

LA Dodgers Take Three Straight From Braves; Tribe Slaps Yanks

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
Those stories of the Los Angeles Dodgers' collapse were just a bit premature as far as the Milwaukee Braves are concerned.

And, you'll have to excuse the Cleveland Indians for laughing up their sleeves at reports of the New York Yankees' invincibility.

The Dodgers made it a "lost week end" for the Braves on Sunday when they swept their three-game series with a 12-4 rout that extended the world champions' losing streak to four games. The Braves never lost more than three straight games en route to the NL pennant last season and their pitching staff has been thoroughly chewed up during the last week.

The Indians, meanwhile, spoiled matters for New York's largest baseball turnout of the year, 40,903, when they whipped the American league leaders, 14-1 and 5-4. The first game loss was the most humiliating of the year lead in the first two innings and Podres coasted nine despite homers by Hank Aaron and Del Crandall. The Dodgers now have won all five meetings with the world champions who did have one consolation, the three-game series drew 171,326. Los Angeles season attendance for 26 dates now is a whopping 810,151.

Rocky Colavito had a homer, triple and double and Bobby Avila, Roger Maris and Billy Harrell also had three hits each as Cleveland's Ray Narleski breezed to his seventh win the opener. Colavito also homered and Minnie Minoso had three hits for the Tribe in the second game.

Klu Spoiled No-Hitter
Drabowsky, 22, missed a no-hitter when ponderous Ted Kluszewski beat out a slow grounder toward second base in the second inning. Bobby Adams, playing deep for Klu, fielded the ball but could not make a good throw. Ernie Banks and Walt Moryn paced the Cubs with homers.

Hoak's third hit, a two-run single, capped a three-run ninth-inning rally that enabled Cincinnati's Brooks Lawrence to win his third game. Marv Grissom, 42-year-old relief ace, suffered his second defeat for San Francisco.

Harry Anderson's two-run homer gave the Phillies the win in a four hour and 39-minute nightcap after a sacrifice fly by Del Ennis produced the Cardinals' winning run in the 3:25 opener. The total elapsed playing time set a new record for a major league doubleheader. There was once a horror seven minutes longer.

The Red Sox were out-hit 5-19, but won the opener on four homers — two by Jackie Jensen and one each by Don Buddin and Dick Gernert. Dave Sisler won the second game with a six-hitter behind homers by Jimmy Piersall and Gene Stephens. The Red Sox' five-game winning streak is their longest of the year.

Pedro Ramos, aided by Dick Hyde's flawless ninth-inning relief pitching, won his fourth game as the Senators' eight-hit attack offed Detroit homers by Gus Zernial, Frank Bolling and Billy Martin. Zernial's pinch homer tied the major league record of nine by a player during a career.

Virgil Trucks rescued Duke Maas to gain a split for the Athletics after Baltimore's Skivvyn Brown and George Zuberik collaborated in a seven-hit shutout. Ned Garver suffered his second defeat in the opener.

Middlecoff Favorite in U.S. Open

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor
Tulsa, Okla.—(UPI)—Those who know the game the best, the playing pros, singled out Cary Middlecoff as the favorite and Farnk Stranahan and Mike Souchak as the leading dark-horses today for the U.S. Open golf championship.

Their evaluation of the three-day, 72-hole medal play tournament which starts Thursday over the Southern Hills country club course differed from that of the golfers who competed in the Dallas Open, which Sam Snead won Sunday for the second year in a row.

At Dallas the Open choice was Ben Hogan, shooting for an unprecedented fifth Open title, with Snead and Bill Maxwell as the second choices. And the way Hogan played nine holes in practice Sunday, winding up with a two under par 33 on the front nine despite three-putting the ninth hole, would seem to bear them out.

Some Disagree
But the pros who have been testing the tough rough, the treacherous sandtraps and the narrow fairways of the 6,907-yard Southern Hills course didn't agree.

"It's going to take a real strong golfer to win this one, especially with the searing heat which prevails here, and I don't think Ben will be up to those two 18-hole rounds on Saturday," Ed Furgol said. Furgol won the Open in 1954. "Personally, I like Middlecoff."

Middlecoff, who won the Open twice, in 1949 and 1956, and who lost to defending champion Dick Mayer in a playoff last year, has planned for this one. He limited his tournament play so that he would be well rested, playing just enough to keep a competitive edge.

Snead Has Many Rosters
As for Snead, most of the pro golfers would like to see him win. For time is running out on Slammin' Sam, who has won more tournaments and more money than any golfer in history, but who never has been able to capture the open. Snead is 46.

Furgol, who has no hope that he can win it because his right elbow hasn't gained full strength since an operation for the removal of bone chips and a ruptured blood vessel, picked Souchak as his dark horse, and a lot of the pros who have been playing here went along with him.

Big Mike, they point out, is in the Open on a pass and Furgol goes along with "a guy in a lucky streak."

Women's Golf

Rogue Valley Country club lady golfers won the 18-hole and the nine-hole inter-club trophy in matches with Ashland women last week.

Winners from the Oak Knoll club were: Low gross—Gert Woods; low net—Alice Weaver. Medford winners were: Low gross—Ruby Schneider; low net—Florence Culbertson.

Junior girls who have just completed beginners lessons will have a tournament June 10, 11 and 13. The off time will be 8:30 a.m. and all interested girls are welcome.

Competition for RVCC ladies' day Thursday, June 12, will be "fewest putts." Ladies who wish to be paired are to phone Mrs. W. O. Blackledge (SP 2-5990).

Sam Snead Dallas Open Champion

Dallas, Tex.—(UPI)—Samuel Jackson Snead, who has waged a fruitless search since 1937 for the one big golf crown that has eluded him—the National Open—had a victory springboard today to carry him into the 1958 edition starting at Tulsa's Southern Hills Thursday.

The 46-year-old West Virginia hillbilly who came down into the flatlands in 1936 and had been a headliner ever since with his picture swing and winning golf, successfully defended his Dallas Open title Sunday, but had to curl in a 15-foot side-hill putt on the first extra hole of a four-way sudden death playoff to turn the trick.

Eight Under Par
He finished with an eight-under-par 272 with a 35-36-69 final round to finish in a deadlock with Julius Boros of Mid Pines, N.C., Gary Player of South Africa and rookie John McMull in of Fair Oaks, Calif., who blew the tournament on the final five holes when the pressure finally caught up with him.

The $3,500 first money ran Snead's official PGA winnings to an all-time record $329,000 and gave him his 100th tournament victory.

Snead still hasn't got his putting game back in the groove that will be necessary to take the big one later this week. He missed enough short putts to have won here hands down. His long ones were dropping easily enough but the short ones rimmed the cup or broke off to one side.

Lewiston Holds Lead Of 5 Tiffs

By United Press International
Rain cut into the weekend slate in the Northwest League but it failed to put a damper on Lewiston's first-half drive.

The first place Broncs split Sunday's twin bill with Salem and hold a five-game lead over second place Wenatchee as the loop moves into another week of play.

Only one game was played Saturday and it saw Yakima a 10-6 victor over Wenatchee. The Bears got six big runs in the second on one hit, three errors, four walks and a double steal.

Tri-City and Eugene were washed out both Saturday and Sunday and the Saturday Lewiston-Salem game also was a victim of the rain-drops.

Lewiston and Salem split their twin bill Sunday. Vern Kindsfater, new Salem manager, took things into his own hands and tossed a 3-2 victory in the 9-inning opener.

In the second game rookie Ray Hyde spaced seven Salem bingles for a 4-2 Lewiston victory. Bruce McIntosh and Arnie Hallgren bopped solo homers for the winners in this one.

Yakima nicked Wenatchee 4-2 in the opener of their Sunday doubleheader but Wenatchee more than got even with a 21-1 slaughter in the nightcap.

Kim's, Hearin Pace Teams In Southern Oregon Bowling Meet; Offord Heads Singles

There were new front-runners in four men's rivalries, a tie for the lead in another and new top placers in two women's categories after the second week end of action, Saturday and Sunday, in the Southern Oregon Handicap tournament at Medford Bowling lanes.

Kim's, Medford, assumed men's team lead with a bulging 3050, which is 11 pins more than the 1957 winning total. Art Klatt and Harry Frye, Medford, are in front in doubles with 1307 and Ray Offord, Medford, took command in singles with a fat 720. In men's all-events George Bronson is ahead with 1987, Parley Dilworth, Roseburg, tied the 254 high game rolled last week by Pete Peden, Grants Pass.

Hearin Lumber company, Medford, is the new ladies team leader with 2690 and Lela Mathison, Klamath Falls, is now on top in women's high game rivalry with 230.

The tournament continues through June 29 with week end activity.

Drop to Second
Among men's teams, State Farm Insurance, Crescent City, Calif., and Gene's Trailer Sales, Grants Pass, last week's co-leaders, are now second with 3012 each. Sam's Sporting Goods, Medford, has fourth with 2967 and Westside Pharmacy, Roseburg, is fifth with 2964.

Mel Lund and Ted Suter, Crescent City, on top in doubles after opening week end now have second with 1297. New among the top five are Jim Dunphy and Ken Clark, Medford, 1278, Dilworth and Vern Whitebeck, Roseburg, with 1266 and Herb Vallee and Bronson, Medford, 1260.

George Barr, Medford, another opening round leader with 684, also has second spot—in this singles. C. F. Pruess, Grants Pass, took over third with 680 pushing Wes Baird, Crescent City, to third with 671. Bill Blunt, Medford, now has fifth with 669.

Nicison No. 2
Jim Nicison, Crescent City, fourth of the previous leaders overtaken, is No. 2 in all-events with his 1938. Bill Czizmadia, Crescent City, 1913, and Oliver McKneel, Medford, 1912, follow.

Jim Morgan, Medford, with 247 is third in high game standings with 247.

Bill's Belles, Crescent City, was a women's first week end leader, relegated to second position in team standings with 2684. N.W. Way Cleaners, Medford, now is third with 2585 and Silver Dollar Stamps, Medford, fourth with 2578.

The 1112 by Millie Smith and Barbara Hichens, Crescent City, a week ago in doubles stood up. Top five now includes Mae Shirliff and Ellen Jones, Myrtle Creek, 1103, Norma Larson and Marjorie Epps, Medford, 1086, Maggie Rone and Marcella Acomb, Myrtle Creek, 1079, and Elsie Baker and Anna Dale Bohnannon, Medford, 1075.

Smith Keeps Lead
Millie Smith also retained singles lead with 596. Rose Barr, Medford, is still second with 570 and Eleanor Lenz, Medford, third with 567. Mary Bothwell, Klamath Falls, is new fourth spot occupant with 560 and Marie Tennant, Medford, ranks fifth with 553.

Eleanor Lenz still heads all-events with 1648 and Maggie Rone is up in second with 1594 and Lee Livermore, Crescent City, dropping to third with 1593. Fourth and fifth were taken over by Mary Bothwell with 1572 and Ellen Jones with 1565.

Mary Bothwell assumed second with 224 in the high game rivalry, and Eleanor Lenz, high a week ago, is third with 207. Other leaders are Elsie Baker, Medford, 206, and LaRayne Harris, Klamath Falls, 203.

Drabowsky Brilliant

By United Press International
The major leagues gained a star pitcher when Moe Drabowsky decided he was a second-rate violinist.

That was reemphasized Sunday when the 22-year-old Drabowsky of the Chicago Cubs pitched a brilliant one-hitter to beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-0, in the first game of a doubleheader at Chicago. The only safety he permitted was an infield single by Ted Kluszewski, who barely beat the throw at first base.

The Polish-born right-hander, whose mother wanted him to be a violinist, reached the cross-roads of his career when he decided he had a better chance of success as a pitcher.

His development has helped game manager Bob Scheffing of the Cubs the most promising "baby" pitching corps in the majors. Along with Dick Drott 21, Taylor Phillips 24, and Glenn Hobbie 22, Drabowsky figures in a staff of starters that averages just 22 years of age.

Musial Honored At Sunday Tilt

St. Louis—(UPI)—The state of Missouri joined the National league Sunday to honor Stan Musial, baseball's newest member of the exclusive 3,000 hit club.

A Missouri license plate bearing the number 3,000, was presented Musial by Gov. James T. Blair Jr. The number has been reserved for the man for life.

Both Paul Waner and Tris Speaker, who had 3,000 hits or more in their careers, were present for the ceremonies between halves of the Cardinals doubleheader with the Philadelphia Phillies. The Cardinals gave plaques to the three men.

Warren Giles, president of the National league, presented Musial with the league's memento of his hits and a silver bat for his 1957 league batting championship.
