Gardeners To Convene In Eugene

Three national garden club awards won by Oregon will be presented during the coming convention of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs according to Mrs. A. O. Floyd, president of the state federation. The awards were presented to Mrs. Floyd during the recent convention of the national federation held in Seattle, but the names of the winners will not be announced until the state meeting.

The Oregon federation session is set for June 16-18 in the Eugene hotel, Eugene. One of the convention highlights will be presentation of the annual horticultural awards — two of $100 each, for work in hybridizing. Two lesser awards will also be presented. Mrs. H. O. Smith, Cave Junction, is chairman of this project.

Also attending the state meeting will be Mrs. E. G. Taylor, Talent, state recording secretary; Mrs. Clarence Mathes, Ashland, state year book chairman, and Miss Claire Hanley, Jacksonville, a past federation president and chairman of the research fund committee which bears her name. Mrs. R. T. Nichol, Medford, is to be installed as the new chairman for the Siskiyou district.

Each club in the Siskiyou district is privileged to send two delegates to the state meeting; membership in this district now stands at 850 members. There are 306 clubs in the state federation.

Mrs. Floyd suggests that Medford women unable to attend the entire convention go up for one day, and added that the program Wednesday, June 18, will be particularly interesting. A banquet, installation of new directors, and announcement of awards are planned that day.

Officers Installed

Mrs. L. P. Rentchler was installed president of Medford Garden club at a meeting Thursday, June 5, at the courthouse auditorium.

Also installed were Mrs. Dayton Depue, first vice-president; Mrs. J. Edwin Harper, second vice-president; Mrs. LeRoy Cline, recording secretary; Mrs. Harry Bryant, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Harry Buckmaster, treasurer.

Officers were installed by Mrs. A. O. Floyd, president of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs.

Mrs. Rookard Ostrander, bird co-chairman, spoke on the bald eagle. Past presidents of the club were introduced by Mrs. Charles Stearns and each was presented with a corsage. Present were Miss Jane Sneider, first president of the club from 1926 through 1928; Mrs. E. E. Wilson, Mrs. L. G. Gentner, Mrs. R. T. Nichol, Mrs. Arthur Adler, Mrs. Ostrander, Mrs. Elton Waldron, Mrs. A. E. Leighton, Mrs. Harry Bryant, Mrs. Cline, Mrs. Charles Stearns, and Mrs. L. R. Thomas. Notes were read from three others.

Tea committee for the social hour was Mrs. L. P. Rentchler, Mrs. Dayton Depue, Mrs. O. W. Larson, Miss Florence Bain and Mrs. Vern Shangle.

Adarel Past Matrons Announce Meeting
Adarel Past Matrons club will meet at 12:30 p.m. Monday, June 9, at the home of Mrs. Charles E. Coggins, 1329 Beekman avenue, Medford. A dessert luncheon will be followed by a short business session.

W. Morris Boughner, 202 South Orange street, Medford, was elected grand sentinel of the Oregon chapter, Order of Eastern Star, in the annual session last week in Portland. Mr. Boughner, worthy patron of Reames chapter here, will succeed to the worthy grand patron's chair, and is the first man in the 58-year history of Reames chapter to hold this high office. Mr. Boughner has been a member of the chapter's ESTARL committee, which is Eastern Star Training for Religious Leadership. He is also associate guardian of Bethel 14, International Order of Job's Daughters. George Mulvey, worthy patron of Western Star chapter, Kerby, named to the grand chapter's endowment fund committee, was the only other southern Oregon OES member to receive state recognition during the sessions.

Reames Chapter Plans Ceremony

Mrs. Earl McKinney, 423 Laurel street, Medford, will be installed as worthy patron of Reames chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Saturday, June 14, at 8 p.m. at Medford Masonic temple.

Herbert Morris will be installed worthy patron. Other elected officers who will be installed with Mrs. McKinney are Mrs. Frank Roberts, associate matron; Carl Oestreich, associate patron; Mrs. Roy Nordwick, conductress; Mrs. Lloyd Caton, associate conductress; Mrs. Ray K. Bailey, secretary, and Mrs. Ross Gilkison, treasurer.

Reames chapter will hold a stated meeting Thursday, June 12, at 8 p.m. at Medford Masonic temple.

Grand chapter reports, initiation of new members and a farewell from the 1957-1958 officers are on the agenda.

Officers will be hostesses for the evening, and refreshments will be served in the dining room following the stated meeting.

Chapter to Hold Dinner Meeting In Central Point

Central Point — Initiation and grand chapter reports are on the program for a stated meeting of Nevita chapter, Order of Eastern star, to be held Tuesday, June 10, in Central Point. A potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. will precede the meeting, and members are asked to take their table service.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Brenner, Mrs. Leonard Freeman and Merritt Swing are the dinner committee.

Grand chapter reports will be presented by those officers attending the session, which was recently held in Portland. Decorations in the chapter room will be arranged by Mrs. Signa Day.

Dinner Honors Award Winner

Miss Marcia Spence, who has been awarded the annual nursing scholarship of Medford Voiture, Forty and Eight, was honored at a dinner Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Orr, Old Military road. Miss Spence, who was graduated from Medford High school Thursday night, was accompanied to the dinner by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Spence, 118 Medford heights.

The award winner was introduced by Don Wilson, scholarship chairman for the group. She will enter Sacred Heart School for Nurses in Eugene September 22. Miss Spence leaves June 15 for Northford, Conn., where she will spend the summer with Dr. and Mrs. Andrew Bulkeley and three children, who formerly lived in Medford. Dr. Bulkeley has been doing advanced study at Yale university in recent months. Miss Spence is a past queen of Bethel 55, Job's Daughters.
