Golden apricot milkshakes are a special Dairy Month treat for youngsters. Blend chilled apricot whole fruit nectar, cold milk, sugar and lemon juice to taste in the electric blender, or shake in a covered jar. Pour into tall glasses and top each with a scoop of vanilla ice cream. Add a whole strawberry and a mint sprig for a party look.

Eggs gain new flavor interest when they are combined with ripe olives. Scrambled eggs and fluffy omelets are extraordinarily delicious when ripe olives, cut into large pieces, are added.

A Chocolate Cake Of Great Renown

Destined to become a gastronomic classic is German's Chocolate Cake—a recipe that has swept across the country with incredible speed. Is it the rich, chocolate-y layers, the mouth-watering frosting, or the inimitable combination of both that make it so universally popular? Whatever the reason, once made, you'll everlastingly cherish this recipe for German's Chocolate Cake.

German's Chocolate Cake

1 package sweet cooking chocolate	1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup boiling water	2-1/2 cups sifted cake flour
1 cup butter, margarine, or other shortening	1 teaspoon baking soda
2 cups sugar	1/2 teaspoon salt
4 egg yolks, unbeaten	1 cup buttermilk
	4 egg whites, stiffly beaten

Melt chocolate in 1/2 cup boiling water. Cool. Cream butter and sugar until light and fluffy. Add egg yolks, one at a time, beating after each. Add vanilla and melted chocolate and mix until blended. Sift flour with soda and salt. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with buttermilk, beating after each addition until batter is smooth. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour batter into three 8- or 9-inch layer pans, lined on bottoms with paper. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) for 35 to 40 minutes. Cool. Frost top and between layers with Coconut-Pecan Filling and Frosting.

Coconut-Pecan Frosting

Combine 1 cup evaporated milk, 1 cup sugar, 3 egg yolks, 1/4 pound margarine, and 1 teaspoon vanilla in a saucepan. Cook over medium heat 12 minutes, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens. Remove from heat. Add about 1-1/3 cups flaked coconut and 1 cup chopped pecans. Beat until cool and of spreading consistency. Makes enough to cover tops of three 8- or 9-inch layers, or tops and sides of two 9-inch layers.

Gem Club Plans Show This Month

Roxy Ann Gem and Mineral club of Medford will meet Wednesday, June 11, at 7:30 p.m. at Redmen hall, Fourth and Apple streets. This will be the last meeting before the show which will be held at the McLaughlin Junior High school June 20 and 21.

Birthstone of the month is pear and moonstone. The display at the U.S. National bank has been replaced with specimens from the museum operated by Delmar Smith, Central Point.

All persons interested in gems and minerals are invited to attend the meeting.

Garden Buffet

It's a good idea to place the garden buffet table against a wall. Flowers or other table decoration can be a flat arrangement on wall or close to wall; takes up little room, gives a dramatic effect, isn't so likely to blow away.
