

S. H. WOMACK
To Conduct Course

Lectures Scheduled On Public Relations

S. H. Womack, training consultant in public relations of Austin, Tex., will conduct a series of lectures on public relations in business in Medford starting May 21, according to Vern Bacon, of the Medford Credit bureau.

The classes will be held May 21 to 23 in the Hedrick Junior High school starting at 7 p.m. each day. The course is sponsored by the National Retail Credit association.

What public relations mean, different media used in public relations, how to get along with people, memory, use of the telephone, speech and applied psychology will be discussed in the classes. Additional information is available by contacting Bacon at SPring 2-8006.

Tentative Summer Program Scheduled

A tentative 1958 summer school program has been announced by the Medford public schools.

The program includes an academic summer school, recreation program and an instrumental music program.

Subjects scheduled under the elementary grades for the June 16 to July 18 program will include remedial for possible promotion of retained students and remedial for strengthening weak students.

Subjects scheduled under the secondary grades for the June 16 to July 18 program will be required subjects in English, social studies and mathematics; home nursing, grades 11 and 12; first aid, grade 11 and 12; personal typing, grades 9 to 12; driver training; and remedial for grade 12.

Arts and crafts, summer baseball and tennis will be offered under the recreation program. Band, orchestra and baton twirling are available under the music program.

Oakridge Policeman Injured By Train

Eugene — William L. Riddle, 48, Oakridge police officer, was in fair condition at Sacred Heart hospital here Friday after being struck by a train in Oakridge about 2 a.m.

Mrs. Tom De Rossett summoned Oakridge police after she heard four shots and cries for help outside her home early this morning. Officers found Riddle lying unconscious in the street and with one foot badly mangled.

A trail of blood led from Riddle to the Southern Pacific railroad tracks about a block-and-a-half away. At the tracks the man's shoe and part of his foot were found. He apparently had dragged himself toward the police station and managed to fire the four shots before he passed out.

Boy Scouts

Explorer Ship 3
Several members of Sea Explorer ship 3, the Impeccable, will attend the region 11 regatta at the San Point Naval Air station, Seattle, May 22 to 25.

Events at the meeting will be several competitive events, an inspection by the command of the 13th Naval district and the annual Sea Explorer ball. Members of the Medford ship will not take part in the sailing competition.

Attending from the Medford group will be Boatswain Doug Kliever, Lee Cook, Jack Joyce, Mike Morris and Perry Whitlock. They will be accompanied by Skipper Ken Natland and Committee Chairman Ed Kliever.
