

STAN MUSIAL'S BAT BOOMS, BUT CARDS BOW TO BURDETTE

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer
Something's screwy in St. Louis.

Stan (The Man) Musial is practically in outer space with a still-soaring .529 batting average while the Cardinals seem to be slipping clear out of sight with an awfully sore 3-14 record.

Lew Burdette of the Braves shoved the Cards deeper into the National League cellar on Wednesday night with a five-hit, 9-2 victory. Burdette had all of the Redbirds eating out of his hand with one notable exception, Musial, of course. Slugging Stan, off and running in quest of his eighth batting title, drove in both St. Louis runs with a pair of doubles and a single. He wound his goal 3,000. And now to give you an idea of how Musial is doing in the batting race, he is "only" 150 points ahead of his nearest competitor — Cincinnati's Don Hoak.

The Braves wasted little time in starting the Cards on their way to their seventh straight loss Wednesday night. Milwaukee clinched the game in the first inning by hammering out Herm Wehmeier, in a six-run barrage. Doubles by Hank Aaron and Frank Torre along with Wes Covington's two-run homer accounted for most of the damage.

Burdette chipped in with three hits himself in coasting to his third victory. Milwaukee outfielder Bob Hazle was struck on the head by a pitch thrown by reliever Larry Jackson and although he was removed to a hospital his injury was called not serious.

The Braves' victory kept them a half-game behind the souped-up Chicago Cubs, who held on to first place with a 5-1 victory over the Cincinnati Redlegs.

Southpaw Taylor Phillips, who came to the Cubs in a much-criticized deal with the Braves last winter, stopped the Redlegs on five hits. The Cubs, meanwhile, pecked away at loser Brooks Lawrence and Johnny Klippstein for nine, including three by Dale Long.

Hamburgers Head WIBC

The San Francisco Giants beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 8-6, despite a barrage of four home runs by the losers. The Pirates tied a major league record in the fifth when Bob Skinner, Ted Klusowski and Frank Thomas slammed consecutive homers. Klusowski hit his second homer of the game with one on in the seventh but it wasn't enough to keep Bob Friend from suffering his first defeat after four straight victories.

Rookie Bob Schmidt's three run homer featured a four-run Giant uprising in the fourth that stretched San Francisco's lead to 6-1. Reliever Ron Blackburn gave up what proved to be the deciding run in the fifth when he walked Schmidt with the bases full and the Giants added another run in the same frame. Red Worthington was the winner.

Southpaw Curt Simmons scored his first victory over the Dodgers in four years by pitching the Phillies to a 9-3 verdict.

Granny Hamner and Stan Lopata provided the hard core of Philadelphia's 15-hit attack with three hits apiece. Hamner had a single, double and a triple while Lopata socked a homer and two singles. Carl Furillo drove in all of Los Angeles' runs with a three-run homer in the third. Rookie Knuckleballer Fred Kipp suffered the loss.

Over in the American league, Detroit and Washington split a two-night twin bill, the Tigers taking the opener, 5-1, and the Senators the nightcap, 11-4.

The split kept the Senators in second place, a game behind the league-leading Yankees.

Reno Bertioia, sought by the Senators all spring, won the opener for Detroit with the first grand-slam homer of his career in a five-run first inning against Camilo Pascual. Frank Lary pitched a unique game for the Tigers, giving up 13 hits and striking out eight. He had a shut-out until the ninth when Eddie Yost homered.

It was an entirely different story in the nightcap. Washington knocked out Jim Bunning in the second inning and Senator rookie Hal Griggs checked the Tigers on seven hits. Clint Courtney paced the Senators' 15-hit attack with two doubles and a single.

Rain, which has been delaying the East the last five days, washed out games between the Yankees and Indians, the Athletics and Orioles, and the Red Sox and White Sox.

Ems Edge Braves 2-1 In NW Loop

By UNITED PRESS
Earned or unearned, those runs count as the Eugene Emeralds of the Northwest league can tell you.

The Emeralds got only five hits Wednesday night but parlayed two unearned runs into a 2-1 victory over Tri-City. Eugene scored one in the third on a walk, a fielder's choice, a bunt single and a wild throw.

The Emeralds won it in the sixth as Bob Turk doubled off the left field wall and scored when the Brave catcher tried to nail him at third on a bunt play.

Brons Keep Lead

Lewiston maintained its shaky one-game lead over second-place Wenatchee with a 9-4 verdict over Salem. Thornton Kipper went the route for the winners, giving up nine hits in notching his third victory of the season.

Gary Rushing belted a two-run homer in the fifth for the winners.

Wenatchee kept pace with an 8-7 verdict over Yakima. The Chiefs had a fat 8-2 lead going into the ninth but Yakima pushed across five runs before pitcher Claude Osteen finally got Pete Gonzaga to ground out to end the game.

Osteen got credit for his second win against one loss while Bob Roberts of Yakima suffered his second loss in three decisions.

Brown Halts Dupas To Keep Ring Title

By CHARLES E. WEBB
Houston, Tex. — Ring-wise Old Joe Brown, $32,000 richer for his cunning in scoring an eighth round technical knockout over flashy Ralph Dupas in a title fight Wednesday night, made new plans today to decimate the lightweight ranks.

Brown said he would fight Kenny Lane, Muskegon, Mich., next. No date has been set for the bout but Brown has posted a $5,000 bond that he would meet Lane.

The champion successfully defended his title for the fourth time by calmly waiting for his opening and then turning into a furious fighting machine that sent Dupas to the canvas three times before the fight was stopped at 2:21 of the eighth.

"I knew I had him when I saw I could maneuver him in the corners pretty much as I wanted to," Brown said in his dressing room after the bout.

Brown, 31, said it was a good left to the body that set up the 22-year-old Dupas for the kill. Then a hard right cross sent Dupas to the canvas for the first in a series of three knockdowns.

For Dupas it was only the second time that he had been stopped in a career that began when he "just added a few years" and started fighting at 14. He said he didn't know what punch it was that caught him.

Slightly more than 11,000 persons, near capacity in the Sam Houston Coliseum, turned out for the fight and paid $68,740, radio and television added approximately $30,000 to the gate to make it the richest fight ever staged in Texas.

Brown's cut of the approximate $80,000 net was 40 per cent; Dupas got 20 per cent. Both are from New Orleans.

Brown stalked his man, plodding after his fleet opponent.

Dupas saw an early lead start slipping in the fifth when Brown's body punches slowed the contest from a fast opening. The champion took over in the sixth and in the seventh took complete command.

At the opening of the eighth, Brown drove Dupas to a corner and opened up with a furious onslaught that sent the challenger to the canvas. Dupas was up at a count of nine, but another barrage sent him down twice more for eight counts.

Referee Jimmy Webb stepped in to stop the punishment just as Brown scored one more with a terrific left hook.

NBA Tables Talk On Expansion

New York—San Francisco and Los Angeles will have to wait at least another year before going "big league" in pro basketball.

The board of governors of the National Basketball association tabled any discussion of expansion to the West Coast at the opening session of a two-day meeting Wednesday.

It was revealed the NBA has received 12 requests from San Francisco and Los Angeles groups for franchises. A league spokesman said Baltimore, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Chicago and Houston also are interested in joining the league.
