

1957 Award of Merit Winner

CHURCH NEWS

National Religious Publicity Council

Presbyterians Announce Topics and Week's Events

There will be two morning worship services at the First Presbyterian church Sunday. At both services the Rev. John Reynolds will preach on the subject, "Our Worries and Christ's Peace."

At the 9:30 a.m. service the Westminster choir will sing the anthem, "Praise the Lord, Ye Heavens Adore Him." At 11 a.m. the chancel choir will sing "Prayer." Otis Swisher, tenor, will sing a solo at both services.

A new church membership course for prospective members will begin Sunday afternoon. The first class will be taught by Mr. Reynolds and will be held at 5 p.m. in the sanctuary. The course will last for four Sundays and will cover some of the basic beliefs of the Christian church. Those interested in joining the church are invited to attend.

Westminster fellowship for senior high young people will meet at 7 p.m. for an opening worship service. A discussion meeting will be led by Robert Lichti of the Faith Commission. Fireside will be held at the home of Caroline Mencke, 2141 East Jackson ave., along with swimming at the Bud Hauptert home on Vernada place.

The college age fellowship for all university and college students will meet at 7:30 p.m. Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Flanagan, North Pacific highway. In addition to fun and fellowship, the group will make some tentative plans for a program during the summer months. All college young people are invited.

Advance registration for vacation church school at First Presbyterian church will be held Sunday and June 15 at the church office between 9 and 12 a.m. A nominal fee will be charged. All are invited and children will not be refused for lack of fee.

Vacation church school will open June 23 and continue through July 3. A workshop will be held for the staff of teachers Monday, June 9, with representatives from all Presbyterian churches in the valley invited.

Central Point—Dr. Norman K. Tully, pastor, will speak on "What Manner of Child Is This?" at the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday at First Presbyterian church.

Daily vacation Bible school will open Sunday at the church at 9 a.m. If children need transportation to the school they are asked to call Mrs. Russell C. Fair, Normandy 4-1375, or Mrs. Lewis Kilbourn, TA1bot 6-4826.

Jacksonville—Dr. Clifford Miller of Southern Oregon college will speak Sunday at First Presbyterian church, Jacksonville, at the 11 a.m. service.

Ashland—"God Plus Man" will be the sermon topic Sunday at both the 9:45 and 11 a.m. services at First Presbyterian church, Ashland. The pastor, the Rev. B. J. Holland, will speak.

The second week of the vacation Bible school will be held this week.

Phoenix—"A Boy Becoming a Man" will be the topic Sunday at First Presbyterian church, Phoenix, by the pastor, the Rev. William A. Saladin. The topic will be in keeping with Children's day.

Fellowship Meeting At Butte Falls Church The monthly fellowship meeting of Assembly of God churches in the Rogue Valley section will be held at Butte Falls Assembly Monday, June 9, according to the Rev. R. E. Cull, sectional presbyter.

Speaking at the afternoon service will be the Rev. Leroy Nidever of Kerby Assembly. At 6:30 p.m. a film will be shown and narrated by the Rev. W. J. Bransford of the Phoenix Assembly. Mr. and Mrs. Bransford made the film while working on various Indian reservations as home missionaries.

The 7:30 p.m. service will feature a missionary from Formosa, the Rev. Garland Benintendi, who will speak on activities among the Chinese and native Formosans.

Church of Christ Plans Bible School The Church of Christ, 1701 West Main st., will start its vacation Bible school Monday, June 16 through June 20. Classes for two-year-old children through high school age will be held daily from 9 to 11:30 a.m. There will be hand work, filmstrips and a Bible-centered program of study.

Friday, June 20, the students will participate in an achievement program, which will be followed by open house.

A registered nurse will be on duty at all times, and transportation will be furnished by calling the church at Spring 2-9640.

SERMON SUBJECT "God the Only Cause and Creator" will be the subject of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, sermon at 11 a.m. Sunday. Everyone is welcome to attend.

New Assistant To Speak Sunday At Friends Church

Robert Smith, new pastor, will bring the message at the 8 p.m. worship service at the Friends church Sunday.

Mr. Smith was graduated last week from George Fox college, Newberg, and came Wednesday with his wife and two small sons to Medford to assume the assistant pastoral duties for the summer months. The congregation gave a reception and pound shower for the Smiths following the mid-week prayer meeting Wednesday evening.

Another feature of the service Sunday at 8 p.m. will be the awarding of the trophy to the high school girls' volleyball team, champions in the church league tournament sponsored by the YMCA. "Nadine Brood" was team captain.

In observance of Children's day, the primary department of the Sunday school, boys and girls in the first to third grades, will present a program of songs and recitations for the adult department in the opening assembly of Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. Parents especially are invited to attend.

Pastor Clynton Crisman will bring the messages in the two morning worship services, 9:45 and 11 a.m., and Mrs. Kenneth Boshears will be soloist. A dedication service will be conducted by the pastor for those who will teach in the daily vacation Bible school to begin Monday.

Time for the adult Bible study class and the three Christian Endeavor groups has been changed from 6:30 to 7 p.m. for the summer months. "Quaker Hour" still will be heard at 9:30 p.m. over KMED.

Church to Honor Methodist Pastor

Talent—A fellowship supper and reception for the pastor, Miss Alice May Woolley, of Talent First Methodist church, will be held Friday, June 13, at 6:45 p.m. at the church.

Miss Woolley, who has been pastor of the church for the past 13 years, will leave for a new church at June 15. She will be assigned at the annual Methodist church conference scheduled June 20.

All interested persons are invited to attend the potluck supper or to stop by during the reception.

Pastor Observes 30 Years in Ministry

The Rev. Elvin S. Tollefson, pastor of Ascension Lutheran church, will speak on "Behold, What Manner of Love" at the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday. The choir will sing "Almost Persuaded."

The Sunday theme was the one assigned Mr. Tollefson by the faculty of Luther Theological seminary, St. Paul, Minn., for his senior graduation sermon. He has been in the ministry for 30 years as of Sunday.

Mr. Tollefson will leave Sunday from Portland to attend the general convention of the Evangelical Lutheran church in Minneapolis June 18 through 24. En route he will stop at a former parish, Polson, Mont., where he will preach the 50th anniversary sermon in the Knife River Lutheran church.

He plans to return to Medford June 27. Richard Melum will be in charge of the local church services during the pastor's absence.

Methodist Youth Attend Retreat

The Methodist Senior High Youth Fellowship will be at Dead Indian camp over the week end in a planning conference for the year's programs. Both the old and new officers will attend.

Dr. and Mrs. Verne Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Igo, Dolf Bills, Mrs. Hazel Maxon and Mrs. Geneva Schwan will be advisors and instructors. The theme of the retreat and the program of the year is "Christ Above All."

June 13 through 15, the Junior High officers and sponsors will attend the planning conference at the Dead Indian camp. The adults with them will be Mr. and Mrs. Jim Baumer and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Taylor. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Doran will be directors of the program.

PHOENIX SERMONS Phoenix—"I Gave My Bugaboo Away" will be the sermon Sunday at 11 a.m. by the Rev. Perry M. Johnson, pastor, at First Baptist church, Phoenix. At 7:30 p.m. he will again speak on "Safety With God."

GROUND BREAKING — Members of the congregation of Seventh-day Adventist church attended the groundbreaking ceremony Monday at 10 a.m. when work started on the new Seventh-day Adventist church to be constructed at Ellendale and Crestbrook drives. Turning the first shovelfuls

Local Pathfinders To Conduct School

The Medford Pathfinder club has been chosen to conduct Sabbath school services June 7 at the statewide camporee to be held at Fall River camp, near Bend.

Approximately 500 Oregon Pathfinders with Union and Conference youth leaders will attend the three-day camp.

The group will be divided into units of not more than eight members, supervised by experienced counselors. Each unit will set up their own camp, and do their own cooking while in attendance.

First scheduled event will be Vesper services around the campfire Friday night.

The entire group will meet for Sabbath school and church services Saturday, and an afternoon of nature study has been planned, culminating in evening campfire songs and stories.

Events scheduled for Sunday will include contests between clubs from different localities, including building fire by friction, flapjack flipping, and "Trust Your Knot."

The latter involves six Pathfinders from each competing club. They must tie a series of ropes together with various knots, including the bowline, sheet bend, square, fisherman's and sheep shank, in a period of two minutes or less. The first rope is secured to one Pathfinder's waist, and the knots must hold while he is pulled a distance of 10 feet while seated on a blanket.

Forty-five Pathfinders with their directors and counselors left Medford this morning for the camp, and will return Sunday night.

Chapel Dedication Held Last Sunday

Eagle Point—A new chapel and banquet hall on the Millard ranch, 17 miles north of Medford on Hammel rd., were dedicated with services Sunday. Pastor of the church is the Rev. D. E. Millard.

The building is constructed of pumice blocks and of Spanish design. The chapel and banquet room are each 20 feet by 40 feet and are located on a bluff overlooking the river. The non-denominational church is part of a larger project to be known as the Millard Research Foundation. According to Mr. and Mrs. Millard, it will work in the field of health as it applies to body, mind, and spirit.

Sermon lectures will be given monthly with the first one scheduled for Sunday, June 29, at 2:30 p.m. It will follow a fellowship dinner at noon.

Mr. Millard, head of the foundation, reported that the church will be known as "The New Age Church" and is the first step in a much larger program of educational and humanitarian work.

Mrs. Lillian Ekstedt, missionary to the Netherlands West Indies, will be the guest speaker at the evening service at the church.

Mrs. Ekstedt, with her husband, went to the mission field in 1938. At the present time they are engaged in evangelistic work using a tent for their meeting place.

Mr. and Mrs. Ekstedt are serving under the auspices of the Evangelical Alliance mission with headquarters in Chicago.

Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship hour, the pastor, the Rev. Paul O. Kroon, will speak on "Is God Through With the Jew?"

FATHERS TO BE GUESTS Fathers of children in the first, second and third grades of St. Mark's Junior Church school are invited to attend the school's worship service Sunday at 9:30 a.m. in St. Mark's Guild hall, Fifth st. and Oakdale ave. Coffee will be served following the service.

Groundbreaking Held by Adventist

Excavating began Monday, June 2 for the new Medford Seventh-day Adventist church to be located at the corner of Ellendale and Crestbrook rds.

Church pastor, John D. Trude, his small daughter, Debbie, and Mrs. Alvy Bowman united in lifting the first of dirt, signifying that the building is to be accomplished by the united efforts of clergy and laymakers, and will include men, women and children.

According to Oral W. Tucker, chairman of the building committee, the new church will be constructed with two floor levels, and will have a seating capacity of 600.

St. Peter Sets Bible School for June 16

St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran church, 1020 East Main st., will conduct a vacation Bible school from June 16 through 27, according to Ralph Brock, chairman of the board of education.

The ages for the children attending start with four years and go through high school. Bible stories and songs, handicraft and group projects, as well as training in worship and prayer will constitute the chief activities of the school.

Seminarian Daniel Hougum, from Concordia seminary, St. Louis, will be on the teaching staff, in addition to the members of the local congregation. Mr. Hougum will be met in Portland by the pastor of the congregation, and accompany the Korby's from Portland next week. He is scheduled to work in the Medford congregation during the summer months. This is part of his field work training in preparation for the holy ministry in the Lutheran church—Missouri Synod.

Children of the community, who have no Bible school of their own, are invited to attend St. Peter even though they are not members of the congregation.

Pastor and Wife To Quadrennial Meet

The Rev. and Mrs. Sherman Moore, accompanied by their children, left Wednesday for Winona Lake, Ind., where they will attend the quadrennial conference of their denomination as ministerial and lay delegates of the Pacific Northwest district of the Pilgrim Holiness church.

After attending the conference, they will go to Columbia, S.C., where Mr. Moore will be speaker at evangelistic services held in the church pastored by one of his former students of North Idaho Junior college.

Mrs. Moore and the children, Paul, Stephen and Andrea, will provide special music for the meetings. Mr. Moore, who has served six years as pastor of the Medford Pilgrim Holiness church, will return in July to begin another three-year term in that capacity.

After attending the conference, they will go to Columbia, S.C., where Mr. Moore will be speaker at evangelistic services held in the church pastored by one of his former students of North Idaho Junior college.

Mrs. Moore and the children, Paul, Stephen and Andrea, will provide special music for the meetings. Mr. Moore, who has served six years as pastor of the Medford Pilgrim Holiness church, will return in July to begin another three-year term in that capacity.

After attending the conference, they will go to Columbia, S.C., where Mr. Moore will be speaker at evangelistic services held in the church pastored by one of his former students of North Idaho Junior college.

Mrs. Moore and the children, Paul, Stephen and Andrea, will provide special music for the meetings. Mr. Moore, who has served six years as pastor of the Medford Pilgrim Holiness church, will return in July to begin another three-year term in that capacity.

After attending the conference, they will go to Columbia, S.C., where Mr. Moore will be speaker at evangelistic services held in the church pastored by one of his former students of North Idaho Junior college.

Mrs. Moore and the children, Paul, Stephen and Andrea, will provide special music for the meetings. Mr. Moore, who has served six years as pastor of the Medford Pilgrim Holiness church, will return in July to begin another three-year term in that capacity.

After attending the conference, they will go to Columbia, S.C., where Mr. Moore will be speaker at evangelistic services held in the church pastored by one of his former students of North Idaho Junior college.

Mrs. Moore and the children, Paul, Stephen and Andrea, will provide special music for the meetings. Mr. Moore, who has served six years as pastor of the Medford Pilgrim Holiness church, will return in July to begin another three-year term in that capacity.

Pastor Attends District Meeting

The Rev. Kenneth F. Korby and Edwin C. Guetzlaff will leave Medford Monday for Portland to attend the 40th convention of the Northwest District of the Lutheran church—Missouri Synod.

The pastor and lay delegate will represent St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran church at the five-day convention, June 9 to 13. They will review financial affairs of the church body, lay plans for increased mission and charity activity, and consider doctrinal and other spiritual matters.

One hundred seventy-five congregations in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Alaska comprise the Northwest district. Reports on the international mission program of the Lutheran church—Missouri Synod will be presented by Dr. John W. Behnken of St. Louis, Mo., president of the 2,351,805-member church body.

Meeting on the campus of Concordia college in Portland, Northwest Lutherans also will consider resolutions concerning the Lutheran World Federation, the issuance of a new handbook, the practice of holy communion, and modernizing the business functions of church administration.

After attending the conference, they will go to Columbia, S.C., where Mr. Moore will be speaker at evangelistic services held in the church pastored by one of his former students of North Idaho Junior college.

Mrs. Moore and the children, Paul, Stephen and Andrea, will provide special music for the meetings. Mr. Moore, who has served six years as pastor of the Medford Pilgrim Holiness church, will return in July to begin another three-year term in that capacity.

After attending the conference, they will go to Columbia, S.C., where Mr. Moore will be speaker at evangelistic services held in the church pastored by one of his former students of North Idaho Junior college.

Mrs. Moore and the children, Paul, Stephen and Andrea, will provide special music for the meetings. Mr. Moore, who has served six years as pastor of the Medford Pilgrim Holiness church, will return in July to begin another three-year term in that capacity.

After attending the conference, they will go to Columbia, S.C., where Mr. Moore will be speaker at evangelistic services held in the church pastored by one of his former students of North Idaho Junior college.

Mrs. Moore and the children, Paul, Stephen and Andrea, will provide special music for the meetings. Mr. Moore, who has served six years as pastor of the Medford Pilgrim Holiness church, will return in July to begin another three-year term in that capacity.

After attending the conference, they will go to Columbia, S.C., where Mr. Moore will be speaker at evangelistic services held in the church pastored by one of his former students of North Idaho Junior college.

Mrs. Moore and the children, Paul, Stephen and Andrea, will provide special music for the meetings. Mr. Moore, who has served six years as pastor of the Medford Pilgrim Holiness church, will return in July to begin another three-year term in that capacity.

After attending the conference, they will go to Columbia, S.C., where Mr. Moore will be speaker at evangelistic services held in the church pastored by one of his former students of North Idaho Junior college.

Mrs. Moore and the children, Paul, Stephen and Andrea, will provide special music for the meetings. Mr. Moore, who has served six years as pastor of the Medford Pilgrim Holiness church, will return in July to begin another three-year term in that capacity.

After attending the conference, they will go to Columbia, S.C., where Mr. Moore will be speaker at evangelistic services held in the church pastored by one of his former students of North Idaho Junior college.

Mrs. Moore and the children, Paul, Stephen and Andrea, will provide special music for the meetings. Mr. Moore, who has served six years as pastor of the Medford Pilgrim Holiness church, will return in July to begin another three-year term in that capacity.

After attending the conference, they will go to Columbia, S.C., where Mr. Moore will be speaker at evangelistic services held in the church pastored by one of his former students of North Idaho Junior college.

Mrs. Moore and the children, Paul, Stephen and Andrea, will provide special music for the meetings. Mr. Moore, who has served six years as pastor of the Medford Pilgrim Holiness church, will return in July to begin another three-year term in that capacity.

After attending the conference, they will go to Columbia, S.C., where Mr. Moore will be speaker at evangelistic services held in the church pastored by one of his former students of North Idaho Junior college.

Mrs. Moore and the children, Paul, Stephen and Andrea, will provide special music for the meetings. Mr. Moore, who has served six years as pastor of the Medford Pilgrim Holiness church, will return in July to begin another three-year term in that capacity.

Bible School Set by Adventists

Vacation Bible school for kindergarten and primary departments will begin Monday at the Medford Seventh-day Adventist church. Classes will be held from 9 to 11:30 a.m. Monday through Friday, June 20, for children aged 5 to 10.

Mrs. Paul Beddoe will be in charge of the school, assisted by Mrs. Howard Dunlap as kindergarten leader, and Mrs. Merlin Dewey, primary leader. In addition, each department will have five or six teachers for individual classes, a story teller and pianist.

Kindergarten lessons will be based the first week on the theme, "What God Made for Us," and the second week, "How God Talks to Us."

Primary lessons will deal with "Living in God's Family," which will include stories of Bible characters, and "Exploring God's Wonders."

The day's program in each department will include a worship period, stories, songs, Bible lessons, a play and rest period, refreshments, and handicraft.

Lessons for the course are denominational in scope, and enrollment is open to any child in the 5-to-10 age group. Anyone interested in enrolling a child may call Mrs. Beddoe at Spring 2-7489.

Congregational Has New Schedule

The Congregational church will change Sunday to its summer schedule with the morning worship and church school both being held at only one hour, 10 a.m. This time of service has been used the last two summers and has proved very acceptable to the congregation.

The sermon by the Rev. Thomas McCamant will be on "The Love of God in Christ." The choir anthem will be "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains."

A program of property improvement is in progress looking toward the beautification and utilization of the whole four acres. A lawn and plantings are planned for the corner of Groveland and Oakwood dr. A youth work party Saturday will pick up sticks and stones so that mowers can be used to keep the grass down in the natural parts of the grounds.

Former Missionary Summer Assistant

The Rev. and Mrs. Walter C. Morris arrived today from Oceanlake to serve the congregation of the First Church of the Nazarene in the capacity of assistant to the pastor during the summer months.

Mr. Morris, who retired last summer from the active ministry, has served a number of posts in his denomination. After serving many years as missionary to China, Mr. Morris became pastor of the Olivet College church in Kankakee, Ill. He has been temporary pastor at the Mt. Pitt Avenue Church of the Nazarene since February of this year.

Southern Baptists To Hold Enrollment Saturday Morning

Enrollment for the vacation Bible school at First Southern Baptist church, 794 Lozier lane, will be held tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. at the church.

All workers, pupils and visitors should meet at the church for the occasion and will receive instruction for activities and study. Refreshments will be served at 11 a.m.

The Bible school will start Monday, Montella Freeland, superintendent of the school, will be in charge.

For a More Beautiful and Romantic Wedding

The Bible school will start Monday, Montella Freeland, superintendent of the school, will be in charge.

A beautiful setting in the country, with every convenience for the wedding of your dreams.

Phone HI 6-3663 Eagle Point, or come in person. Take the Crater Lake Highway to 1/2 mile beyond the Butte Falls Junction; turn left on Hammel Road; come 1 1/2 miles to the Chapel, at left. Ask for

Rev. D. E. Millard, Minister, Rt. 1, Box 198, Eagle Point, Oregon

Rev. D. E. Millard, Minister, Rt. 1, Box 198, Eagle Point, Oregon

Rev. D. E. Millard, Minister, Rt. 1, Box 198, Eagle Point, Oregon

Installation Set Sunday By First Christian Church

For the Sunday morning service of the First Christian church an installation service for the new church officers will be held instead of the sermon. Warren Fairbanks will sing "Ninety-first Psalm" and the choir will sing "Hearken Unto Me."

The evening service will be held at 7:30, beginning with a song service followed by the sermon and invitation.

The officers newly elected for the coming year include Wayne Wakefield, chairman of the board; Paul White, vice chairman of the board; Mrs. Glen Allen, secretary of the board; Allen Curry, treasurer of the board, and J. J. Evans, financial secretary.

Elders are Ralph Cook, C. M. Hon, George Swinney, George Woodcock and Allen Curry, with deacons Keith Allen, Bill North, Ed Smith, George Bannister, Lewis Bish, LeRoy Pyle, John Grantham, W. I. House, Earl Rogers, Chet Parker, J. F. Evans, Roy E. Henry, Oscar Peterson, J. Jody Cary, Earl Purdy and Floyd Conner. A deacon emeritus is Elmer Gott and deaconess emerita is Mrs. Jennie Hutchinson.

Along with these officers the newly elected officers of the Christian Youth Fellowship will be installed. They are Miss Priscilla Shafer, president; Robert Allen, vice president; Miss Donna Demmer, secretary, and Jim Osborn, treasurer.

Twelve young people will leave Sunday to attend the Christian Youth Fellowship conference at Camp Myrtlewood near Bridge, Ore., for a week. Attending are Jim Osborn, Miss Lynn Ann Latham, Miss Priscilla Shafer, Miss Barbara Gordon, Miss Ovela Walden, Miss Virginia Daniels, Miss Brenda Hohensee, Lloyd Henry, John Hohensee, Larry Bostwick, Ken Hall and Lanny Bostwick.

Boy Scout Troop Is Reorganized

Leo V. Taylor has been elected chairman of the Methodist Boy Scout troop, with Bob Hawkins, scoutmaster, and Glen Duysen, assistant scoutmaster.

Troop committeemen are Lon Rankin, Byron Griffith, Orner H. Haugen, Hilton Griffith, Harvey Beatty, Harold Geilge, Dr. George G. Roseberry, Charles Adamson and R. J. Bills.

CENTRAL POINT TOPICS

Central Point—The Rev. Mr. Jean M. Shelley, pastor of Church of Christ, Central Point, will speak on "At the Foot of God's Mountain" Sunday at 10:45 a.m. At 7:30 p.m. service he will speak on "Say So."

1st Assembly Tells Scheduled Events

The Men's Fellowship of First Assembly of God, 1108 West Main st., will meet in the church annex Saturday at 8 p.m. for its monthly business session followed by a social hour. Gerald Leslie, vice president, is chairman for the evening. Refreshments will be served.

Tuesday through Thursday of next week First Assembly will observe its annual missionary rally at 7:45 p.m. each evening. The Rev. Garland Benintendi, missionary from Formosa, will be guest speaker.

The public is invited to all services.

Ashland Pastor To District Convention

Ashland—The Rev. E. Paul Riedel, pastor, Grace Lutheran church, Ashland, and George Phillips of that church will attend the Northwest district convention of the Lutheran church—Missouri synod, at Concordia college, Portland, this week. The pastor and delegate will attend the entire four-day conference.

Work day is held each Saturday at the new church on Frances lane. Dedication day has been set for July 13.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

United Church of Christ
Groveland Ave. and Oakwood Drive
NOTICE
Worship Service and Church School
now for the summer
10 A.M. ONLY

The Chapel in the Wildwood

A beautiful setting in the country, with every convenience for the wedding of your dreams.

Phone HI 6-3663 Eagle Point, or come in person. Take the Crater Lake Highway to 1/2 mile beyond the Butte Falls Junction; turn left on Hammel Road; come 1 1/2 miles to the Chapel, at left. Ask for

Rev. D. E. Millard, Minister, Rt. 1, Box 198, Eagle Point, Oregon

Rev. D. E. Millard, Minister, Rt. 1, Box 198, Eagle Point, Oregon

Rev. D. E. Millard, Minister, Rt. 1, Box 198, Eagle Point, Oregon

Come to Vacation Bible School...

Bible Sea Adventures

Monday, June 9 thru Friday, June 20 — Hours 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

Philadelphia Church
1851 Grandview Ave.

UNITY CENTER of MEDFORD
Affiliated
Unity School of Christianity,
Lee's Summit, Mo.

Sun. Devotional Service 11 a.m.
Sunday School—Children
All ages — 11:00 a.m.

at
PYTHIAN HALL

WEEKLY CLASSES
Thursday (Mid-Week Service)
7:30 p.m.
Friday Morning.....11:00 a.m.
in Center Room
Center Open Daily
10 a.m. till 4 p.m.
HOLLY BUILDING
Katherine Bosworth, Minister
Residence, TA 6-2098
Office, SP 2-6902

First Christian Church
"The Friendly Church"

Welcomes You
TO ALL SERVICES

Bible School — 9:45 a.m.
Morning Service — 10:50 a.m.
Youth Meeting — 6:30 p.m.
Evening Service — 7:30 p.m.

William C. Piper
Minister
9