

Bob Porterfield Hurls Triumph For Pirates in Debut in National

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

Credit Joe L. Brown of the Pittsburgh Pirates with pulling off Boston's biggest "steal" since the Brinks robbery.

They laughed when Brown laid out the $20,000 waiver price to acquire Bob Porterfield from the Red Sox last Friday, but the supposedly washed-up pitcher made it look like a million-dollar deal Sunday when he scored a 1-0, 11-inning victory over the Philadelphia Phillies in his National league debut.

That victory, coupled with Bob Friend's 10-4 decision in the first game, moved the astonishing Pirates into a second-place tie with the San Francisco Giants, one game behind the streaking Milwaukee Braves. The Braves extended their lead to a season high of seven straight games Sunday when they rallied for a 7-6 triumph over the Cincinnati Reds.

In Sunday's other major developments:

The Baltimore Orioles took over third place in the American league when they beat the Red Sox, 3-2 and 4-0.

Cards Pull Out Win
The revived St. Louis Cardinals pulled out two ninth-inning victories over the Chicago Cubs, 8-7 and 6-5, as Stan Musial collected five hits and moved within two of a 3,000-lifetime total.

Bill Skowron and Roy Sievers, two of the AL's top sluggers, were injured while the New York Yankees and Washington Senators split a doubleheader.

Porterfield, who had a 4-4 record with the Red Sox last year and appeared in only two brief relief assignments for them this season, yielded eight hits and struck out five. Curt Simmons battled him on even terms until the 11th when Dick Groat led off with a single, moved to second on Bob Skinner's sacrifice and scored on rookie R. C. Stevens' single.

Ted Kluszewski, obtained by Brown during the winter, smashed a three-run homer and Frank Thomas also knocked in three runs for the Pirates in the opener. Friend was tagged for homers by Rip Repulski, Granny Hamner and Stan Lopata but struck out nine batters. The Pirates have won four straight and 13 of their last 17 games.

The Orioles got a pair of hitless relief jobs from Billy O'Dell and George Zvernick as they made it three in a row and six out of seven. O'Dell, who held the Red Sox hitless in the last two innings of the opener, won his third game when Gus Triandos hit a 430-foot homer in the eighth. Zvernick cleaned up with three hitless innings in the nightcap after Arnold Portocarrero limited the Sox to two hits in the first six.

Noren, Landrith Star
Musial homered and singled in the opener and had three singles in the second game for the Cardinals whose four straight victories moved them to within a half game of seventh-place Los Angeles. The real St. Louis heroes, however, were Irv Noren, who singled home the winning run in the opener, and Hobe Landrith whose bases-filled double coupled with Bobby Thomson's error produced the Cardinals' three ninth-inning tallies in the nightcap.

Ryne Duren, new Yankee relief ace, retired the last batter in New York's opening 4-3 triumph but Camilo Pascual came back to hand the American league leader their first shutout, 4-0, in the second game. Skowron re-injured his back and may be sidelined two weeks, while Sievers twisted his left ankle and may be out three days, both injuries occurring in the second game.

Del Crandall's three-run eighth inning double enabled the Braves to come from behind after the Redlegs took a 5-4 lead in the top of the frame on Frank Robinson's double and Steve Bilko's single. Ernie Johnson was the winner and Turk Lown, recently acquired from the Cubs, the loser.

Indians Split
The Detroit Tigers crushed the Kansas City Athletics, 10-3, with a seven-run eighth inning rally and the Cleveland Indians split a doubleheader with the Chicago White Sox in the other AL activity.

Billy Martin's three-run homer climaxed the Tigers' big uprising as rookie Bob Shaw won his first major league game. Bob Cerv's 10th homer had tied the score at 3-3 for the Athletics, who lost their sixth straight decision. Jack Urban was the loser.

The Indians kayoed 20-game winner Billy Pierce, winless this season, en route to a 4-2 triumph but then Jim Wilson notched his third victory as the White Sox won the nightcap, 5-2. Carrall Hardy knocked in two runs for the Indians in the first game and Jim Rivera drove in two for the White Sox in the second.

The San Francisco-Los Angeles rainout was the first major league postponement in California.

Meanwhile, it was reported that a protest was brewing in Washington, D.C., over Trujillo's free spending.

Donor of Gifts To Film Actresses Goes in Seclusion

Los Angeles—Lt. Gen. Rafael Trujillo Jr., whose rich gifts to actresses Zsa Zsa Gabor and Kim Novak created a week end stir, was in seclusion today, reportedly recuperating from a sinus-adenoid operation.

The 29-year-old son of Dominican ruler Rafael Trujillo was not in to the press Sunday at his luxurious Bel-Air mansion. A member of his staff said he was "out."

Actress Kim Novak, who received an $8,400 sports car from the general, said, however, that she thought he was recuperating at his residence from an operation last week.
