Central Point—An event of May 10 was the wedding of Miss Carol Lee Wyatt to Jerry E. Cave, held at First Presbyterian church in Medford. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Albert V. Wyatt, 3463 New Ray road, Central Point, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Willard E. Cave, Eagle Point. Both the bride and bridegroom have lived in Jackson county their entire lives.

The double-ring ceremony was read at two o'clock in the afternoon by Dr. D. Kirkland West, with 150 guests present. Donald W. Wyatt gave his sister in marriage.

The bride's princess style wedding gown was of white peau de soie fashioned with lace bodice embroidered in seed pearls and floor length skirt ending in a sweep train. The gown was made by her mother. The bride's cascade bouquet was of phalaenopsis orchids.

Miss Lenita Nelms, Eagle Point was honor attendant and Mrs. Ivan McKinney, White City, was bridesmatron. Miss Nelms wore a ballerina frock of lavender crystal and carried a nosegay of yellow and orchid-colored carnations. Mrs. McKinney's ballerina gown was of yellow crystal.

talette and she also carried a nosegay of orchid and yellow carnations.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue crepe gown with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother a white knit suit with lavender accessories. Their corsages were ivory colored cymbidium orchids.

Glenn E. Cave, Medford, was best man for his brother and ushers were Donald Hawk and Fred Cave, cousin of the bridegroom, both Medford, and Norman Woodward, Eagle Point.

Miss Joan Henderson, Eagle Point, sang and Mrs. H. E. Marsh was at the organ. The church decorations were bouquets of pastel colored gladiolus and daisies arranged by Mrs. Ivan McKinney.

The reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. Richard Van Allen cut the wedding cake and punch was served by Mrs. Glenn Cave. Mrs. Richard Mole Jr., poured coffee and Mrs. Richard Mole took charge of the gifts. Miss Anna Carlson took charge of the guest book.

Mr. Cave and his bride traveled to the coast for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a beige chemise dress with white accessories. They are living at West 1412 Ninth street, Spokane, Wash., where the bridegroom is an airman third class with the United States Air Force.

The bride attended Eagle Point High school and Eastern Oregon college. She has been on the staff of the Veterans and Administration at Camp White. Mr. Cave attended Eagle Point High school.

A number of parties preceded the wedding. Mrs. Glenn Cave and Mrs. Claude Griffin honored the bride at a shower at the Griffin home in Eagle Point, and the Misses Anna Carlson and Joan Henderson were hostesses for shower in Medford. The employees of the Veterans' domiciliary also gave a party for the bride.

The rehearsal dinner was given by the bride's mother at her home the evening of May 9.

Here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson and daughter, Allenda and son, Jimmy, and Mrs. J. W. Walker, Rohnerville, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hulbert, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Neal Wyatt, Myrtle Point, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Warner, Klamath Falls.
