

Medford, CP Legion Nines Bill Roseburg Tuesday, Wednesday

Lockwood Motors, Roseburg team in American Legion baseball, which plays at Medford this evening and Wednesday night, again has the flavor of a Douglas county-wide contingent. At least six Douglas communities are represented on the squad.

Roseburg is scheduled to play Central Point Cheney Studs tonight and Medford Crater Lake Motors American Legion nine on Wednesday. Starting hour on both occasions is 8 p.m. at Cheney field.

Players from Glide, Drain, the Winston-Dillard area, Glendale and Camas Valley, in addition to Roseburg, are on the Lockwood squad according to a recent story in the Roseburg News Review.

Among the six pitchers in camp were Bill Eswine and John Livingston from Glide, Bob Whippel from Drain, Nolan Buck from Douglas, five of Winston-Dillard and Jerry Halladay and Walt Edmunds from Roseburg.

Other players drilling last week were Wes Young from Glendale, Floyd Phillips from Drain, Byron Baker from Camas Valley, Denny Bissonette from Douglas and Don Wells, Mike Hatfield, Bob Scott, Ted Kolberg and Chuck Hinney.

A number of the foregoing players were on the 1957

Lockwood squad which won 24 games and lost six and advanced to the state championship series.

Roseburg is in the same Legion baseball area as Medford and Central Point but is in the northern district whereas the Cheney and Crater Lake Motors clubs are in the southern district.

Either Alan McKinnis or Pete Stemple is slated for mound service for Central Point tonight. Dennis Barr and Jerry Anderson saw duty for Medford against CP last Saturday. They should be satisfactorily rested if Coach John Kovenz wishes to use either. The coach, however, could choose from among Tom Laurance, Pat McLaughlin and Herb Wheeler.

Tacoma Fighter Wins With TKO

Butte, Mont.—(UPI)—Pat McMurtry, Tacoma, Wash., wore-down a winded Henry Hall, Milwaukee, Wis., for a seventh-round technical knockout in a scheduled 10-round heavyweight fight here Monday night.

McMurtry weighed in at 188, Hall at 190.

Jimmy ale, 140, Portland, TKO'd Harold Nelson, 135, Seattle, in 1:12 of the fourth round of the semi-windup.

Camp White May Tussle Prospect This Wednesday

Camp White—Camp White semi-pro baseball nine, rained out of action Sunday, hopes to get back into the swing of things on Wednesday.

The Whitters tentatively are billed to entertain Prospect in a practice game Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at Memorial stadium here. Another non-league game is planned for Saturday when the Veterans Administration domestic sponsored club takes on the Klamath Kubs at Klamath Falls.

Both Jim Eggers and Jim Smith may see some pitching service for Camp White on Wednesday evening. Don Vannice is expected to handle the chucking for Prospect.

Rain over the past week end delayed the opening of the Rogue Valley league until next Sunday when Prospect will be at Cave Junction and Camp White at Butte Falls.

Games postponed last Sunday were Cave Junction at Camp White and Butte Falls at Riddle. Latest word is that they will be moved to the tail end of the season.

Decola, Schmidt Possible Match

New York—(UPI)—Promoter Teddy Brenner said today he will match welterweights Tony Decola and Peter Schmidt for a return bout next month if Monday television fights are continued at St. Nicholas Arena during the summer.

Decola of Brooklyn won a technical knockout over Schmidt of New York because of a cut left brow and eyelid in the ninth round at St. Nick's Monday night.

Decola weighed 148 pounds; Schmidt, 145½.

U. of O. Champs To Get Track Letters

Eugene—(UPI)—Eighteen members of the University of Oregon's Northern division track and field champions were recommended for varsity letters today. Only four seniors are among the letter winners.

Hart, Turner Will Meet In 10 Rounds

Philadelphia—(UPI)—Garnet (Sugar) Hart and Gil Turner pass up friendship for golden opportunity tonight when they meet in a 10-round bout that could earn the winner a shot at the welter weight title.

The 27-year-old Hart is favored at 8-5 to defeat Turner, who used to spar with him for fun in the gym. The Pennsylvania Athletic commission will name the winner state champion. Also, promoter Herman Taylor has offered new welter king Virgil Akins $30,000 to defend against the victor.

Sugar is rated fourth to Turner's sixth by the National Boxing association. Ring Magazine lists Hart fifth and the 27-year-old Turner seventh.

Hart has won 25 bouts, 20 by knockout, including a TKO over Charley (Tomstone) Smith in his last start. He has lost only three and has been held even once.

Turner, who plans his usual slam-bang style against Hart, has a 55-17 record, including a decision over Akins last September. He lost to Vince Martinez in a close one more recently.

Willie Reddish, former heavyweight boxer, trains both fighters, but he is sitting out this crossroads bout. Hart and Turner each will have somebody new handling corner chores.

TO MEET LIND FLORIST SOFTBALLERS

Ellen Callaghan, left, and Bernice Bigham are members of the Rogue Valley Dairy Maids softball team which meets the strong Erv Lind Florists of Portland on Sunday evening, June 15, at Memorial stadium, Camp White. Miss Callaghan is center-fielder and Miss Bigham shortstop for the Rogue Valley club which is sponsored by the Milk Producers league. The game is one of the top attractions of the season at the Veterans Administration domiciliary field.

Vancouver, Phoenix Resume Battle For League Lead

By United Press International

Vancouver and Phoenix resume their battle for the Pacific Coast league lead tonight with the Mounties holding on to a slim lead by virtue of twin 1-0 wins over Portland.

The Mounties will host seventh place Seattle in a series starting tonight. While Vancouver meets the Suds, second place Phoenix will meet third place Salt Lake in a series which should be a tough one on pitchers.

The Bees are 5½ games out of first and must win their share from the Arizonans or else drop further out of the pennant chase. Power is the long suit of both clubs and the series should be a colorful one.

In other action, fifth place Sacramento will take on fourth place San Diego, which is still within hailing distance of first place, six and one-half games out. Cellular dwelling Portland faces sixth-place Spokane to complete the slate.

In yesterday's only action, the Mounties showed the classy pitching which has enabled them to stay ahead of the heavy-hitting clubs which make up the rest of the first division.

The Mounties swept a pair from Portland with Erv Palica and Mel Held tossing the shutouts. Vancouver hurlers recorded four shutouts during the series.

In the opener, Palica scattered seven singles. Beaver veteran Elmer Singleton allowed only four safeties, but one of them was Joe Frazier's eighth homer.

In the nightcap, it was Held who pitched the four-hitter while Portland's John Bushardt lost a six-hitter. The Mounties sweated in the winning run when Buddy Peterson singled, stole second, advanced on an out and came home on a wild pitch.

THE LINESCORES:

(1st game)
Portland 000 000 0-0 7 0
Vancouver 010 000 x-1 4 1
Singleton and Tarnay, Palica and White.

(2nd game)
Portland 000 000 0-0 7 0
Vancouver 010 000 x-1 4 1
Singleton and Tarnay, Palica and White.

Valley Clubs Extend Play

The Rogue Valley baseball league schedule has been extended one week to make up games rained out last Sunday, it has been announced.

Games which were to have been played last Sunday will be played on Aug. 17 and will send Butte Falls to Riddle and Cave Junction to Camp White. Prospect draws a bye on that date.

League action next Sunday, June 15, will see Prospect at Cave Junction and Camp White at Butte Falls. Riddle draws a bye.

Slammin' Snead Aims For Open Title

Tulsa, Okla.—(UPI)—Slammin' Sam Snead, trying for the 18th time to win the major title in golf which he eluded him, took dead aim today on the U. S. Open championship.

Snead, now 46, has won more tournaments and more money than any other golfer in history, but the best he's been able to do in the Open is four runner-up finishes. Several times he had the title within his grasp, only to let it slip away.

He's the sentimental favorite to win this one—Cary Middlecoff is the bookmakers' favorite—and Snead realizes that most of the pros are pulling for him.

Is Currently Satisfied

Despite his 36-35-71, Snead complained about the rough of the Southern Hills course and the sand traps. As a result of the complaints, Joe Dey, executive secretary of the U. S. Golf association, indicated he would have the rough cut before Thursday.

Ford Shoots Par

Doug Ford the 1957 Masters champion, had one of Monday's best practice rounds, an even par 70. Ben Hogan, shooting for his fifth Open title and who has been tailoring his game to fit the Southern Hills course since February shot a 73.

Bantam Ben was satisfied with his game except for putting. His position play was exceptional, but he carded five bogeys, largely because of an erratic putter, against only two birdies.

Frank Stranahan, whom some of the pros are picking to win, shot a 73 despite two double bogeys. Buck White and Billy Casper had 71's with 72's for PGA champion Link Hebert, Ed Furgol and Herman Barron.

A recent study of Nobel Prize winners in physics shows that about one in three did his prize-winning work before age 30.

Diamond Lake Fishing Good

Diamond Lake—Fishing has been holding up well at Diamond lake, according to John Koch, manager of the resort.

Koch reported that Mrs. John R. Bennett, Portland, caught a six-pound, 24-inch trout. It is the largest kamloops rainbow taken to date at the lake. The fish took a green frog flatfish lure.

Koch said that the resort has telephone service again—such as it is.
