Public Relations In Business Topic Of Course Here

A course on public relations in business, sponsored by the National Retail Credit association of St. Louis, Mo., and featuring S. H. Womack, training consultant in public relations, Austin, Tex., will be held at Hedrick Junior High school May 21-23. The course is open to the general public, according to Vern Bacon, manager of the Credit bureau of Medford. Womack has conducted similar courses in about 150 cities and has 15 years of experience in this field, Bacon said.

Urged to Enroll
All banks, retailers, wholesalers, industrial manufacturers, public utilities, public service employees and people in education have been urged to enroll, he said. Principal topics to be discussed will be what public relations is and means to everyone, public relations media, how to get along with people, memory, use of the telephone, speech and applied psychology in the handling of people and problems in everyday business. Certificates will be issued. Those desiring to enroll have been asked to contact the Credit bureau of Medford at SPring 2-8006. more for a copy of our Alice Brooks Needlecraft Catalogue. Two complete patterns are printed right in the book... plus a variety of designs that you will want to order: crochet, knitting, embroidery, huck weaving, quilts, toys, dolls.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

AN ENGLISH NEWSPAPER has been investigating a very important matter: the number of times a cuckoo can call without stopping. And since a great many English people take their bird-watching very seriously, letters have been pouring in on the subject.

One reader in Tilehurst reported he had heard a cuckoo call distinctly 121 times in succession. "A mere nothing," pooh-poohed another reader from Leamington Spa. Her cuckoo had sounded off 205 times without a pause that refreshes! A third reader counted over 300 successive cuckoo calls, but honorably disqualified himself when he discovered he was standing outside a clock factory.

Hatfield Possesses Political, Teacher Work Experience

Editor's note: This is another in a series of profiles on candidates for governor in the May primary election. Today: Secretary of State Mark Hatfield.

Portland — (P) — Secretary of State Mark Hatfield, nearing his 36th birthday and a July wedding date, can look back on a three-way career as he awaits the electorate's decision on his bid for the Republican nomination for Governor.

Hatfield has a background in both the state House and Senate, during which time he was a political science teacher and dean of students at Willamette University in Salem.

He has twice been elected a delegate to Republican national conventions in both 1952 and 1956 and was seated on the important platform committee. A man of deep religious conviction, Hatfield has taught a Sunday School class for young adults and served three terms as moderator of Salem's large First Baptist Church. He has spoken before 17 different denominations from Cleveland, O., to Seattle, Wash., and in 1955 addressed the Easter Sunrise Service in the Pasadena Rose Bowl.

Last fall, Hatfield became engaged to Antoinette Kuzmanich, a University of Oregon graduate, now counselor at Portland State College. Their wedding is set for July 8. Both hold master's degrees from Stanford University. Making no pretense of his desire for a continued career in public service, he has admitted to friends he had hoped to bide his time before running for higher office, but supporters convinced him he should seek the governor's chair now.

As an administrator, Hatfield has tackled big reorganization problems in his office and as a Board of Control member he makes regular inspections of state institutions. Hatfield says the most fun he's had in the campaign was the McKenzie River Guides White Water boat parade during which he shot the rapids over a long course.

It brought back memories of 31 months naval service in World War II, including the invasions of Iwo Jima and Okinawa.

"I hadn't realized it could be so much fun without shells and bombs," he grinned, soaking wet from a driving rain.
