

Violinist, Tenor To Appear With Choral Club on Sunday

Guest soloists at the spring concert of the Southern Oregon Women's Choral club, which will be presented Sunday, May 11, will be Harlees Wilson, violinist, and James Baker, tenor. The concert will begin at 3 p.m. in the auditorium of Churchill hall at Southern Oregon college, and is open to the public.

Mr. Wilson recently completed his third season with the Denver Symphony orchestra. He will play "Sonata in D Major," by Vivaldi, "Nocturne in E flat," by Chopin-Sarasate, and "Liebesfreud," by Kreisler.

The violinist received his early training in Ashland, and was a pupil of Richard Werner of Medford. He received his bachelor of music degree at the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music, where he studied violin with Sascha Jacobsen. Further study was taken at Tanglewood, summer home of the Boston Symphony orchestra, and of composers and artist teachers, and at the University of Southern California.

Mr. Baker, who is the son of Mrs. Edith Baker, 535 Haven street, Medford, recently finished a tour of duty with the armed services.

Accompanist for Mr. Wilson and Mr. Baker will be Miss Helene Robinson, who is director of the chorus. Soloists for "The Blessed Damozel," by Debussy, are Mrs. Lois (William G.) Reed of Medford and Mrs. Lois Windsor of Ashland. Miss Frances Thrun, Medford, and Mrs. Colleen Lewis, Ashland, will be presented in incidental solos with chorus compositions.

Miss Margaret Ramsay, Ashland piano teacher, is accompanist for the chorus.

Political Science Student to Speak For Altrusa Club

Miss Nancy Norbury, political science major at Southern Oregon college, will be guest speaker at an international relations dinner meeting at Medford Altrusa club Thursday, May 8, at 7 p.m. in the Rague room at the Medford hotel.

Mrs. Virginia Sherwood, chairman of the international relations committee, will introduce Miss Norbury who will talk informally on some aspect of the relationship of the free world and the Soviet Union.

Mrs. Winnie Mack and Mrs. Maisie Daily are hostesses for the meeting and will take reservations.

Mrs. Edna Mole, chairman of the Altrusa place mat project, has announced that her committee, assisted by the total membership, has started work on the 1958-59 place mat. It will have an entirely new design, showing actual pictures of the recreational areas in this part of southern Oregon and including historic sights in honor of the Oregon Centennial celebration. It will be ready for printing June 1. A total of 10,000 of these mats will be available for free use all over the county and nearby localities for clubs, churches, granges, unions, civic organizations, motels, hotels, restaurants and gas stations.

They can also be folded and sent to other parts of the country to invite friends to the southern Oregon playground and to patronize local business and industrial firms.

Proceeds from this project supports the Altrusa community programs in safety, vocational retraining of older women, recreation clubs for senior citizens, and grants-in-aid for women scholars from South America and Asia studying in this country.

Altrusans, business and professional executives, not only believe "You Auto Buy Now" but also "You Auto Advertise" the club states.

Operetta Announced For Friday

Hedrick Junior High school will present "Meet Arizona," a dude ranch operetta, on the school stage Friday, May 9, at 8 p.m. Participants include those in the HJH choruses, under the direction of Carroll Graber, and special dialogue parts, under the direction of Jerry McDougall.

As the title suggests, the curtain rises on a mythical dude ranch where a cast of "cow pokes" welcome the audience. The plot thickens when "romance" and "comedy" are combined with the musical talent of the HJHS choruses. A Mexican Siesta is also included. The suspense is increased and is climaxed in the second act by a weird conclusion.

Tickets may be purchased from any member of the Hedrick chorus or actor or by contacting the Hedrick Junior High school office.

Set construction is credited to Duane Richardson and the shop classes. Miss Catherine Fonken and the art classes are in charge of decorating the sets. Those participating in speaking and dramatic roles are Linda Samuelsen, Jerry Gastineau, Dee Reed, Mike McCullough, Suzy Thompson, Ken Wise, Sherry Lambert, Jim Frake, Gary Jones, Bill Mills and Dave Lundquist.

The seventh grade chorus is also helping in the operetta.

Gold Hill Group Sets Meeting in Medford

Gold Hill — Mrs. Alfred Castillo will be hostess for a meeting of the Golden Circle society of the Gold Hill Christian church at her home, 133 North Ivy street, Medford, Friday, May 9. A dessert luncheon will precede the business session at 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. Clarence Freeman, Gold Hill, will be in charge of the afternoon's devotions. Mrs. Rex Allison, president of the group, stated that those in need of transportation on that date may contact her, telephone ULrich 5-1179, or Mrs. Leonard Andrews, ULrich 5-1140 before Friday.

Family Dinner Planned by Club

Y Knot Twirlers Square Dance club will hold a family potluck dinner Thursday, May 8, preceding a dance at the YMCA. In addition to a hot dish, salad or dessert, dancers are asked to take their table service and milk, if desired, for children.

Coffee and punch will be furnished by the club. Square dancing will begin at 8 p.m. in the social hall. Children will be shown movies in Room B, or may play games in the downstairs lobby.

Y Knot callers are Douglas Fosbury and Kenneth Hood. Membership in the YMCA is not required and all square dancers are invited to attend.

Unusual Meat Garnish

New York — A colorful meat garnish combines peaches, catsup and onions. Fill canned cling peach halves with a teaspoon of catsup and a pinch of instant minced onion. Broil and serve on platter with meat or with hamburgers.

New Club To Meet

The newly organized Golden Age club will meet Friday, May 9, at 10 a.m. at the Red Cross building. Members are asked to take a sack lunch.

The club met last Friday, with about 75 in attendance. Mrs. Lester Wertz, Eagle Point, led the group in action games and community singing and Miss Shirley Thomas sang a song composed by one of the members, Earle McBee of Medford. Mrs. Maude Arnold is pianist for the group.

Mr. McBee displayed a guitar he had made using two copper plates and a large myrtle wood bowl.

Games were played. Lynne's Candy Cottage sent a large bowl of assorted candy, the Safeway store on West Main street donated a month's supply of coffee, and cookies were supplied by members.

The club voted a membership fee of 25 cents a month.
