

Yankee Cast-Offs Spark Athletics To 2-0 Triumph Over Washington

By JOE SARGIS
United Press International

Even the Yankee castoffs are making like Yankees this season.

Take the cases of Ralph Terry and Wood Held. They were considered throw-ins in the "Billy Martin deal" with the A's last summer, but if you ask New York manager Casey Stengel he'll tell you they are two "guys I really hated to give up."

Both departed themselves in typical "Yankee" fashion Thursday night as the Kansas City Athletics defeated the Washington Senators, 2-0, in 13 innings. Terry, a 22-year-old righthander from Big Cabin, Okla., scattered seven hits over those 13 frames and in four different occasions snuffed out Washington rallies.

Held provided the two big runs when he rammed a home run into the left field bullpen in Griffith Stadium with Vic Power, another ex-Yankee, aboard. Power opened the 13th inning with a single, moved up to second on Frank league "race." The Yankees shellacked the Chicago White Sox, 12-5, in the opening game of a doubleheader, but the Sox bounced back to take the nightcap, 3-2, behind the six-hit pitching of Ray Moore.

Elsewhere in the AL, the Boston Red Sox came from behind to defeat the Cleveland Indians, 5-3, and Ray Boone's seventh-inning grand slam homer powered the Detroit Tigers to a 6-3 win over the Baltimore Orioles.

In the National League, the San Francisco Giants edged the Milwaukee Braves, 5-4, in 12 innings; the Cincinnati Redlegs defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers, 8-4; the Philadelphia Phillies rallied to down the Chicago Cubs, 7-6; and the St. Louis Cardinals shaded the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-3.

The Yankees hammered 15 hits in their opener including a 460-foot, inside-the-park home run by Mickey Mantle as perfect game hero Don Larsen gained his fourth victory without a loss.

In the nightcap, Moore faced only 27 batters through the first eight innings and then ran into trouble in the ninth. However, he got Harry Simpson on a forceout to end

Another Hurdle On Chavez Site

Los Angeles—(UPI)—The highly controversial contract providing the Dodgers with land in Chavez ravine for a new stadium faced another possible legal hurdle today in a Pasadena court room.

Atty. Phil Silver, representing Louis Kirschbaum in his taxpayer's suit, was prepared to move for a third course of action before the same judge who recently issued a temporary restraining order against the Chavez ravine contract from becoming final.

While Dodger owner Walter O'Malley was faced with an almost impossible assignment to get work under way by July 6, there was the hope expressed by city officials that the legal problems can be worked out in a month or so.

Ray Boone Can Still Rap Ball; Grand Slam Hit

By United Press International
Ray Boone doesn't get into as many games as he used to anymore because of recurring leg trouble, but when he does, the former Detroit Tigers' big stick man can still powder the ball.

Given a chance to play Thursday night because the Tigers just haven't been able to muster the long ball this season, Boone, now 34, socked a grand slam home run in the seventh inning to give Detroit a 6-3 victory over the Baltimore Orioles.

The home run was Boone's fifth of the season out of the total of 22 hits he has batted out and it enabled him to boost his runs batted in total to 17.

Pinch-Hitting
Ray, who hit 20 or more home runs for the Tigers in four straight seasons before leg trouble started catching up with him last season, has managed to get into 32 of 45 games Detroit has played thus far this season, but many of his appearances have been in pinch-hitting roles.

A native of San Diego, Calif., he broke into the major leagues with the Cleveland Indians in 1948 and stayed with that club until June 15, 1953 when the Indians traded him to the Tigers along with Al Aber, Steve Gromek and Dick Weik for Art Houtteman, Bill Wright, Joe Ginsberg and Owen Friend.

Holland Hindered By Strained Ankle In British Amateur

St. Andrews, Scotland—(UPI)—Tim Holland, doing his best to ignore both the pain of strained ankle tendons and the remarks of an unfriendly gallery, carried America's hopes in the British Walker Cuppers.

Holland, of Rockville Centre, N.Y., was matched against 28-year-old two-time English champion Alan Thirlwell in one of the 36-hole semi-final matches at the historic Old St. Andrews course.

In the other, 1953 champion Joe Carr of Dublin faced

Pancho Gonzales Whips Aussie in Straight Sets

Renno—(UPI)—Pancho Gonzales bounced back to beat his Australian foe, Lew Hoad, 6-3, 8-6 in straight sets here Thursday night.

The win by the veteran star made the count 49 to 36 in his favor in their current professional tennis tour. Gonzales used his powerful serve to advantage in beating the Aussie star. Hoad had won two straight matches since returning after a week-long layoff because of a leg injury.

In a preliminary, Ken Rosewall beat fellow Australian Frank Sedgman, 11-9.

Dairy Maids To Contend At Roseburg

Rogue Valley Dairy Maids opens its regular season slate against women's competition at Roseburg on Sunday, June 8.

Shy Callaghan, one of the coaches, said that a squad of 14 likely will make the trip for the Maids.

Pat Barron is expected to be on the pitching slab with Jean Main doing the catching.

Around the infield it may be Doris Hickson, first base; Shirley Hanson, second base; Bernice Bigham, shortstop, and Diana Wall, third base.

To Play Florists
Ellen Callaghan will have one outfield spot and the other two will be filled from among Jean Bitterling, Irma Penwell, Arlene Hoffman, Betty Ann Hiday and Mary Ellen Atterbury. Others on the squad will be Jan Bateman and Frances Huffman.

The Maids tentatively were slated to play Myrtle Creek on Saturday but that club is reported not ready for the season. An appearance at the Ashland Softball league jam-boree was to have been this evening but Callaghan was informed this morning that the event had been called off.

First game against a women's club on the Maids home diamond at Camp White will be on June 15. Erv Lind's Florists of Portland will be the opposition.

LA Dodgers Encounter Milwaukee

Los Angeles—(UPI)—The Dodgers, first in the hearts of their new Los Angeles countrymen but last in the National League, go up against the world champion Milwaukee Braves in a game assured of being a financial success.

Los Angeles sends Don Drysdale against the fearsome Braves in the hope he can make it an artistic success before the 60,000 fans expected in Memorial Coliseum.

The Van Nuys, Calif., hurler, sports a meager 2-8 record. Interest Is High

Fred Haney, the Los Angeles-born manager of the Braves, announced Lew Burdette (4-3) would take the mound for Milwaukee's first appearance here. Haney managed the Hollywood Stars before his present major league stint and the big turnout was expected to give him a belated ovation for winning the world series last fall.

So strong was the interest in Milwaukee's first appearance here that the three-game series may draw almost as many people as the home opening set with San Francisco, which attracted 167,209 fans.

Semi-Final Taken 4-3 By Lincoln

Eugene—(UPI)—Lincoln High of Portland, paced by Mickey Lolich's stout relief pitching, moved into the finals of the A-1 prep baseball playoffs Thursday with a 16-inning 4-3 victory over South Eugene.

Lolich relieved starter George Spencer in the seventh and fanned 19 batters in 10 innings of relief pitching. He gave up only four hits. Ray McInnis of South Eugene went the distance, scattering 12 Lincoln hits. He fanned five.

Lincoln will meet Grant High of Portland in Multnomah Stadium Saturday night for the A-1 title.

In the 16th, Jim Satalich doubled for Lincoln, went to third on Lolich's single and scored on a slow infield roller.
