

Spahn Hurls 230th Victory Of Career; 6th This Season

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

While they're dusting off that Hall of Fame plaque for Stan Musial they might just as well start getting another ready for Warren Spahn.

A "young fella," some seven months younger than the mighty "Man" from St. Louis, Spahn reached another milestone in his career Wednesday night when he pitched the Milwaukee Braves to a 4-1 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies. It was Spahn's 230th win—a total surpassed by only three left-handers in modern National league history.

Of more immediate interest to the Braves, of course, was the fact that they reclaimed first place when the St. Louis Cardinals beat the San Francisco Giants, 3-2. Musial, who apparently found his first 3,000 hits the hardest, got a jump on his fourth thousand by hitting a homer and two singles that lifted his average back to .500.

Pirates Win
The Pittsburgh Pirates achieved their second six-game winning streak of the season when they beat the Cincinnati Redlegs, 5-4, and the Chicago Cubs snapped a seven-game losing streak with a 7-3 decision over the Los Angeles Dodgers in the other National league games.

In the American league, the New York Yankees got some more of that magnificent pitching to beat the Baltimore Orioles, 1-0, the Chicago White Sox downed the Kansas City Athletics, 4-1, the Boston Red Sox topped the Washington Senators, 7-5, and the Cleveland Indians nipped the Detroit Tigers, 9-8.

The unbeaten Spahn, who turned 37 on April 23, struck out seven and yielded five hits in becoming the first six-game winner of the season. All six of his wins are complete games and he allowed a total of 12 runs in them. Spahn himself smashed a run-scoring triple and Del Crandall and Johnny Logan homered for the big blows in the Braves' eight-hit attack.

Spahn already holds the NL record of eight 20-victory seasons by a left-hander and if he makes this No. 9 he'll stand a good chance to finish his career as the biggest lefty winner in league history. Those ahead of him are Vic Willis, 244, Carl Hubbell, 253, and Eppa Rixey, 266.

Musial Adds Three
Musial, who achieved his 3,000th hit on Tuesday, homered in his first appearance at the plate Wednesday night and added two singles for three of the Cardinals' nine hits. Vinegar Bend Mizell pitched a four-hitter as the Cardinals ran their winning streak to seven games and climbed into fifth place.

Bob Turley struck out seven and pitched a four-hitter for his third shutout and the Yankees' sixth in 20 games. Mickey Mantle doubled home Tony Kubek with the run

Race Club Convening On Friday

Ashland — Valley View Speedway Promoter Phil Bryant has announced that $1,700 in cash prize money is being guaranteed for the first three stock car races of the 1958 season beginning June 20 at the track.

Stock cars of the 1949-53 vintage will be featured this season and the most successful program in recent years could result, according to Bryant.

Along with the old hard-toppers from last year a lot of new men will be competing for the prize money.

A world championship La Mans type start will be featured opening day at the track. In this type of start, the drivers line up away from the cars and at the drop of the flag a scramble is made to get in the cars and on the track to begin the race.

Vern and Dave Fraysher are building a cross-eyed 1951 Studebaker for Lou Kurz, which is considered to be one of the unique cars of the season.

Elmer Sisemore will drive a Studebaker for De Leigh Motors. Hawkinson Tire company will have a number of cars on hand as usual, and Marvin Motors will have a Hudson and a Dodge convertible. Jack Keck Jr. and Sr. will be behind the wheels on these latter two cars.

Iron man Cecil James and Flying Floyd McElanahan will be on hand after a year's absence along with John Jones, Bob Wilcox and the McGilvray brothers from last year. Anyone interested in racing this year is invited to attend the meeting of the Rogue Valley Racing association Friday, at 8 p.m., in Room B of the Medford YMCA.

Moore Will Attend UO

Portland — Glenn Moore, 6-8 inch center for Klamath Falls High school's state championship basketball team, plans to attend the University of Oregon, the Journal said it learned today.

Moore was the most sought-after prep basketball player in the state. Earlier, Dave Robinson, 6-4 all-state guard for Klamath Falls, announced he would go to Oregon.

Rookies Pace Rochester Win

Duke Carmel, a young, hard-hitting outfielder destined for stardom with the St. Louis Cardinals, is making an auspicious debut in the International league.

Carmel recently acquired by Rochester, hit his third homer in five days to lead the Red Wings to a 7-3 victory at Buffalo, Wednesday night. He hit his fourth-inning blast with one man on to put Rochester ahead at that point. Gene Oliver, another 21-year-old rookie, also connected for a two-run homer for the winners.

In other games Wednesday night, Toronto knocked Montreal out of first place, 6-1, and Columbus edged Havana, 4-2.

State Tennis Tourney Billed

Corvallis — About 140 top high school tennis players are expected here Friday and Saturday for the annual state prep net tournament.

IN STATE B MEET—Five of the six Jacksonville high athletes scheduled to vie in the state track meet Friday and Saturday are shown here. From left are Jerry Coe, 440; Gary Smith, shot put; Doyle Branson, 100, 220 and broad jump; and Ken Perreard and Marion Dowell, high jump. Missing is Fred McKeen, who qualified in the mile. Coach of the Redskins is Glenn Schireman. McKeen also qualified for the state tennis tourney. He'll enter that on Friday and, if eliminated will run in the state track tiff on Saturday. Jacksonville was runner-up for the district track crown.

Hunting & Fishing Southern Oregon

By MEL REES

Last week-end saw a little slowdown in the fishing at both Fish Lake and Willow Creek reservoir. Although there were several limits taken and many anglers caught enough to make it interesting, the general overall picture wasn't as rosy as it was a week ago.

Largest fish recorded to date from Fish Lake was 21 inches. There must be some monsters in the lake for a lady reports that while she dozed in the warm sunshine "something" picked up her wiggy worm and slowly swam away. Swam away with the hook, the sinker and a part of the line. Last year a fish was landed that weighed in the neighborhood of 12 pounds—so there must be more of them.

Still fishing with worms and eggs was still the best procedure in these two lakes with trolling still on the slow side.

NEED KNOW-HOW
Squaw lake is still paying off to the "know-how" fishermen and the fish are running well into the "teen" class—size-wise. Same methods of fishing here as in other lakes. This seems to be an early season prescription, eggs and worms.

Last Saturday the fishing really broke loose on the Upper Klamath. According to a phoned report from Bob Sloan of Harriman's resort, nearly every boat took the limit. Bob says it was common for a boat with two anglers to bring in their 10 fish.

Ed Rouff of Klamath Falls landed a 6 1/2-pound fish and his son tagged along with one at 4 1/4. Most of the fish taken ran 18 inches and better, and the larger portion of them were taken right off the mouth of Harriman Creek.

As usual, the early season pattern of fishing is the same. Fender and worms is first choice with any red fluorescent lure coming a close second. Best lures in the bright red were Flatfish, Andy Reeker and Dare-Devil.

Last Sunday the weather was so bad here that the fishing was nil. Most of the anglers did their fishing indoors. The weather has cleared again and this week-end could be another repeat of last Saturday.

NEW FACILITIES
Of interest is the news that Harriman's now has modern trailer facilities along with the cabins and campgrounds. New boat docks are being installed for those who like to leave their boats. The boats are well protected in this windless cove on Harriman creek and a watchman is always in attendance.

WORD OF WARNING
A word of warning! Some fishermen did not understand that the streams running into the Rogue, Illinois and Applegate are closed to angling. The wording of the law, "The Rogue and its tributaries," takes in all the streams in this area. Some fishing has been done on these streams already by well meaning but misinformed anglers. This could be a little expensive! The season opens on our streams May 24—and that won't be long now.

Liston, originally from St. Louis but now fighting from Philadelphia, was in complete control against Mederos.

LISTON WINNER Over Mederos
Chicago — Charles ("Sonny") Liston wants to win the world heavyweight boxing championship, but he wants to take the long road to get there.

He took a step toward a title chance, though, Wednesday night when he finished trial-horse Julio Mederos, a rugged Cuban, with a 3rd round technical knockout in the weekly television match.

Mederos, who has won only 21 of 43 pro bouts, was prevented from coming out for the third round by the ring-side physician, Dr. Irving N. Slott, due to a cut completely through his lip on the lower left side.

Liston, originally from St. Louis but now fighting from Philadelphia, was in complete control against Mederos.

Crater JV 7-3 Victor

Central Point—Crater high baseball junior varsity took the lead in the first inning and held it all the way to trim the Medford jayvees 7 to 3 yesterday.

The Comet club wound up its season with a five-win 2-loss record which included two victories each over Medford and Ashland, a split with Grants Pass and a loss to the Jacksonville varsity.

Bill Anhorn chucked five-hit ball for the Comets yesterday. He and Ron Hale each socked two hits, including a two-bagger apiece.

The Crater nine protected its lead with three runs in the sixth inning on singles by Ken Wald and Bill Anhorn, a double by John Anhorn and an error.

Pitcher Anhorn struck out 12 batters and walked two while Pat McLaughlin, Medford tosser, gave up nine hits and four bases on balls and fanned three.

Loyal Higinbotham, Crater, and Jim Berry, Medford, each tripled.

Phoenix Giants Nip Portland Nine 9-8

By GENE BRYANT
United Press Sports Writer

Vancouver's Mounties regained first place in the Pacific Coast League last night as the 56-year-old loop showed no sign of following the customary pattern of baseball—dividing into the "haves" and "have-nots."

The Canadians handed Sacramento an 11-0 trouncing to drop the Solons into second place, one game out of first. But Seattle, deadlocked with San Diego at the other end of the line, remained only two-and-one-half games off the pace with an 11-2 victory over the Padres.

Come From Behind
Spokane eased by Salt Lake

City, 5-4, and Phoenix made it two straight over Portland with a 9-8 win in other games.

Leon Wagner slashed a single to center in the bottom of the ninth at Phoenix to give the Giants a come-from-behind win over Portland. The Beavers, who committed six errors Tuesday night, contributed a pair in the eighth frame last night to help the Arizonans score three runs to tie the score. The game had been deadlocked four times before Wagner ended it with his hit in the ninth.

Luis Marquez and Bob Borkowski homered for the Beavers while Felipe Alou lined one out of the park for the Giants.

Raiders Eye OCC Crown

Ashland — Dave D'Olivo will be on the mound tomorrow afternoon here when the Red Raiders of Southern Oregon college go after the 1958 Oregon Collegiate Conference championship in the first mix of a three-game series against Eastern Oregon.

The Raiders play a single game Friday at 3 p.m. and a doubleheader Saturday at 1 p.m.

Currently the Raiders lead the pack in the scramble for the crown by two games with an 8-1 record. Eastern Oregon and Oregon College are second with records of 6-3. The Raiders need only one win for at least a tie and two or more for the championship.

If the Raiders were to win chances are they would play Portland University for the invitation to the NAIA tournament in Texas this year.

Ashland—Southern Oregon college thinclads will still seek their first dual win of the season when they meet defending Oregon Collegiate Conference champions Oregon Tech here Friday afternoon beginning at 3 p.m.

The Raiders are in top shape and no one is on the injured list but it will take top performances to beat the Owls from across the mountain.

Pedro Colley is a sure starter in the discus and shot which will help pick up a number of points. Colley has been hitting over 140 feet in the discus and over 40 feet in the shot.

Winter Olympic Date Changed

Tokyo — The International Olympic committee handed down its first major decisions Wednesday when members set back the dates of the 1960 Squaw Valley, Calif., winter games and deleted bobsled events.

At today's meeting the world group was expected to settle details of the track and field events which will be held in Rome. Another order of business was the question of whether to break the 64-year-old tradition of barring the press from IOC meetings.

Committee Chairman Avery Brundage said the decision to hold the winter games from Feb. 18 to 28 was made when some members thought the original dates were too early. Originally the games had been scheduled from Feb. 12 to 22.
