

Goering's Yacht Will Be Feature Of Rose Parade

Portland — (UPI) — The strange saga of the famed Dutch yacht Groote Beer, built during World War II for German war lord Othmar Goering, will be climaxed here when it becomes the "Queen's Barge" of the Portland Rose Festival.

The 55-foot sloop-rigged yacht was due here today after a trip from Honolulu and will be delivered to the Rev. Alfred A. Williams of St. Elizabeth parish. It will be operated by the Portland Sea Scout Council.

Never Used by Goering
The Groote Beer, meaning Great Bear in Dutch, was never used by Goering. The war ended and the yacht passed back into Dutch hands before it could be delivered to the Nazi. It was later purchased by an American yachtman who sailed it on the east coast for two years. It was then sold to Portland lumberman Robert F. Johnson who sailed it in the Caribbean and in South American waters before entering it in the Trans-Pacific yacht race last summer.

Narcotics Bureau Officer Testifies To Hitting Cohen

Los Angeles — (UPI) — Mickey Cohen, little ex-fighter accused of hitting a grasping narcotics officer, came off second best in the set-to, according to the local U. S. Narcotics Bureau Chief, Howard Chappell.

Chappell, a towering 6 foot 2 inches compared to Cohen's 5 foot, 7 inch height, testified Wednesday in Cohen's trial that he was forced to defend himself against an attack by the pudgy gambler.

The federal officer said that Cohen became belligerent when he called him into his office last March 26, refused to shake hands, screamed obscenities and struck him on the shoulder.

Chappell testified he tried to calm Cohen but when he saw he was going to be forced to defend himself he swung a right which sent the ex-boxer spinning to the floor.

Cohen came off the floor scratching and clawing, Chappell said, and was knocked down again.

The officer said Cohen had objected to an investigation by federal narcotics agents.

Touching on that investigation, Chappell said Cohen had been connected with persons active in the narcotics traffic but that the ex-gambler had not been linked directly with the crime.

Chappell said he had not received enough evidence to warrant expenditure of time and agents to further investigate Cohen.

Sheriffs, Tax Deputies Slate Salem Meeting

Salem — (UPI) — Sheriffs and tax deputies from all parts of Oregon will gather here next Tuesday and Wednesday for the State Tax Commission's fifth in-service training school.

Seventy or more delegates are expected to attend the session.

Highlight of the two-day session will be a panel discussion: "The legislative process as it affects the sheriff."
