

Snider Spurs Dodgers to 6-3 Win Over Braves; Giants Go in Front

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer
One swing of Duke Snider's bat was enough today to put him back on the list of Buzzy Bavasi's favorite players.

Snider, publicly blamed by the Los Angeles general manager for the team's floundering start, took his anger out on the Milwaukee Braves last night with a pinch double that paved the way for a 6-3 victory. The loss knocked the Braves into second place, a game and a half behind the San Francisco Giants, who beat the Cincinnati Redlegs, 4-2, for their fourth straight win and 11th in 13 games.

Snider came through with his big blow after Jim Gilliam doubled with one out in the 11th inning to put the Dodgers in front 4-3, and they added two more tallies on a walk, Carl Furillo's single and John Roseboro's sacrifice fly. Sandy Koufax who yielded three first-inning runs on two walks, a single, two errors and a wild pitch, settled down and wound up with a two-hitter.

It marked only the second time this season that the Dodgers were able to put together two straight victories and left them two games behind the seventh-place Redlegs. Mike McCormick, 19-year-old bonus left-hander, turned in his fourth straight win for the Giants with a five-hitter. Willie Mays had two doubles. Hank Sauer blasted his ninth homer and Daryl Spencer had a double and a single.

McCormick, who won three games all last season, has won four in 18 days, yielding a total of six runs and 25 hits.

The St. Louis Cardinals went into fourth place when Lindy McDaniel shut out the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-0, and the Pittsburgh Pirates snapped their five-game losing streak with a 12-3 rout of the Chicago Cubs in the other National league games.

In the American league, the runaway New York Yankees made it seven straight with a 5-1 win over the Chicago Cubs in the other National league games. In the American league, the runaway New York Yankees made it seven straight with a 5-1 win over the Chicago Cubs in the other National league games.

The Cardinals scored their 11th win in 13 games with a 10-hit attack that routed Curt Simmons in 5 1/3 innings. McDaniel pitched a seven-hitter to make his record 3-3 while Simmons' record was squared at 4-4.

Frank Thomas knocked in three runs with his 13th homer and a single. Ted Kluszewski had three singles and three RBI's and Bill Virdon homered as the Pirates stretched the Cub's losing streak to four games. Bob Friend coasted to his sixth win behind the 13-hit attack. Al Dark, obtained from the Cardinals earlier in the day, went 1-for-5 in his debut at third base with the Cubs.

Johnny Kucks won his second game with a five-hitter for the Yankees, who maintained their 6 1/2-game AL lead with their 20th win in 25 games. Mickey Mantle, Hank Bauer and Marv Throneberry hit homers as the White Sox suffered their third straight loss and 17th in 28 games. Dick Donovan was the loser.

Smith Notches Win
Rookie Bob (Riverboat) Smith notched his third straight win behind a 10-hit Red Sox assault that featured homers by Ted Williams, Pete Runnels and Jimmy Piersall. Smith walked nine men but allowed only three singles and pitched out of two bases-filled jams. Ray Narleski suffered his third loss for Cleveland.

The Athletics hung onto second place when Ned Garver recovered from a rocky start to go the distance and win his fifth decision.

Al Pilarcik made a diving grab of Billy Martin's pop fly with the bases loaded and two out in the eighth to preserve Billy O'Dell's fourth victory for the Orioles. Bob Boyd and Foster Castleman led Baltimore's attack with three hits each as the Tigers lost their sixth straight.

Reminder Issued That Picking Up Deer Fawns Illegal in State

It is unlawful for anyone except the game commission to take, carry or remove from its natural habitat and to hold in captivity, the young of any game bird or game animal in Oregon, the state police and state game commission pointed out in a joint statement today.

The reminder to Oregon residents was issued because deer fawning season is near at hand. Regulation against taking young of game and birds is contained in Chapter 498.565 of Oregon laws. In the joint statement police and game commission officials said: "Many persons each year make the mistake of remov-pick up the fawn or handle it in any way; merely make accurate location, immediately notify the state police and the matter will be handled by the proper authorities."

Medford High Third With 595 In Oregon State Golf Tourney

Portland—(AP)—Central Catholic, led by Jim O'Toole, won the Oregon high school golf title Tuesday.

The Rams posted a 36-hole score of 590 in the four-man team play, four strokes better than second place Beaverton.

O'Toole, who had 66 Monday, fired a 71 Tuesday for a 36-hole total of 137, nine under the prep par of 74 for the Glendover course. Jerry Cundari of Beaverton had a 141, and Jack Mattison of South Eugene and Steve Wright of Albany 143.

Cards Trade Dark For Jim Brosnan

By RUSS GREEN
Philadelphia — (AP)—Fred Hutchinson said today the Cardinals "hated like the devil" to part with Alvin Dark, but the veteran 35-year old infielder was delighted with the deal because it will give him a chance to play regularly again with the Cubs.
