

BISHOP DAGWELL To Address Diocese

Episcopal Bishop To Address Diocese

The congregation of St. Mark's Episcopal church, Medford, will participate in a diocesan-wide observance to bid farewell to the Right Rev. Benjamin D. Dagwell, D.D., bishop of Oregon, Wednesday, May 28. Bishop Dagwell plans to retire in August after 22 years as bishop.

The bishop will address people of the diocese from St. Stephens cathedral, Portland, at 7:30 p.m. and will be received by closed radio hook-up in 55 separate areas of the state.

The Medford congregation will meet for a potluck dinner at the Guild hall at 6:30 p.m. that evening. Members and friends of the church who plan to attend the dinner are asked to contact Mrs. Earl Tummy, SPring 2-2620 or Mrs. H. C. Goldsmith, SPring 2-2519, regarding the food they are to take, if they have not already been contacted by the committee.

Baby sitting service will be available in the Markade for young children.
