San Francisco—(UPI)—Al Worthington came on to put down a Cincinnati threat in the sixth inning then drove in two runs while assuring the San Francisco Giants a 7-3 victory over the Redlegs.

Sugar Ray Pondering Bout Offer

New York—(UPI)—Sugar Ray Robinson, who believes that "you don't laugh at a million dollars," wants to hear more about an offer for that much money to fight heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson in a title bout at the Los Angeles Coliseum this fall.

The offer, plus a similar million dollar bid to Patterson, was made Friday by Cy Weintraub, head of Sol Lesser motion picture productions in Hollywood.

A spokesman for Weintraub said in Hollywood, "we feel that a fight between Robinson and Patterson would draw the biggest gate in Los Angeles history and would probably be one of the most dramatic fights ever."

Robinson said Weintraub originally was hopeful of promoting a light-heavyweight championship bout between Robinson and Archie Moore. But Robinson, ruler of the middleweight division, said he wasn't interested.

"But the offer for a Patterson fight is something about a lot," Sugar Ray said. "After all, you don't laugh at a million dollars."

Robinson's attorney, Martin Machat, is to leave for the West Coast on Sunday to discuss the offer because "you don't say no to a million dollars without first talking to the man."

Custer (Cus) D'Amato, manager of Patterson, was not immediately available for comment. D'Amato has stubbornly refused to match his champion against fighters he considers to be "dominated" by the International Boxing club.

Robinson, though noted for his sharp, hard-driven contracts with the I.B.C., has often fought under the promotion of the club.

MEDFORD, CP LEGION BASEBALL MIX TODAY

This week end's games at Cheney field begin a busy week of American Legion Junior baseball at the park at the south edge of Medford. Central Point and Medford are to vie at 2 p.m. today after tangling at the local diamond last night.

Both Medford and Central Point are using the Cheney facility as home diamond this year. Central Point has three other games here during the week. On Tuesday the CP Cheney Stud nine plays Roseburg and game are set with Grants Pass Thursday and Lakeview on Saturday.

Medford will entertain Roseburg on Wednesday, second night of the strong Douglas county team's two-night stand at Cheney.

The Medford club is to be the "home" team for today's action. Pitchers from among temporary tie for first place with the Milwaukee Braves who played Los Angeles Saturday night.

Danny O'Connell, regular Giant second baseman, was taken to the hospital with a possible broken rib after being injured in the opening inning. O'Connell was hurt while sliding into second base in an attempt to break up a double play. He left the field under his own power, being replaced by Ed Bressoud.

The big righthander, who now has a 4-2 record, took over for Ruben Gomez after Smoky Burgess had singled and gone to third base on Steve Bilko's double in the sixth. It was the ninth hit off the Puerto Rican screwballer. Worthington intentionally walked Jerry Lynch to load the bases after Burgess had held third base on Don Hoak's infield out. Gus Bell then flew to Hank Sauer in left and "the old man" threw Burgess out as he tried to score after the catch.

Held Hitless
Worthington held the Redlegs hitless for the rest of the game, and set the side down in order in the eighth and ninth innings. He gave up one walk during his stint.

The loss went to southpaw Joe Nuxhall, who was the first of four Cincinnati pitchers to work and suffered his third defeat. He has two victories.

The score was tied 3-3 when Worthington stifled the Redlegs' bid. He came up in the home half of the sixth inning and put San Francisco ahead for the day by singling to right field off reliever Tom Acker after Nuxhall had given up singles to Orlando Cepeda and Bob Schmidt.

San Francisco scored three more times in the eighth frame with Worthington bringing home the Giants' final run with a sacrifice fly to centerfield. A bad hop single by Sauer over third base and an error on a throw to home by Burgess accounted for the two other runs.

A crowd of 20,297 watched the lead change hands twice before the Giants went ahead to stay.

Willie Mays drove in two runs with a sacrifice fly and fielder's choice but went hitless in four official trips to the plate as his hot streak began to fade.

Jerry Anderson, Tom Laurance, Pat McLaughlin and Herb Wheeler, who did not see duty last night, may all see some hill service for Medford today.

Either Bob Johnson or Alan McKinnis, the one who did not pitch last night, may start on the mound for the Cheney club. Other Central Point tilters are Bill Anhorn, Pete Stemple, Loyal Higginbotham and Jim Coghill.

Medford Coach John Kovenz reported that the Dean brothers, Lowell and Calvin, will be on hand for Legion play, except on Sundays. Calvin was shortstop for Medford high this spring. It was earlier reported that the Deans were seeking summer employment in another area.

Elliott Captures Compton Mile Run; Delany Third

Compton, Calif.—(UPI)—Herb Elliott's colorful coach, Percy Cerutti, predicted today that the lean Australian would run the mile in 3:55 "within the year."

"Give Herb tough competition and he's sure to shatter all mile records, accepted or otherwise," the outspoken Cerutti said in commenting on Elliott's easy win in Friday night's "miracle mile," feature of the Compton Invitational track and field meet.

Elliott, in touring the Compton course in one-tenth of a second over the recognized world record of 3:58, ran Ireland's Ron Delany in to the ground. Delany had been considered by most track filberts as the undefeated Elliott's number one challenger.

Friday night he finished a very poor third to the Australian's 3:58.1. "It was simply terrible," was Delany's comment as he stomped from the track after turning in a slow 4:10 mile, obviously disappointed.

Race Film To Be Seen On Tuesday

First public showing in Medford of a color-sound auto racing film, "Double Header 500," is scheduled for 8 p.m. Tuesday, June 10, at the Medford Senior High school auditorium.

The two races are the 1957 Indianapolis and the 1957 Monza, Italy, invitational events. A third film 1,000-mile on the 1957 Mille Miglia, Italian road race, will also be on the program.

A number of service stations, garages and dealers, mostly service stations, are sponsors of the showing in cooperation with Littrell Auto Parts.

While admission is free, seating capacity is limited and an invitational ticket will be necessary for attendance. These tickets may be obtained from the sponsoring firms in the valley.

Sam Hanks, veteran of 12 Indianapolis races, drove a radically new car to victory at a record average speed of 135.6 miles per hour at Indianapolis. Several spectacular accidents without serious injuries, record speeds, and some odd incidents, establish this 41st running of the classic as one of the greatest.

Second half of the Double Header 500 took place June 29th, 1957 at Monza, Ten-top American drivers were invited to compete with 10 European drivers on the 2 1/2 mile Monza oval. The "Dream Race" failed to materialize because most of the European drivers, like Calvin Coolidge, "did not choose to run." In spite of the shortage of European competition, the first Monza Invitational 500 did not lack for excitement. Tony Bettenhausen's fast qualifying time in excess of 177 miles per hour, and Jimmy Bryan's winning average speed of 160.1 miles per hour, provided thrills.

Inglewood, Calif.—(UPI)—Round Table, carrying the heaviest impost of his career with 132 pounds on his back, outran How Now in the stretch to score a head victory Saturday in the $53,550 Argonaut mile at Hollywood Park.

And as Round Table demonstrated he could pick up more than 130 pounds and win, owner Travis M. Kerr indicated that the horse will leave Hollywood Park for Chicago tracks in quest of the all-time money-winning mark.

Seaneen, the colt that beat Round Table two weeks ago in the $100,000 Californian, finished third under his impost of 120 pounds, 11 more than he carried in that big win. Terrang was fourth and Pit Boss and Like Magic trailed.

Today's victory was worth $30,500 to Round Table and boosted his lifetime earnings to $1,056,264, leaving him $29,496 behind citation on the all-time money-winning list headed by Nashua with $1,288,565.

Other rules and changes are in the stock car entry list and rules pamphlet.

First program will have two to four heat races and a trophy dash in addition to the main event.

Parents Consent

Plans Take Shape for Auto Races

Ashland — Plans are beginning to take definite shape for the opening of the 1958 stock car races June 21 at 8 p.m. at the Valley View speedway.

More than 20 drivers are near final completion for the opening races. Drivers will race regular stock cars of the 1949-53 vintage with little or no work done on the motors and other parts.

Promoter Phil Bryant of Ashland has guaranteed $575 for the 30-car field on opening night in addition to the trophies that will be presented to the top drivers at the end of the season for their amassed point totals.

In the past week a number of drivers have been out on the track running their cars in preparation for race day. Kecks Tune Cars

Jack Keck Sr., a standby from past years, has been running his 1950 Dodge convertible through some work-outs and his son Jack Keck Jr. has been working on his Hudson.

Ashland Fire Chief Chuck Davis will enter his 1951 Oldsmobile. It appears to have plenty of fire as evidenced by workouts on the track last week.

Doyce Lemley, high jumper during the track season for Southern Oregon college, will vie in his 1949 Ford and Lou Kurz is putting the final touches on his V-8 Studebaker.

Just about anyone can enter the racing so long as his cars comes up to specifications rules which can be obtained from Bryant in Ashland. His telephone number is MU 2-5281.

Big Five Conference Possible for Coast

San Francisco — (UPI) — Representatives of five west coast universities met here this weekend to "explore" the possibility of setting up a "Big Five" to take the place of the crumbling Pacific Coast conference.

Those represented were California, University of California at Los Angeles, University of Southern California, Washington and Stanford.

The meeting, set up in secrecy, was announced by Cal athletic director Greg Englehard Saturday night after word of it leaked out. Englehard said there would be no announcement after the meeting "because it isn't considered possible any definite conclusions can be reached at this stage."

California, UCLA and USC are withdrawing from the PCC as a result of lengthy disputes about athletic programs and a number of heavy fines by the conference. Washington and Stanford.

Seattle Stops Phoenix String

By United Press International
Seattle's Rainiers finally did it Friday — using the Phoenix' Giants' patented late-inning rush to score a 6-5 victory over the Arizonians and halt their winning string at six straight.

Phil Sahrter's single with one away in the 10th inning drove in the winning run, giving the Seattle infielder four runs-batted-in for the night. A pinch-hit home run by the Giants' Bill Wilson had tied the score at 4-4 in the ninth and Leon Wagner's solo four-bagger in the 10th had put the league leaders ahead, where they had finished the three previous nights before Sahrter's game-deciding hit.
