

Ceremony Held Here For Couple

Miss Beatrice Elaine Levitzow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Levitzow, 517 West 1st avenue, Medford, became the bride of Theodore John Garrigus, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Garrigus, Merline, Ore., in a ceremony held April 26 at Sacred Heart Catholic church. The Rev. John Ilg officiated at the 10:30 o'clock morning nuptial mass attended by 27 relatives and friends.

Lilacs and white gladiolus decorated the church for the wedding. Bruno Pellegrini played the organ wedding music.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length white tulle gown and net over satin gown. Her fingertip length veil was held by a coronet of lace and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

Mrs. Floyd Walton, sister of the bridegroom, Arcata, Calif., attended the bride. Henry Brady, cousin of the bridegroom, Portland, served as best man.

A breakfast was held at the Medford hotel by the parents of the bridegroom. The reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. Levitzow at their home.

The couple are making their home in Merline following a wedding trip to Salem and Crater Lake. For her traveling attire the bride wore a blue suit with pink and black accessories.

The bride attended Prospect and Medford schools. The bridegroom attended Forest Grove and Portland schools and is employed by Bates Plywood company.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Mrs. Florence Lubka, grandmother, and Mrs. Edward Becker and Bonnie, aunt and cousin, all relatives of the bride from Richmond, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Erickson, Castello, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, Portland, grandparents of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Remus Branson, Timber, Ore.

Leaders Honored At Tea Tuesday

Camp Fire, Blue Bird and Horizon club leaders were honored at a tea Tuesday when they met with the board of directors of the Rogue Camp Fire Girls council in observance of Leader Recognition day. Mrs. Elmo Stevenson, Ashland, president of the board, presided at the tea table.

Mrs. J. P. Rowan, Medford, president of the board thanked the leaders for their "faithful service" this past year, and Mrs. Ruth Gerety, executive director, spoke on the "Leaders' Role in Council Growth."

Mrs. Rufus Younger, Medford, was presented a 5-year leadership award by Mrs. Gerety. Mrs. Younger has been a Blue Bird, Camp Fire, and Horizon club leader and also gives the Camp Fire basic training course as a member of the training committee.

Garden Club

Shady Cove — Shady Cove Garden club will meet at the home of Mrs. Floyd Kelley, Monday, May 12, at 12:30 p.m.

Announce Trothal Of Betty Croxton And Robert Hill

Central Point — Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Croxton, route 2, box 332B, Central Point, announce the engagement of their daughter, Betty, to Robert Lewis Hill, son of Mr. Frank Hill, Winston, Ore., and the late Frank Hill.

Miss Croxton attended Los Altos, Calif., schools and is a teller at Jackson County Federal Savings and Loan association. Mr. Hill attended Ashland High school and is employed by California Oregon Power company.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Students To Wed In June Service

Ashland — Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Roseberry, 1230 Ashland Mine road, Ashland, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Nellieann, to Arlen Ragsdale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ragsdale, Eagle Point.

Miss Roseberry is a graduate of Jacksonville High school and is a senior at Southern Oregon college majoring in education. Mr. Ragsdale attended Eagle Point schools and is a sophomore at Southern Oregon college majoring in forestry.

The wedding is scheduled to be held June 16 at the home of the bride's parents.

Students Give Spring Recital Thursday Night

Elementary and advanced piano and accordion students of Mrs. Peggy Apollo presented a recital Thursday evening at First Southern Baptist church.

Catholic Ceremony Weds Pair

Central Point — Miss Marilyn Rae Grennan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Grennan, 70 South Ninth street, Central Point, became the bride of John Harold Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Thompson, 315 Main street, Phoenix, at a nuptial mass April 28 at Sacred Heart Catholic church in Medford.

Father John A. Ilg officiated at the double ring ceremony, held at 10:30 o'clock in the morning.

The families of the couple and relatives of the bride from Eugene, Ore., and Everett, Wash., were present.

The bride wore a white lace ballerina length gown lined with white taffeta. It was fashioned with cap sleeves, a wrapped bodice of taffeta which formed a bouffant bow in back. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and lily-of-the-valley centered with a pink orchid. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Gail Glidden, Phoenix, was bridesmaid. She wore a sky blue lace ballerina length dress with a small white satin hat and a corsage of pink carnations.

Glenn Thompson Jr., brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

The organ music was played by Bruno Pellegrini. Serving as altar boys were Michael Naumes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Naumes, and Larry Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wright.

No formal reception had been planned because of the uncertainty of the date of the bridegroom's leave from service. About 25 family members called at the home of the bridegroom's parents to wish the couple well and see them off on a wedding trip.

The wedding cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Thompson, mother of the bridegroom. Mrs. William King, aunt of the bride, cut and served the cake.

For her wedding trip the bride chose a pink wool suit with the pink orchid from her bridal bouquet for her corsage.

Both young people attended Phoenix High school. The bridegroom is a seaman in the Navy and will join his fleet at Pearl Harbor May 22, for several more months of sea duty.

National Hospital Week Observance Planned Here

Tours of Sacred Heart hospital will be conducted during National Hospital week Thursday, May 15, from 1 until 4:30 p.m. by members of the Providence guild.

Theme of the special week, May 11 through 18, is "Careers That Count." To emphasize the theme the guild has furnished posters to all Jackson county high schools to interest young women in a nursing career.

Mrs. Everett Gosch, guild president, reported that during the past year the guild has purchased a special stretcher for conveying X-ray patients to the laboratory; glove, drier and powdering machine. The guild also furnishes volunteer personnel for the Jackson County Public Health chest X-ray program each Thursday afternoon and the first Wednesday evening of each month. She reported that the members of the guild have donated more than 2,000 hours of service since the commencement of the program.

Other projects of the guild included the maintenance of a gift shop on the second floor of the hospital; sewing which includes the making of layettes for needy mothers, and other necessary mending. Chairman of these projects is Mrs. Julian Shaskey.

Mrs. Gosch stressed that the guild is a non-denominational organization and all interested persons are invited to join the group.

Plan Party

The Gettogether club will hold a public card party and dessert luncheon Friday, May 16, at 1 p.m. at the Girls Community club.

National Hospital week, May 11 to 17, will be noted at Rogue Valley Memorial hospital by the annual Auxiliary tea Friday, May 16, according to Mrs. John N. Winton, auxiliary president. Anyone interested in the hospital is invited to call at the new hospital building on Barnett road between 2 and 4 p.m.

Tea will be served in the "board and staff room" on the first floor of the hospital. Mrs. Winton adds that the auxiliary rooms will also be open for inspection by anyone who may not have seen them during the hospital's open house two weeks ago. These include the new gift shop and snack bar, and adjacent store room and sewing work room.

General chairman for the event is Mrs. William A. Barker.

Miss B. J. Larsen, hospital administrator, states that several individuals have indicated an interest in touring the building. No tours will be conducted during the tea, but for the benefit of anyone who may have missed the opportunity during open house, additional groups will be shown through by appointment only. Reservations may be made by telephoning the hospital, SP 3-6281.

Displays at the tea will include samples of items made by outlying chapters of the auxiliary arranged by Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer and Mrs. Glen Bessonette, who have taken care of hospital week plans for the auxiliary this year. Projects exhibited will be "Pinkie the Puppet", made by members of St. Martha's guild, Church of the Good Shepherd at Prospect; scuff slippers for patients, from St.

Officers Elected By Secretaries
