THROUGH THE BARS—Ted Williams, Red Sox slugger, shakes hands with an inmate at the State Prison in Walpole, Mass., wishing him luck following his scheduled release in July. Williams visited the prison to thank the men for their support of the Jimmy Fund, which will benefit from two performances of the inmates' current production of "Stalag 17."

California Yet To Settle Race for Attorney General

San Francisco (UPI)—A close four-way contest for attorney general was the only race left to be settled after Tuesday's primary election.

Assemblyman Caspar W. Weinberger of San Francisco held an eyelash lead over Congressman Patrick J. Hillings for the GOP nomination as the count of ballots resumed this morning. State Sen. Robert I. McCarthy had a precarious edge over Judge Stanley Mosk of Los Angeles for the Democratic nomination.

The ultimate winners appeared to be Mosk and Hillings.

The reason lay in the fact that the lion's share of votes yet to be counted was in Los Angeles county, home area of both Mosk and Hillings. And in Los Angeles county, they were running far ahead of their opponents with thousands of precincts yet to be counted.

Other major areas yet to clean up their election returns—principally San Diego, San Bernardino, San Joaquin and San Luis Obispo counties—were the main favored Mosk and Hillings.

Democratic, 17,771 precincts out of 26,343; McCarthy 634,270, Mosk 633,048; Republican 17,789 precincts; Weinberger 337,182, Hillings 335,919. In Los Angeles county Hillings was leading Weinberger 129,831 to 26,861 with only 3,800 of the county's 10,339 precincts recorded in the semi-official tally by the registrar of voters. Mosk had an 82,779 vote lead in Los Angeles county over McCarthy with the same number of precincts, 6,539, yet to be counted.

While the battle raged to see who would make the November finals in the Attorney General's race, Attorney Edmund G. (Pat) Brown continued to pile up an eye-opening total vote lead over U.S. Sen. William F. Knowland (A) in their "popularity contest" prior to a winner-take-all runoff Nov. 4.

Starting off the final unofficial count of votes, this is how it stood: 18,156 precincts; Republican—Knowland 821,832, Brown 280,452; Democratic—Knowland 204,621, Brown 1,258,542. Brown's combined vote was 1,538,994 at the start of Thursday's count. Knowland's only 1,026,453. Thus, Brown had a 512,451 bulge—far more than even his most optimistic supporters expected.

4-H CLUB NEWS

Buttered Buns
The last meeting of the Buttered Buns was held at the home of Karen Griggs.

The minutes were read by our secretary, Donna DeGrick. The meeting was adjourned by our president, Mary Laver.

Later a demonstration was given by Karen Griggs and Shirley Savage. They made up a recipe for dry and liquid measuring which turned out to be a cake.

On May 5 there was a get-together at the home of Mary Head. Our speaker, Joan Dobrot, showed us her slides on her trip to Chicago which she won through her 4-H work.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mary and Shirley Savage on June 9 at 7:30 p.m.

Thimble Thumbs Sewing Club
Thimble Thumbs Sewing club met in the home of Mary Ann Carnegie May 31. The members of the group finished pot holders and oven mitts. Maria Carnegie, leader of group, helped the girls with record books. June Scott assisted Mrs. Carnegie with the meeting. The meeting was adjourned and refreshments served.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

STEVE ALLEN says one of the greatest hazards encountered in a restaurant is the "Brush-off Type," who skips over to your table to give you an effusive greeting, but is always looking around to make sure he's missing nothing else.

For instance:
BRUSH-OFF: Hi, Steve! Great to see you. How's the wife?
STEVE: She just broke her leg.

BRUSH-OFF: Wonderful! Glad to hear it! (Waves to somebody six tables away.)
STEVE: Compound fracture.

BRUSH-OFF: (Spotting another celebrity.) You must be mighty proud.

STEVE: She's suffering terrible pain.
BRUSH-OFF: (Waving.) Whaddya know? Congratulations! (Bowing.) Where you staying?
STEVE: Yankee Stadium.

BRUSH-OFF: (Rushing off to greet Zsa Zsa Gabor.) Wonderful. I'll call you! 'Bye, now. . .
