

Foul Ball Helps Milwaukee Recapture Lead in National

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

Milwaukee picked on its favorite "patsies" the Cincinnati Redlegs—to recapture the National league lead and even added a bit of indignity by beating them on a foul ball.

The 4-3 victory in 12 innings over the Redlegs Monday night gave the Braves their sixth triumph in eight starts against Cincinnati so far, and although that's still a long way from the 18 out of 22 they won last season, Fred Haney's crew feels it will do for a start.

Before the campaign started, Manager Birdie Tebbetts said his Redlegs were bound to win more than four games from the Braves this year.

Maybe so, but they had better start moving soon.

Hank Aaron's foul ball settled matters Monday night.

Turk Lown, Cincinnati's fourth pitcher, set the stage for Milwaukee's winning run in the 12th when he yielded a single to Red Schoendienst. Johnny Logan followed with a double moving Schoendienst to third, then Fran Torre was purposely walked, filling the bases.

Schoendienst Beats Relay
Tom Acker took over for Lown and Aaron stroked a looping foul toward the left field bullpen. Shortstop Eddie Miksis, recently signed as a free agent after being released by Baltimore, scampereed back and caught the ball but Schoendienst beat his relay to the plate for the winning run.

It was a tough one for the Redlegs to lose, especially after they had battled back to knock out Warren Spahn and tie the score with a pair of runs in the bottom of the ninth.

Spahn, shooting for his seventh straight complete game victory, appeared to have it in his grasp when Andy Pafko homered off reliever Hal Jeffcoat in the top of the ninth to stretch Milwaukee's lead to 3-1.

But the Redlegs chased Spahn with their two-run rally in the bottom of the first frame. It marked the first time in his last seven games and only the second time this season that Spahn failed to finish.

Ed Bailey homered with one out and the bases empty and then with two out Smoky Burgess lined a pinch single and Bob Thurman drove in the tying run with a pinch double to left-center.

Fire-baller Don McMahon, who took over for Spahn in the ninth, scattered four hits the rest of the way to gain the decision. Tebbetts employed 21 players in a vain effort to snare the win.

It was the only game scheduled in the majors.

The red-hot San Francisco Giants, however, walked Chicago White Sox, 10-1, in an exhibition game at Minneapolis.

The Philadelphia Phillies edged the Washington Senators, 7-6, in another exhibition tilt at Philadelphia.

Phil Moyer Given Nod
Spokane—Phil Moyer, Portland middleweight, won a split decision Monday night over Bobby Jones, Oakland, Calif., in a 10-round feature fight.

Moyer, 19, kept his left in Jones' face most of the night. He began bleeding from the nose in the second round when Jones tagged him with a right. The bleeding continued throughout the fight.

In a semifinal, Roger House, 165, Opportunity, Mont., stopped Al Jackson, Reno, in the first round.

Moyer carried the early going with his fast left jab but Jones countered with some heavy rights during the middle rounds. Moyer began mixing his attack over the last three rounds to win the nod of Referee Bud Ward and Judge Joey August.

Judge Carl Maxey scored it for Jones.
