

"Using Our Heads for Trade" is the theme of the dinner to be held at the League of Women's Voter's state council meeting scheduled in Coos Bay Monday through Wednesday. Mrs. Don Bohnert models the hat she will wear to represent Jackson county. It is constructed of plywood and bears items representative of the area's exports and imports.

Use Our Heads Is Theme For League Dinner

A "hat parade" will be featured Monday, May 19 at a dinner meeting of the League of Women's Voter's state council meeting being held at Coos Bay Monday through Wednesday.

The theme of the dinner is "Using Our Heads for Trade". Each League will model a hat showing the imports and exports of that county.

Mrs. Don Bohnert will model the hat from Jackson county. Constructed of plywood in the shape of Jackson county, the brim of the hat represents the county's exports while the crown of the hat contains imports. Products represented include food and food products, pulp and paper products, agriculture products and the lumber industry.

Attending the state council meeting from Medford are Mrs. Dunbar Carpenter, Mrs. Bohnert, Mrs. Thomas Rutter, Mrs. J. E. Mullins, Mrs. Ben Day and Mrs. Hugh Collins, president of the Medford league.

Events Announced By Tudor Guild

Looking forward to a summer filled with activities keyed to the Oregon Shakespearean festival, Tudor guild has already set dates for some of the annual events which guild members sponsor.

The annual casting dinner will be held June 16 in Trinity church parish hall, Ashland, and the annual Bard's Day will be held July 13. Since the festival will open somewhat earlier than in past years, the Bard's Day will also be held earlier than usual.

Mrs. C. Reese Bralley of the guild reported yesterday that many persons attending the annual Home Show stopped at the Tudor Guild booth.

Visitors Leave For California

Mrs. John McCamant, daughter-in-law of the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas McCamant, Groveland avenue, Medford, and her mother, Mrs. James Gains, Geneva, Ill., left last week for California after visiting here.

Mrs. McCamant, who was a valley visitor for the past month, will sail from San Francisco, May 24, for Japan where she will join her husband, Pvt. John McCamant, who is stationed at Camp Drake near Tokyo.

The young McCamants made their home in Baltimore, Md., for the past several months while he attended an Army training school there. Prior to that time the couple lived in Europe where Mr. McCamant attended the University of Vienna and traveled on the continent.

Party Planned For Volunteers In Girl Scouts

A "recognition coffee" for all adult workers of the Medford District of Girl Scouts will be held Monday, May 19, from 10 a.m. until 12 noon at the Girls' Community club. According to Girl Scout officials, the coffee is a way of saying "thank you" to all the adult volunteer workers in the Medford district.

Year pins will be given for those registered in Girl Scouting for 5, 10, 15, and 20 years. All leaders and assistant leaders are especially invited to attend.

Make the best Swiss steak by adding 1/2 cup burgundy or other red table wine and a can of undiluted onion soup to the browned meat. Cover and simmer until meat is tender. Serve with buttered new potatoes and mixed vegetable salad.

Health Unit Holds Annual Meeting; Officers Elected

Gold Hill — Nearly 40 attended the annual potluck picnic of Gold Hill Health unit held recently at the home of Mrs. W. S. Dickenson on Sardine creek. Guests included Mrs. Lawrence Tweedy, Mrs. John Winton and Mrs. Ward Hammond, all Medford, and Mrs. J. Southall, Gold Hill.

Mrs. Ted Schoenemann, who was elected president of the unit for the ensuing year, at a recent meeting conducted the business session. Mrs. Edward Knapp is the retiring president, having served in that capacity the past two years. Mrs. Thomas Gray is the newly elected vice-president.

Members of the unit voted to resume the practice of keeping a scrapbook. Mrs. Schoenemann appointed Mrs. J. G. Kofahl chairman of this project. Other committee chairmen named include Mrs. Clarence Parsley, hospitality; Mrs. George Dorman, sunshine; Mrs. Arthur Boye, finance; Mrs. Clyde Kell, publicity; Mrs. Loyd Dusenberry, tuberculosis; Mrs. Dale Smith, cancer; Mrs. Paul Molloy, Child Guidance clinic; Mrs. Delos Walker and Mrs. Wilmer Bailey, cochairmen for the polio program; Mrs. Harry Quinn, flood control; Mrs. Melvin Burnett, pre-school clinics; and Mrs. Jack Kline, supplies.

It was reported that 29 pre-school youngsters who will enter the first grade at Patrick school in September were examined by Dr. A. Erin Merkel at a recent clinic held in Gold Hill. Members of the unit assisting Mrs. Burnett with the clinic were Mrs. Knapp and Mrs. Gray.

The Jackson County Tuberculosis and Health association will discontinue its bi-monthly meetings and put all efforts towards furthering tuberculosis control.

Mrs. Roy Cameron, secretary of the local unit, reported on the various donations and activities during the past year.

Each year the unit sends a delegate to the school of instruction in the tuberculosis program, which is held in Portland. Mrs. Schoenemann represented the unit this year. She left May 12 and will return May 16.

The film "Human Heritage" was shown at one meeting of the unit, followed by an informative discussion. Seals and letters were prepared by members for mailing at the November meeting of the group. Members of the unit assisted the Woman's Society of the Gold Hill Community Methodist church with a rummage sale. The unit was represented at food control meetings by its delegate, Mrs. Quinn. Other worthwhile activities have been participation in the annual teacher's reception, and food sales, which enable the unit to carry on such projects as the current one of making instrument cases for the new Rogue Valley hospital in Medford. The 36 cases will be completed this week. Donations were sent to Sparrow Memorial clinic, March of Dimes, Heart, Easter seal sale and TB seal sale.

At the May meeting, members voted to take charge of the polio drive in the Gold Hill area next year.

The next meeting of the unit will be held in September at the home of Mrs. George Smith.

Couple Returns From Utah Stay

Arthur Klatt, Sewing Machine center, Medford, returned last week from a trip to Salt Lake City, Utah. He was accompanied by Mrs. Klatt.

Mr. Klatt is Pacific Coast director of the American Sewing Machine Buyer's cooperative and attended the annual national meeting of the group.

During the four day stay in Salt Lake City they attended services on Mother's day at the Mormon Tabernacle.

Group Discusses School Problems

A round table discussion on "Schools of Today and Tomorrow" was on the program for the last meeting of Medford Toastmasters club, held Monday. Mrs. Clarence Wilson served as moderator. The vice president, Mrs. James Welch, conducted a business meeting.

Leaders of the discussion were Miss Anna Streed, Mrs. Bernice Kunzman and Mrs. Arnold Bohnert. Participating in the discussion were Mrs. Carlton Bismark, Mrs. E. N. Ness, Mrs. Roy Rolfs, Mrs. E. L. Sands, Mrs. C. A. Thatcher, Mrs. James Welch.

Lexicologist was Mrs. Bismark, grammarian was Mrs. E. N. Ness, and evaluation of the speakers and program by Mrs. E. L. Sands and Mrs. C. A. Thatcher completed the evening. Mrs. Jack Cummings was a guest at the meeting.

An invitation from the Medford Toastmasters to meet with them and participate in their meeting was accepted.

It was voted to attend the June 9 meeting of Toastmasters at Dad's Hideaway.

New Look Good For Ten Years Says Designer

The loose silhouette may be with us for 10 years, says designer Larry Aldrich. "It will exist as a period" in fashion until designers have made every possible variation. And the possibilities for variations seem almost endless, from the trapeze and cocoon to a high-waisted floating shape, fitted front and loose back, and so on," he said. Aldrich was one of the first promoters of the chemise.

St. Louis designers go for double-duty styles. They show a skirt with godet insets in contrasting cotton. The godet can be worn zipped shut for a tailored effect. With the zipper open, the skirt becomes full at the side.

Terry cloth gets the glamor treatment for the beach. It shows in sarongs, playsuits, ponchos, hooded jackets, and in traditional beach robes.

Lastex now goes into T-strap shoes. The material gives a textured look to the straps and helps them hug the instep. It's also used to band vamps on summer casual shoes and in the new boot-like shoes with bulky knit tops for fall.

John Cobb, men's fashion designer, says his treatment of leather and fur comes from pioneer days. "The men who roamed the plains to found this nation made good use of leather and fur for practical warmth and comfort. I have merely brought them into the wardrobe of the 20th Century man," he said. Cobb shows a jacket of black leather and gold Southwest African Persian lamb, a full-length evening coat of Mongolian cashmere trimmed with Persian, and a full-length leather coat lined in sable.
