

Seven Festival Princesses To Be Honored on Saturday

Phoenix—Among the seven Phoenix High school students who will be honored at the annual Princess' ball Saturday, May 24, are Miss Sandra Skinner and Miss Susan Kay Walker. One of the seven girls will serve as queen of the Phoenix festival to be held June 14.

Miss Skinner, 17, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Skinner, Elm street, Phoenix. Princess Sandra can boast of the largest family — she has two brothers and five sisters. Born in Ashland, the family moved to Phoenix in 1941 and Princess Sandra is now a junior. She is on the staff of the Pirate Log, the year book, the school paper, the Phoenixian, and belongs to National Honor society. She is a cheerleader, and president of the Pep club.

Princess Sandra plans to become a secretary. She is blue-eyed, five feet and four inches tall and has reddish brown hair.

Miss Walker is one of the smallest of the princesses, since she is five feet three inches tall and weighs but 115 pounds. Princess Susan is a blue-eyed blonde. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Walker, 2295 Crestbrook road, Medford, Miss Walker has but one brother.

Princess Susan has many interests. She is a member of Future Homemakers of America, the Pep club and also is on the staff of both the Pirate Log and the Phoenixian. She is a member of International Order of Job's Daughters.

Princess Susan plans to continue her education after high school and plans to become a lawyer.

The public is invited to attend the annual Princess ball tomorrow night. Belle Van Dyke's orchestra will furnish music, and seven princesses will be introduced. The remaining five candidates are Misses Mary Cole, Dana Halass, Lola Good, Frances Hensley and Janice Grove.

Camp Fire Girls Hold Ceremonial

Ashland—The annual Grand Council Fire of Ashland and Talent Camp Fire Girls was held May 17 in the Junior High school gymnasium in the presence of parents and friends of the girls. Mrs. Frank Christian of Talent was the ceremonial chairman.

Camp Fire Girls, Blue Birds, and Horizon club members marched to their place in the circle singing their processional song, "Open Road," accompanied by Miss Pat Thompson at the piano. Flag Bearers were Deborah Plocher and April Lewis, and Bea Lisonbee led in the pledge of allegiance. Tana Laird led in the hand sign of the fire, and the candle lighting ceremony was done by Barbara Jones, Judy Benson and Carolyn Wolfe.

Mrs. Christian introduced Henry Enders as "Mr. Camp Fire," and he gave a brief resume of Camp Fire, citing its beginning in Ashland. Mr. Enders presented Mrs. Mae Lowe of Talent with a corsage "in appreciation of her many years of faithful service to Camp Fire," and she in turn presented him with a rose bud for his many years spent in Camp Fire work.

Mrs. Kenneth Hinkle's Blue Bird group gave a drill entitled, "Meet the People." Each girl was in costume representing a foreign country which has the Camp Fire program. Susan Thompson and April Burnette sang, "Camp Fire and Blue Birds all Over the World."

A Blue Bird fly-up ceremony was held, with Mrs. Christian awarding the certificates. The song, "Pretty Blue Birds," was sung by all. Trail Seekers were awarded their rank and beads by Mrs. Elmo Stevenson, woodgatherers by Mrs. Wesley Baker, firemakers by Kenneth Jones, and torchbearers by Mrs. Mae Lowe. Those receiving torchbearer rank were Ruth Monchton and Nancy Johnston, Norma Driver in home making, and April Burnette in camping.

Other awards given were the three and five year national membership awards, and the spring candy sale awards to those girls who sold more than 50 boxes.

The candle extinguishing ceremony was done by Cheryl Hendricks, Mary Lou Rush, and Nancy Weter.

Miss Adams Is Queen For Prom

Cave Junction—Miss Marie Adams reigned as queen of the annual Junior-Senior Prom of Illinois Valley High school, held Saturday in the school gymnasium. "Some Enchanted Evening" was the theme, and Queen Marie was crowned and seated on a white satin throne. Her princesses were Miss Sonja Lewis and Miss Jean Tyer.

The junior class, assisted by faculty members and parents, had transformed the gymnasium into a fairyland with a waterfall on a miniature mountain, a vine-covered white lattice summerhouse beside a wishing well and white stone paths through park-like gardens.

A banquet which preceded the dance was attended by 175 guests, including members of the school board, Michael McDermott was master of ceremonies, Jackie Williams, junior class president, welcomed the seniors and guests and James Penninger, senior class president, voiced the seniors' appreciation.

Vernon Larson, principal, gave an amusing after dinner talk, and Mrs. John Bengel, home economics teacher, spoke on personality. Stanley Love, student body president, used "The Future of the Seniors" as his topic.

Gifts were presented to Mr. Larson, Gale Davis, Wayne Thornhill, Mrs. Bengel and Miss Adams for their cooperation. The help of George Harbour, high school maintenance supervisor, Jack Williams, "trouble shooter," Ted Hooley and Larry Muscil, who provided a free late show at the Ivy theater, was acknowledged. Mesdames Berkner, Stark, White, Haskins, Williams, Wilhelms, Lemmon, Hooley, Gibbons and Bell prepared the banquet; sophomore boys did the serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Frost and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams acted as chaperones for the late show held in the Ivy theater at the close of the dance. Prizes were donated by the chaperones and George Simmons of the Valley Drug store donated a five pound box of candy for the queen.

Ross Turpin, city police chief, reported that no traffic citations or warnings were issued and no accidents were reported that evening. He complimented the school on the orderly behavior of the youngsters.

Nancy Martin, health department nurse; and Mrs. Henry Padgham, a former president of the county association.

Honor Society Holds Initiation

Ashland — Gamma Theta Upsilon, geography fraternity recently held its third annual spring dinner and initiation. Fourteen neophytes were initiated in the fraternity in ceremonies conducted by Beta Upsilon chapter, from Oregon State College.

Mae Kaufman, Bob Shores, Virginia Christlieb, Virginia Ferguson, Don Ferguson, Juan Schwendener, Cliff Jeffords, Bob Rice, Bob Hanson, Don Johnson, Aileen Bessonette, and Martha Brown comprised the group of initiates.

The dinner, held at Twila's Kountry Kitchen, followed the initiation. New officers elected were Jim Anders, president; Bob Rice, vice president; Martha Brown, secretary, and Don Johnson, treasurer.

Professor Myatt of the OSC geography department, spoke to the group at dinner. Others coming from OSC were James Jack, a SOC graduate, Paul Tschirley, Tom Stumbaugh and Ron Mercer.

Special guests at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Simpson; Mrs. McNeal, wife of Dr. Roy McNeal, professor of the geography and adviser to the geography fraternity; and husbands and wives of the members of initiates.

Dance Announced By Promenaders

A square dance will be held at the old Wagner Creek school two miles west of Talent on Wagner Creek road, Saturday, May 24. The dance is sponsored by Hilltoppers Square Dance club and all square dancers are invited to attend. Dancing starts at 8:30 p.m.

Potluck refreshments will be served and women are requested to bring sandwiches, a salad or a dessert.

Francis Cronin and guest callers will call the squares.

Soup Kettle Suppers

Modern condensed soups can be combined and blended with other ingredients to produce a delicious extra, or the main dish of the evening meal. Here are some good flavor combinations: mushroom and asparagus soups with slivers of ham, tomato and bean soup with slices of frankfurters, turtle soup and green pea soup with a garnish of salted whipped cream, tomato soup with minced clams, and cream of chicken soup with cream-style corn. The soups are best when they are heated thoroughly over a medium gas flame for 15 to 20 minutes. Covering the soup kettle helps to develop the flavor.

College Band, Choraliers To Give Concert in Park
