Home Rites Wed Pair Last Week

Miss Bonnie Jean Bowen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bowen, 522 North Riverside avenue, Medford, became the bride of Cecil Howard Coghill Jr., son of Mrs. Michael H. Fuhrer, 316 Laurel street, Central Point, and the late Cecil Howard Coghill, in a ceremony held Tuesday, June 3.

Mr. Rosse V. Long, pastor of the Church of Christ, 1701 West Main st., Medford, officiated at the wedding held at nine o'clock in the evening in the home of Mrs. Fuhrer. More than 50 relatives and friends attended. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length blue taffeta frock with a small matching hat. She carried a white orchid encircled by white carnations. Miss Sharon Judith Bowen attended her sister. She wore a ballerina length blue taffeta frock and carried shell pink carnations. James Edward Coghill was best man for his brother. Following the ceremony a reception was held for members of the families and close friends of the couple. Miss Patricia Bowen, sister of the bride, served the guests.

Church of Christ Scene Of Friend-Mason Rites

Eagle Point—Miss Georgia Ruth Mason became the bride of Gale Allen Friend in a ceremony held May 16 at the Central Point Church of Christ. The Rev. Mr. Jean M. Shelley, officiated at the double ring ceremony held at eight o'clock in the evening. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis W. Mason, route 1, box 303E, Eagle Point. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Friend, route 1, box 152, Eagle Point.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white lace and tulle gown fashioned with fitted bodice and tulle skirt with panels of lace. She carried white orchids. Mrs. Richard Wallace, Medford, was honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Miss Judie Mason, sister of the bride, and Miss Chloe Willson, Trail. Mrs. Wallace wore a lime green frock while the bridesmaids were in pink frocks. They carried pink and white carnations. Richard Wallace served as best man while Jack Greb, Ronald Nelson, both Eagle Point, Eldon Mason, brother of the bride, and David Davis seated the guests. Peter Peterson Jr., Trail, was ring bearer. White stock in pink satin baskets decorated the table which held the wedding cake at the reception which followed the ceremony. Approximately 90 relatives and friends attended. Jim McCoy, Medford, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, sang accompanied by Mrs. Shelley. The couple are making their home at Shady Cove following a wedding trip to Portland. For her traveling attire the bride chose a blue sheath dress with white accessories. The bride attended Eagle Point schools and is employed by The Shack Cafe in Eagle Point. Mr. Friend also attended Eagle Point High school and is employed by James Vanderlip Logging company.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mrs. Walter H. Hills, grandmother of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hills, all Salt Lake City. The Donald Hills recently arrived here to make their home.
