

Billy Graham Talks To Convicts In San Quentin

By RONALD WAGONER United Press Correspondent San Francisco—Billy Graham declared today he was "overwhelmed" at the number of San Quentin prison convicts who made "decisions for Christ" at a sermon he preached there.

Four thousand convicts sprawled in the hot sunshine on the baseball field Thursday to listen to Graham's sermon. At the end, 623 came forward to "live for God in prison."

A spokesman for Graham's team said it was the largest percentage of converts ever to respond at an evangelistic service anywhere.

"It takes great courage for men to step out and witness for God in these surroundings," Graham said. Chaplain Gets Cards

He turned over their pledge cards to the prison chaplain, who will get in touch with the men to give them further spiritual guidance.

Graham spoke from a boxing ring set up on the field. "I'm inviting you all to attend our crusade meeting to-night at the Cow Palace—if you can make it," he said.

Guffaws of laughter greeted this invitation. But then the laughter subsided as he went on to say:

"Regardless of how black your crimes, God will forgive you. You can live a Christian life here and now—for God will go with you."

Visits Death Row After the service, hundreds of inmates crowded around Graham, asking him to sign autographs. After signing about 25 autographs, Graham said:

"I can't sign any more. I haven't any more time." "Oh, we've got lots of time," the inmates chorused.

"Let some of the fellows who have autographs copy them for the rest of you," Graham said.

"That's what we're in here for, brother Billy," said one.

Later, Graham visited death row and spoke to 18 of its 21 condemned men. Author-convict Caryl Chessman remained in his cell. Prison spokesmen said the 18 "greatly appreciated" Graham's visit.

Protestantism Said A Disruptive Force

Yosemite, Calif. — An official of the Congregational church said today that Protestantism "is one of the principal divisive and disruptive forces" in the United States.

The Rev. Dr. Truman B. Douglass, executive vice president of the Board of Home Missions of the Congregational Christian Churches, spoke at the annual meeting of the Northern California Congregational conference.

He said America's churches are facing space-age problems with "ox-cart strategies." Protestantism's "present system of denominationalism is obsolete," the New York clergyman said.

Missionaries To Speak at Church

Central Point — The Rev. Robert West, missionary to Japan, will speak Sunday at 7:30 p.m. at Church of Christ, Central Point. He will illustrate his talk with colored slides.

Mr. and Mrs. West for the past five years have assisted in establishing four congregations in Hayashino, Japan. The public is invited to hear the missionaries.

At the 10:45 a.m. service Sunday the Rev. Mr. Jean M. Shelley, pastor, will speak on "God Give Us Men."
