth inning but the Pirates staggered through for an 11-10 victory that moved them into a first-place tie with the Chicago Cubs.
San Francisco's ninth-inning fireworks included a three-run homer by Ray Jablonski, one with the bases empty by Orlando Cepeda and three pinch doubles by Jim King, Johnny Antonelli and Bob Speake.
It was the biggest rally by any club this year and it was staged before San Francisco's smallest crowd of the season—5,506.
Winner Vern Law was breeding along with a bulging 11-1 lead in the ninth when the Giants knocked him out with five hits and five runs. Curt Raydon took over and was tagged for a three-run homer by Jablonski, after which Ron Blackburn came on to pitch for Pittsburgh and was greeted by Cepeda's homer. Don Goss finally nailed down the last out by getting pinch hitter Don Taussig to pop up with the bases loaded.

Frank Thomas hit his eighth homer for the Pirates and teammate R. C. Stevens also connected. Ruben Gomez was the loser.
Bob (River Boat) Smith registered his first major league victory as the Red Sox defeated the Indians, 8-5.
Smith, a rookie southpaw, needed help from big Frank Sullivan in the eighth when Cleveland scored its final two runs but until that frame Dick Brown's three-run homer in the fourth represented all of the Tribe's scoring.
Ray Narjeski started for Cleveland and was routed in a four-run sixth inning uprising. Don Buddin homered for Boston while Pete Runnels and Ted Williams each drove in two runs.
Rain washed out the Kansas City-Washington and Detroit-Baltimore games in the American League as well as the Milwaukee-St. Louis contest in the National. The Yankees and White Sox were idle in the American while the Cubs and Redlegs were not scheduled in the National.

DODGER STEALS HOME—Dodgers' Don Zimmer slides across the plate as he steals home in sixth inning of game with the Pittsburgh Pirates at the Coliseum in Los Angeles. Batter Gil Hodges (left) held his bat over the plate as Zimmer started his steal and the strike pitch bounced off catcher Hank Foiles (20) and rolled toward third. Dodgers won, 9-5.

Two Spots Change in Bowl Leads

San Francisco — The Women's International Bowling Congress tournament rolled along Monday with only two changes among the leaders.
Pearl Cekek, of Denver, Colo., took over third place in the singles with an even 600; the doubles team of Marge Finecutter and Mary Joe Nelson of Waukegan, Ill., moved into fourth place with a total of 1,109; and the Ohio Embroidery Team of Cleveland gained fourth place in Division I play with 2,564.
Gloria Johnson of Albany, Ore., advanced to take over fourth place with a 593 total in the singles.
Larayne Harris of Klamath Falls, Ore., maintained her fifth place in all events with 1,649. Bunny Weidell of St. Paul continued to lead in that unofficial class with a 1,757.
Robertson Service of Roseburg, Ore., moved up into fourth place in division II, 651-750 with 2,315. Max X hotel team 3 of San Francisco was first with 2,353.

Harman Leads In Ore Open With 66 Score

Portland — Sid Harman of Yakima held a two-stroke lead today after the first 18 holes of the annual Oregon Open golf tournament which saw him come within one stroke of tying the Riverside course record here.
Harman fired a six-under-par 66 Monday with a hot round which included seven birdies.
Bud Hofmeister of Hayden Lake, Ida., was next in line with a 68, followed by veteran Chuck Congdon of Tacoma with a 69. Congdon had eagle on the 510-yard 10th hole.
Medford linksmen Al Williams and Ron Caperna are taking part in the Oregon Open competition. Williams posted a 76 and Caperna a 78 in first day rounds.

Fighters Complete Workouts for Bout

Houston, Tex. — Both champ Joe Brown and challenger Ralph Dupas worked out lightly today as they put on the finishing touches for Wednesday night's world lightweight championship fight here.
A crowd of 10,000 and a gate of $60,000 plus money from national television is expected for the 15-round contest, the first title bout in Texas history.
Both men spent some time on the light bag today, as well as shadow boxing and doing exercises. There was no sparring.
Brown has been made a slight favorite to retain his crown against the fancy-boxing Dupas, but the odds have been slowly dropping as the bell time draws nearer. Odds are expected to be even money, pick 'em, by the 8 p.m. fight time.

Dupas' camp was apparently assured today their boy has "made" the limit of 133 pounds, and that he would weigh in at exactly that figure.
The biggest worry of the New Orleans boy's followers now seems to be just how much the weight-dropping problem has taken out of him.
An old eye cut has also been troubling Dupas, but trainer Angelo Dundee said he thought the cut was fully healed and a "punch shouldn't open it."
In Brown's camp, the quietly determined champ, also from New Orleans, said he would be shooting for a knockout from the opening bell.
"All I'm interested in is his chin," the champion said. "I'll be disappointed if it goes 15 rounds and I have to win by a decision. I'm looking for a knockout."

Bums' Hurling Lacks Talents Of Former Club

By UNITED PRESS
If the parent Los Angeles Dodgers are looking around for some pitching talent, they can find plenty on their Montreal farm club.
Only three Dodger pitchers have managed to go the distance since the season started but righthander Billy Harris gave the Royals their third route-going performance in as many games when he beat the Havana Sugar Kings, 10-4, Monday night.
The victory boosted Montreal into a first place tie with Rochester in the International League. The Royals' hurlers have now accounted for 12 complete games in 20 outings.

Ward Regains Amateur Stand

San Francisco — E. Harvie Ward, considered by many the world's greatest amateur golfer, received his amateur reinstatement today from the U.S.G.A. and immediately announced that he would seek the U.S. crown again this year.
Ward, winner of the title in 1955 and 1956, was barred from the 1957 event because of accepting illegal expense moneys from 1952 to 1957.
Rather than turn professional, he sat out the one-year ban.
"I wanted to play golf only as an amateur," said Ward. "My game is a bit off right now, but I hope to get it in shape for the National Open and the National Amateur."
