

Ministers' Wives Honored At Tea

A tea honoring wives of ministers of the valley was an event of Monday afternoon, May 12, in the parlors of the First Methodist church. The executive board of Medford Council of Church Women sponsored the event.

Pouring at the tea table, which was centered with yellow and white iris and yellow tapers, were two past presidents of the council, Mrs. Edith Baker and Mrs. J. C. Sparks.

Mrs. Lyle Schoppert, accompanied by Mrs. Milton Snow, sang two selections during the tea hour. Following this portion of the program, Mrs. Everett Faber, mistress of ceremonies for the afternoon, introduced the ministers' wives and each told briefly of her life and experiences in sharing with her husband their responsibilities as leaders in Christian work. Many told amusing incidents from their past.

One of the remarks made frequently during the afternoon was "It was so enjoyable, let's do it each year." This same thought is seriously being considered by the Council Board.

Chapter to Hold Final Meeting; Mothers Honored

The last meeting of the season for Beta Upsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will be held Saturday, May 24, at the home of Mrs. Fred Wilson. It will be a potluck supper and husbands of members are invited to attend.

At the last meeting of the group Mrs. B. Brandt Bartels spoke to the group on the kindergarten for hard-of-hearing children sponsored by Medford Junior Service League.

Yesterday the chapter held its traditional Mother's day luncheon at the Rogue Valley Country club.

Mrs. Richard Knoll, chapter representative to the state convention, is in Salem this weekend attending the meet.

Mrs. Howard Blew was hostess for the last meeting with Mrs. Max Larson and Mrs. Larry Horton serving refreshments.

man for the event and assisting were Mrs. Jessie Minear, decorations and tea table; Mrs. Henry C. Moyer, invitations and food, and corsages, Mrs. Melvin Ward. Mrs. L. K. Doty assisted in general planning.

Miss Mary Cole

Mary Cole Is Princess

Miss Mary Louise Cole, 17, a junior at Phoenix High school, is one of the seven princesses for the Phoenix Festival to be held June 14.

Miss Cole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cole, 2211 Houston road, Medford, is a member of the National Honor society. Other school activities include being a cheerleader, member of Future Homemakers of America, and staff member on both the Pirate Log, school yearbook, and the Phoenixian, the school newspaper. She also plays the piano.

A lifetime resident of Phoenix, Miss Cole is the smallest of the candidates for queen. She stands four feet eleven inches tall and weighs only 90 pounds.

Other candidates for the Festival include Miss Lola Good, Miss Janice Grove, Miss Dana Halaas, Susan Walker, Miss Sandra Skinner and Miss Frances Hensley.

Officers Installed

Alpha Rho chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, will hold the final meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Louis Cranston May 22. Mrs. William Tyler will have charge of the program for the evening.

Mrs. Scott Davis, Mrs. Mark Goldy, Mrs. Mamie Sleeter, Mrs. James Callan and Mrs. Jonathan Middleton were guests at the installation of officers for the group on May 8. Mrs. Tyler, retiring president, installed Mrs. Richard Henselman, new president; Mrs. Harry Barker, first vice-president; Mrs. Fred Danielson, second vice-president; Mrs. James Tengesdal, secretary, and Mrs. Richard Riggs, treasurer.

After the installation Mrs. Henselman appointed the following chairman for the coming year: program, Mrs. Tengesdal; publicity, Mrs. Lynn Myers; social, Mrs. Jerome McDougall; ways and means, Mrs. Riggs; service, Mrs. Barker; scrap book, Mrs. Paul Anthony; courtesy and calling, Mrs. James Redden.

Mrs. Henselman was in charge of the program on "Architecture." She and Mrs. Goldy showed slides that Mr. and Mrs. Goldy had taken on their trips to Lebanon, Turkey, Italy and South America.

Mrs. Tengesdal thanked the entire group for choosing her as their "girl of the year."

Mrs. Danielson announced the plans for the progressive dinner to be held on May 10. It was held at the home of Mrs. Danielson, Mrs. McDougall and Mrs. Redden. There was dancing and games after the dinner.

Former Residents Visit in Medford

Mr. and Mrs. Lee F. Root, former Medford residents, spent a brief time in Medford last week. The Roots were en route to Santa Barbara, Calif., to visit Mrs. Root's mother, Mrs. Herbert C. Kentner, who will celebrate her 93rd birthday this month.

Mrs. Kentner's late husband and the late F. K. Deuel, were partners in one of Medford's early day merchandising firms.

The visitors spent some time with their grandsons, John and Steven Root, children of Mrs. Ted Hornecker, Keeneway drive, and with Mrs. Root's cousin, Mrs. Richard D. Werner. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts, the Weldon Biddles and Seth Bullis as well as a number of long-time friends here.

Election Planned By DAR Chapter

Officers will be elected and installed at the meeting of the Crater Lake chapter Daughters of the American Revolution Saturday, May 24, at 2 p.m. at the Girls Community club.

Mrs. W. W. P. Holt will speak on "Our Pilgrim Mothers."

Hostesses for the event will be Mrs. O. T. Heyerman, Mrs. Vernon Patton, Mrs. G. Q. D'Albini and Miss Anna Detweiler.

Rose Show Setting Changed

The annual rose show of the Medford Rose society will be held in the county courthouse auditorium instead of the Red Cross building as previously announced, Rose society officials report.

The show will be held Monday, June 2, and two trophies for the garden club division will be awarded instead of one as in previous years. The Dr. and Mrs. L. G. Gentner will be awarded for the second year and the sweepstakes runnerup will also receive a trophy. The second award will be a permanent trophy. The Gentner award must be won for three consecutive years for the winner to retain permanent ownership.

Sweepstakes will be awarded to the club winning the highest number of blue ribbons. In case of a tie, the arrangements will be point scored.

Garden clubs should report the number of entries planned to Mrs. Dayton Depue, 1019 Murray avenue, Medford, arrangements placement chairman.

A sweepstakes division will also be included in the show. Entries in this division will be by American Rose society members who have won sweepstakes in the arrangements of any previous flower show.

All arrangements are to be made with roses predominating, but other flowers and accessories may be included. The roses must be garden grown, but need not be grown by the exhibitor.

The arrangements will be judges in accordance with the new American Rose society scale of points.

Hedrick Student Awarded Medal

Diane Lewis, 2133 East Jackson street, won first place in a speech contest sponsored by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union Monday evening in First Presbyterian church. The prize was a silver medal. Miss Lewis is a student at Hedrick Junior High school.

The other contestants were Jerry Gastineau, Dean Goddard, Jim Lacy, Stanley Dowson and Rosalita Patch. They all were presented gifts by Mrs. Guy Cox, president of the union.

Refreshments were served after the contest.

Breakfast Given By Church Women

Shady Cove — More than 150 persons attended a Mother's day breakfast given recently in Shady Cove by nine members of Our Lady of Fatima Catholic church.

The event, with Mrs. Richard Bartus as chairman, was held to raise funds to purchase needed items for the new church.

Table were decorated with spring flowers for the affair.

Rushees Honored At Tea Monday

Five rushees of Alpha Lambda chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority International, were honored at an evening preferential tea Monday, May 12.

Miss De Maris Glutsch, Mrs. Richard Harrison, Mrs. Thomas Proctor, Mrs. Robert Rae and Mrs. William Riggett will receive pledge pins of the sorority June 7.

Installation of new officers will be held the same evening, with members and husbands attending a dinner preceding the two ceremonies.

Mrs. C. C. Peterson and Mrs. Robert Shangle poured for the tea, held at Mrs. Peterson's home. Serving as co-hostesses were Mrs. Harold Clift, Mrs. Sam Price, Mrs. Russell Roseborough and Mrs. John Reed.

The last regular business meeting of the year for the chapter will be held May 26 at the home of Mrs. Howard Phillips, 228 Sunrise avenue. Hostesses will be Mrs. William Raymond and Mrs. Lyman Smith.

Cowbells To Meet

Jackson County Cowbells will meet Thursday, May 22, at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William J. Jennings, Central Point.

Reports will be given of the state Cowbells association meeting held during the annual Oregon State Cattle-men's association convention last week at Ontario. Mrs. Leon Offenbacher and Mrs. Armin Richter, Applegate, will report.

Plans for local activities during the nationwide "Beef for Father's Day" campaign will be discussed by Mrs. Edward Meeker, Phoenix.

Reports will also be given by committee chairmen including Mrs. Frank Hunt, beef candy sales; Mrs. Clayton Charley, beef cook books; Mrs. John Bohnert, beef cookery; Mrs. Richard Hein, cake sale; and Mrs. Victor Steward, publicity.

Meetings and activities for the balance of the year will be planned at the meeting.

The organization is to promote fellowship and good feeling among persons engaged in the cattle industry, according to the president, Mrs. Donald Nichols, Ashland.

She reported that any woman whose family is engaged in the cattle business is eligible for membership. Those persons who are not directly connected with beef production, but are interested in beef promotion may become associated members of the group, she added.

When mattresses or upholstery are attacked by mildew mold, brush them thoroughly, then clean with the upholstery attachment of the vacuum cleaner. If necessary, sponge the spots with thick soapuds, upholstery cleaner, or an equal mixture of denatured alcohol and water. Do not let stuffing become wet through.

Annual Pairs Tournament To Close Tuesday Evening

The second and final session of the annual men's and women's pairs tournament of Medford Duplicate Bridge club will be held Tuesday, May 20, at Girls Community club. This tournament is a favorite one of duplicate players in the club.
