New Defense Bill Nears Approval

Washington — Chairman Richard B. Russell of the senate armed services committee said Monday he believes a defense reorganization bill will be approved which is "reasonably satisfactory to everybody."

The Georgia Democrat made the statement to newsmen. He said he has not had a chance to study the bill drafted last week by the House Armed Services Committee. But he said his committee will hold hearings on it as soon as the House completes action.

Russell's statement underlined the view, expressed by other Senate sources, that the defense reorganization fight which once loomed as a no-holds-barred battle between Congress and the President may end up as a mild skirmish.

Warehousemen Reject Offer

Seattle — Striking Seattle warehousemen Sunday rejected an employers' package offer which would have increased wages by 17 1/2 cents by the year's end, but negotiations to settle the 17-day old strike were expected to be resumed today.

Members of the Warehouse Drivers and Helpers Local 117, a Teamsters union affiliate, rejected the package by a vote of 333 to 257 at a special union meeting Sunday afternoon. W. L. (Bill) Williams, local secretary - treasurer, said.

The offer was made by the Northwest Produce association. In addition to the 17 1/2 cents-an-hour wage increase this year, the contract would have been re-opened during the following two years.

ess to Mr. and Mrs. James Whipple, Mrs. Lois Morgan and son Hurst, and Mr. Lloyd Smith. The dinner was in honor of Lloyd's birthday, May 5, and Mr. Whipple's birthday, which will be May 21.

GOLD HILL Pair Hurt in Accident

By MRS. CLYDE KELL
Gold Hill — Mr. and Mrs. L. A. MacDuckston, who make their home at the Casa Rouge motel, are both confined in Our Lady of Lourdes hospital at Pasco, Wash., because of injuries received in an automobile accident recently.

Their car, which they had purchased only a few weeks ago, was demolished. He is a salesman for the Chippewa Woolen mills.

According to a message received here by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Quinn, owners of the motel, Mrs. MacDuckston was seriously injured and underwent surgery following the accident. Another car was involved.

The MacDuckstons are well known in this area, having made their home north of Gold Hill the past five years.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Quinn, Gold Hill, were among the dinner guests at a Mother's Day celebration held in the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitlock of Medford. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Whitlock and Mrs. William Barlow and son, Michael Jeffrey, all of Medford.

KEYS TO BETTER CALLING — how we improve service and keep your out-of-town calls low in cost

Today, your long distance calls can go through in seconds where it once took minutes. Why? In most cases, operators like those in the top picture speed your out-of-town calls straight through with push-button dialing. Or perhaps you live in a place where you dial them direct yourself. And today's fast long distance phoning is yours at low cost, too. We've made it that way with radio-relay and cable networks that carry thousands of calls at once. With tiny transistors that cut down space and power needs. These improvements have helped us make long distance phoning a pleasure anytime. A pleasure, as the box at the right shows, that's priced right for everybody.
