Grange Notes

Upper Applegate Grange
The first and second degrees of the order were conferred on the following candidates when the Upper Applegate Grange met in regular session May 23: Edward G. and Clara Flesher, Ivan and Inez McDonough, R. L. and Elena Christean, Alvin and Emma Heffron, J. Stanley and Barbara Larson, Hester and Ruth Knutzen.

Tableaux scenes arranged by Sister Gladys Williams were presented in conjunction with the degree ritual, with Sisters Irene Culy, Louise Nordwick, and Mildred Back participating. Sister Nell Ramsey sang "My Faith Looks Up to Thee" during the first of these, and was joined by Sister Mildred Redhead in a duet, "Whispering Hope" during the second tableau. Pink roses, snowballs, and ivy were combined on the stage to form a background for the presentation.

It was voted to extend a formal invitation to the Roxy Ann degree team to confer the third and fourth degrees in Upper Applegate Grange Hall June 27 and to invite all other subordinate granges in the county to bring their candidates at this time.

A resolution introduced at the previous meeting was passed under terms of which Upper Applegate Grange agreed to sell and convey the site of the old Grange Hall at McKee bridge to Donald E. and Esther A. Fossen for the sum of $625, and authorized the Grange Secretary to execute a deed for this property.

Chaplain Mildred Redhead, reporting for the Relief Committee, stated Brothers Forbes Brown and Hugh Scovell are recovering from attacks of arthritis that have kept them at home for several weeks. Sister Margaret Contrail has been ill with mumps. Sister Ethel West is convalescing at home following major surgery, and Sister Lena DeShazo is improving from an auto accident last January.

Home Economics chairman Edna Sawyer reported $25 for a 4H scholarship to summer school in Corvallis has been turned over to the Grange treasurer. She further stated that no meetings of the Home Economics club were being scheduled during the summer months.

A note of thanks and a contribution of $15 were received from Upper Applegate Home Extension Unit for use of the Grange hall for their cotton dress workshop and their home makers' festival.

Announcement was made of the conferring of the fifth degree by Jackson County Pomona Grange on Saturday evening, May 24, in Central Point Grange hall.

A brief report of the surprise visitation to Griffin Creek Grange May 22 was given by Worthy Master Meno Bachmann and Sister Maude Bachmann, who represented Upper Applegate Grange at the gathering.

A sum of $60 was voted to meet expenses of the Worthy Master at State Grange convention in Eugene, and a motion was passed to dispense with the next regular meeting June 13 since it will conflict with the State Grange sessions.

In place of the regular literary program, several of the more important resolutions to be considered at State Grange were presented by the Worthy Master, and following discussion of them by the members present, he was instructed to use his own discretion in voting on them.

Following adjournment, refreshments of ice cream, cake, and coffee were served. Sisters Elizabeth Nostrand and Pearl Byrne and Brothers William Nostrand and John Byrne made up the committee. Assisting them in serving were Sister Louise Dunlap and Brother George Redhead. Grace N. Pearson, Publicity Chairman.

Griffin Creek Grange
Griffin Creek Grange met in regular session May 22 with all but two officers present.

Eighty-five members of various Granges were present and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Veit, Grange members from Penn.

The Medical Roundup

by Walter Alvarez

Emeritus Consultant in Medicine, Mayo Clinic
Emeritus Professor of Medicine, Mayo Foundation

Thumb-Sucking
I just happened onto a note in a medical journal by a physician who had evidently lost all patience after reading an article by a psychoanalyst who had explained, according to the weird theories of his cult, why some children suck their thumbs. The doctor says, "The article on the modern concepts of thumb-sucking, if you will excuse the slang, is just so much tomy-rot." He goes on to say that two out of his four children are thumb-suckers, but they are remarkably well-adjusted and normal children who, furthermore, have not deformed their upper jaw or their upper teeth, as they were supposed to do.

According to all the family friends and neighbors, one of the thumb-sucking children is "relaxed, poised, self-confident and out-going. He is as normal a youngster as you can find." The doctor is outraged at the psychiatrist's statement that the child has "regressed to an autoerotic device." As the doctor says, "Why can't we admit that some of our traits are caused by heredity?" He might have gone on to say, "Why can't a child suck his thumb simply because, like his father with his pipe, and his mother with her cigarette, he is more comfortable with something in the mouth?"

I imagine that the occasional boy who sucks his thumb until he is six or 10 has a hereditary tendency to neurosis or psychosis, but I do not know, because I have not kept records as to this. If any of my readers have made observations in regard to the character differences between the children who are confirmed thumb-suckers and those who quit early in life, I would like to hear from them.

Master Cyril Farnsworth spoke of the fast growing organization for recreation for elderly people in other states as well as in Oregon. Dr. Frank Roberts Sr., heads the Medford group.

Mrs. Roy LeVander, HEC chairman, announced the meeting at the courthouse Monday, May 26 at 1:30 p.m. for the judging of the dresses and aprons entered in the state and county contest.

A new floodlight has been installed on the porch.

As this was the social night, business was curtailed. Lecturer, Mrs. Clyde Sturgill, presented an interesting program consisting of the song, "Home on the Range," led by Jack Bierma, a TV skit by Roy and Isabel LeVander, reading by Mrs. Roy Casey and a reading by Mrs. Iva Harper. Program concluded with more stunts by visiting and home Grangers.

Seven visiting masters were present. They were Carl Christiansen of Live Oak; Menno Bachmann, Upper Applegate; Al Sibs, Roxy Ann; Charles Foote, Gold Hill; Herb Carlton, Upper Rogue; Bob Bitterling, Pomona chairman; and Cliff Moore, Eagle Point. Cookies and sandwiches were served.
