Interest from Municipal bonds is not subject to Federal Income Tax. You don't even report it.

Yet, next to government bonds, Municipals are traditionally the safest investments.

Good quality, tax-exempt bonds are now available which yield between 3 1/2% and 4 1/2%, depending on maturity.

Foster & Marshall, as one of the principal municipal bond underwriters in the Pacific Northwest, will be pleased to discuss Municipals with you at your convenience. Just call or visit our office.

Obituaries

LOU DELLA BOSWELL

Funeral services for Mrs. Lou Della Boswell, 86, who died in Tillamook Monday will be held at the Medford Mausoleum at 2 p.m. Thursday. Dr. Aldis L. Webb of Tillamook will officiate.

Mrs. Boswell was born in Hartford, Iowa, June 4, 1871, and on Feb. 19, 1888, she was married to Dr. Walter S. Jones. In the fall of 1888 they moved to Medford where he practiced medicine until March 29, 1908, when he died.

She helped build the Christian church when it was on Holly st., and later the present structure on South Oakdale ave. Mrs. Webb, wife of the minister who will conduct services, was choir director at the First Christian church at the same time Mrs. Boswell was pianist. She was president of the Ladies Aid, pianist for the church for 35 years; an active member of Reames Chapter OES.

She was married on Jan. 15, 1925, to Robert Boswell, and they lived in Grants Pass until Jan. 11, 1941, when Boswell died. In the spring of 1943 she moved to Tillamook to live with her daughter, Mrs. Ackley. Funeral services for Mrs. Boswell will be held at the First Christian church in Tillamook at 11 a.m. Wednesday. Peril funeral home assisted with the local arrangements.

Herbert VanGordon

Funeral services for Herbert Phelps VanGordon, 78, of 407 Oregon Terrace, who died in a local hospital Sunday, will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday in Chapel Mortuary. The Rev. John O. Reynolds, assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will officiate. Private interment services will be in Pleasant Valley cemetery near Merlin.

Honorary pall bearers will be Charles Shaggerty, Edward Hirsch, Oris Moore, Albert Sims, Howard Hietz, and Richard Woodson.

The body will lie in state at the mortuary throughout this afternoon and evening. Mr. VanGordon, the son of Boyd and Olive Abbott VanGordon, was born in Detroit, Minnesota, on Feb. 10, 1880. On Sept. 26, 1911, in Cove, Ore., he was married to Wilma Wertman, who survives.

He was a member of the Woodmen of the World. Besides his wife, he is survived by three sons, Lyle VanGordon, of Grants Pass, Lucian VanGordon, Medford, and Clarence VanGordon, also of Medford; one daughter, Mrs. Phyllis Mulhollen, Medford; two brothers, Howard VanGordon, Battle Ground, Wash., and William VanGordon, Spokane; four sisters, Mrs. Kittie Young, Vallejo, Calif.; Mrs. Oattie Elliott, Eureka, Mont.; Mrs. C. Roy Lance, Northridge, Calif.; and Mrs. Norman Buoy, Eugene, and 12 grandchildren.

Leslie J. Croy

Leslie J. Croy, 55, of Prospect, died unexpectedly yesterday while at work. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Conger-Morris, funeral directors.

Mrs. Josephine Lytle

Mrs. Josephine Lytle, about 84, daughter of a pioneer Jacksonville family, died in Portland yesterday. She was a member of the Joseph Wetterer family of Jacksonville. Wetterer operated a brewery here for many years. She is survived by one daughter, Regiene Lytle, Portland.

Funeral services will be held at St. Joseph's Catholic church, Jacksonville, at 10 a.m., Wednesday. Pallbearers will include Paul Godward, Charles L. Ofenbacher, Albert Hackert, Harold Reed, Raymond (Duke) Lewis, and Bert Hudson.

Paul D. LeClair

Funeral services for Paul Dwight LeClair, 36, of 1320 Thomas rd., who died Sunday, will be held at Conger-Morris

DR. D. I. VANDERPOOL To Speak Tonight

400 Delegates Are Registered for Nazarene Meeting

More than 400 delegates registered Monday for the Oregon Pacific District Nazarene Foreign Missionary society meeting being held in Medford at the First Church of the Nazarene.

At the morning session the president's report showed that the Oregon Pacific district was a "star society." This means that the district has reached the goals it set for the year.

Monday afternoon Dr. Remiss Rehlfedt, international executive secretary, and the Rev. Hubert Helling, missionary from Japan, spoke.

At the evening session, the local Nazarene church choir sang.

Speaker at 7:30 o'clock tonight will be Dr. D. I. Vanderpool, general superintendent from Kansas City, Mo. He also will speak at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday at the annual district assembly meeting. The public is invited to the evening sessions.

Following the closing of the annual society meeting today, the district assembly will meet continuing through Friday. The joint missionary and pre-assembly service will be held which will include congregational singing tonight.

Tokushima, Japan — A rat killed an elephant in the Tokyo Zoo, authorities disclosed today. Tokuko, a nine-year-old elephant, was so frightened she bolted and fell into a ditch surrounding her enclosure. She died two days later of severe injuries to her chest.
