

Jaycee Junior Golf Meet At RVCC on June 13, 14

Southern Oregon area elimination tourney for the 13th annual International Junior Chamber of Commerce Golf tournament will be held June 13 and 14 at Rogue Valley Country Club.

The players with the two low gross scores will qualify for the state tournament at Ontario on June 26 and 27. Four low-scorers in the state meet will be eligible for the international competition Aug. 18 to 23 at El Rio Golf course, Tucson, Ariz.

Glenn B. Keyes, chairman for the Medford Junior Chamber sponsored area tourney, said that any boy who has not reached his 18th birthday as of Aug. 15 is eligible to vie in the Jaycee golf program.

Official entry blanks are available from high school golf coaches. They also may be obtained from the pro shops at Rogue Valley Country Club and Oak Knoll Golf course, Ashland. Deadline for mailing the entries for the local tournament is June 2. They are to be addressed to Keyes at PO Box 1294, Medford.

Coca-Cola Cooperative

The entry blank asks for the name, age, date of birth, home address, telephone number and school. It requests information about previous local, state and national tournaments in which an entrant has played. A player must be prepared to furnish a birth certificate if required. Entries are subject to approval or rejection by the national Jaycee amateur golf championship committee. Fee of $1 must be enclosed with the filled-in entry sheet and a player's signature is required. The Jaycee golf program again is being conducted in cooperation with Coca-Cola bottlers throughout the United States. M. M. Huggins of the Medford bottling plant is working out tourney details with the local Jaycee committee.

There will be 210 contestants in the national at Tucson. They will represent all 48 states, the District of Columbia, Hawaii, the Canal Zone and Canada.

Last year 35,000 boys in more than 1,100 communities took part in the local tournaments.

In the meet at RVCC 18 holes will be played on Friday and another 18 on Saturday. In addition to the gross honors, players will vie for a trophy for the 36-hole low net score.

Luxembourg was neutral in both World Wars.

Bobby Scanlon Favored Over Rogers Tonight

Chicago—(UPI)—Chicago's slugging Bobby Rogers was an underdog in his bid to halt the 27-fight winning streak of undefeated lightweight Irish Bobby Scanlon in tonight's television 10-rounder at the Chicago stadium.

Rogers, a 22-year-old product of Chicago gyms, will be making his second start as a main event, and Scanlon, a San Francisco collegian, his first as both assume roles in the International Boxing club's "new faces" program.

Rogers has compiled a record of 15 victories in 22 fights, winning seven by knockouts. His best effort was also his most recent—a 10-round decision over Ernie (Sonny Boy) Williams April 23 in Miami, Fla.

Huge Following

Scanlon, also 22, has picked up a huge following in San Francisco where he added a TKO over former lightweight champ Bud Smith and a 10-round decision over another one-time titleholder, Lauro Salas, to his impressive string.

In his most recent outing, Scanlon knocked out Luke Easter in eight rounds on April 3.

Both Scanlon and Rogers are gunning for a crack at Carlos Ortiz, another undefeated lightweight contender. One of Ortiz's victories came over Rogers, who dropped a 10-round decision to the flashy Mexican.

New York—(UPI)—Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain, Kansas' seven-foot colossus of the courts, gave up college to go to school.

Basketball school, that is. Because the big thing with Big Wilt right now is big money. And he feels the only way he can hit the pro basketball jackpot is to spend a year preparing himself in the pro-type game.

He'll do this on a 160-game tour all the Harlem Globetrotters, forming his own teams—one Negro and one white—for more than a year's play in South America and then across the United States.

"I need money," says the towering 21-year-old son of a $60-a-week handyman. "I was at a standstill the way the game was played at Kansas. I've got to develop the shooting and running part of my game. Then I can ask the pros for $25,000 a year."

Remains Insistent

Wilt still stubbornly insists that all he received at Kansas, despite continued charges that he received as much as $30,000 for going there despite good offers from schools in every section of the country, was board, room, tuition and $15 a month for incidentals. The NCAA put him through a four-hour tape-recorded investigative session and when it was over one of his questioners said:

"It was nice talking to you, but I don't believe a word of it."

Wilt gets a bit touchy when asked how come, then, that he can afford a new car.

"I've worked summers and traded up from a $700 car I bought my junior year in high school," he snaps.

Chamberlain has been a giant, and a well-coordinated one, ever since his high school days. As an example he high-jumped six feet, eight and three-quarter inches, ran the 440 and was a shot-putter. He also began weight-lifting several years ago to fill himself out. He has.

Is Well Proportioned

The streamlined seven-footer weighs 245 pounds and wears but a 17-inch collar despite the 39-inch sleeves. All of this is carried around by size 14 shoes.

Looking back on his college career, Chamberlain asserts with quiet emphasis that he "didn't enjoy it."

"My big problem was keeping my temper," he explains. "Colorado and Missouri were the chief tormentors but they weren't the only wrongdoers. Too many teams tried to incite me to fight or to foul out. They spent a lot of time trying to unnerve me. Then, too, the slow-down tactics ruined the game in college, which badly needs a time limit on possession such as the pros have."

Chamberlain often was guarded by as many as three and sometimes four men but doesn't think this would happen in pro ball.

"College basketball, it seems," he mused, "has done all it can to hurt the tall man. It can't do much more unless it puts the baskets on the floor."

2nd Spot Taken By Motor Haven

Motor Haven motel team of Medford rolled into fourth place last week end in the women's fourth class in the Albany All-Coast tournament.

Members of the team Melvina Little, Eleanor Lenz, Marie Tennant, Nelda Roberts and Rose Barr are hopeful they can retain the spot, although the tourney does not end until June 29.

A number of men's and women's teams from Medford participated in the tourney last week end.

Huskies Select Opponent Team

Seattle—(UPI)—Four players from Oregon and three from Oregon State were named to Washington's all-opponent baseball team.

Oregon players were Wimp Hastings, Pete Gumina, Leo Read and Ellis Olson.

Oregon Staters were Bob Berreman, Ray Lundie and Gene Bates. Olson and Berreman were unanimous choices.

TRAINING PLANS

Columbus, Ga.—(UPI)—heavyweight Pete Rademacher will train at Greenwood Lake, N. Y., for his July fight at Los Angeles with Zora Foley of Chandler, Ariz. The Greenwood Lake site also is the training camp for heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson, who kayaked Rademacher last August.
