

Dodgers Open Up Series With Phils

Los Angeles — (UPI)—The Dodgers, revived by a three-game sweep over the world Champion Milwaukee Braves return to action tonight in the Coliseum in the opening of a three-game series with Philadelphia.

A victory over the Phils by Los Angeles would lift the Dodgers out of the cellar where they have roomed since last May 12 and put Philadelphia in it.

Los Angeles is a half game behind seventh-place Philadelphia and 7½ games back of league-leading San Francisco. So far this season the Dodgers have whipped the Phils four times while losing twice.

Sixth-placed Pittsburgh moves into Los Angeles Friday for a three-game week end series. A hot streak could move Los Angeles well up in the tightly packed National league standings.

The Milwaukee series attracted 171,326 fans, a National league record, and increased the season total to 810,151 for 27 games played in the mammoth Coliseum.

Dodger batters found their eye at last as the club's average advanced to .251 for the season, and Johnny Roseboro, Don Zimmer and Carl Furillo topped the .300 mark.

Giants First, But Injuries Hurt Team

San Francisco — (UPI)—Yes the San Francisco Giants remained in first place in the National league today but it was anybody's guess how long they could keep their balance.

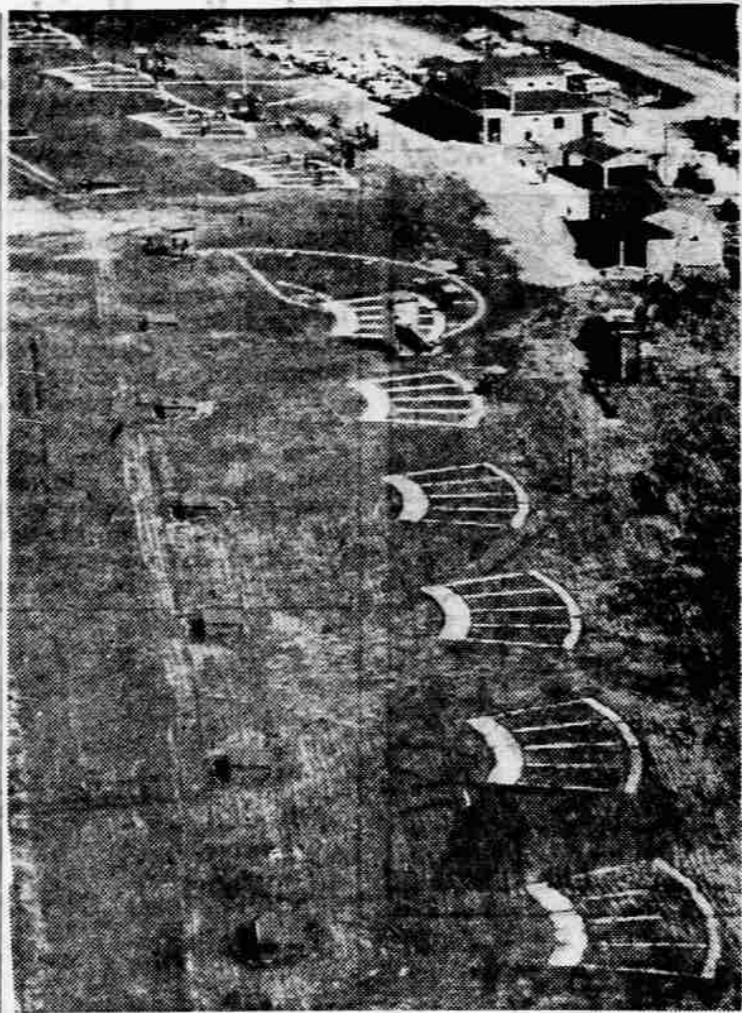

Manager Bill Rigney's tottery crew was blanked, 3-0, Monday by Bob Purkey of the Cincinnati Redlegs. It was the Giants ninth loss in 13 contests and left them only three percentage points ahead of second place Milwaukee which has lost four straight.

Beset with injuries to go with a weak pitching staff, Rigney planned to shoot Ramon Montant (4-4) at the Pittsburgh Pirates tonight when the Bucs check in for a three game series. Ruben Gomez, who figured in the bean ball riot with the Pirates May 25 at Pittsburgh, may start on Wednesday afternoon.

Manager Danny Murtaugh is expected to go with Bob Friend (8-4) tonight as the Pirates battle to come out of their own slump. They have lost six out of seven games and dropped into sixth place.

Rigney said after Monday's second straight loss to the Redlegs that he might juggle his lineup, possibly moving the slumping Mays up to second spot.

STATE SHOOT OPENS THURSDAY—Medford Gun club, layout of which is shown here, will be scene of the Oregon State shoot of the Pacific International Trapshooting association Thursday through Sunday, June 12 through 15. Members of the club have been working for 10 days to get the grounds in order and complete arrangements for the tourney.

Decent weather yesterday gave a handful of members a full day to work on location. Some shooters will arrive on Wednesday to test their sights against practice targets. A program of registered warm-up shooting is planned on Thursday and state title gunning will begin on Friday. Titles will be decided in 16-yard class, singles and doubles and in handicap rivalry. Approximately 250 shooters from throughout Oregon are expected by Sunday of the tourney.

Jensen Blasts 14th Home Run For Team Victory

United Press International

For downright stubbornness, we give you a guy like Jackie Jensen, who simply refuses to accept the idea that the Yankees have the pennant practically all locked up.

Jensen still feels the Red Sox have a chance and he's bent on proving his point even if he has to do it all by himself.

The stocky San Francisco slugger certainly went about it the right way Monday night when he blasted his 14th homer plus a double and a single to drive in four runs in a 9-4 victory over Detroit.

Jensen's performance paced the surging Red Sox to their sixth straight victory and boosted them into a virtual tie for second place 7½ games behind the idle Yanks.

In his California home, Jensen keeps an autographed picture of Joe DiMaggio which he obtained while both were members of the Yankees. Di Mag inscribed the photo this way:

"Make 'em all moan, Jackie boy."

And that's exactly what Jensen is doing. His home run total is second in the American league only to Bob Cerv's total of 15, and Jensen's 44 runs batted in put him only one behind the Kansas City outfielder, who also leads that department.

Not bad for a fellow who wanted to quit the game in disgust after the Senators peddled him to the Red Sox five years ago.

Jensen's homer Monday night was a 400-foot wallop that came with two men on in the third inning and highlighted a six-run rally. The homer off loser Paul Foytack, was the blond belter's third in two days.

It gave big Frank Sullivan a lead that enabled him to coast to his third victory via a nine-hit effort.

Another three-run homer by Gus Triandos helped the Baltimore Orioles clip the Cleveland Indians, 5-2, behind Southpaw Billy O'Dell's four-hit hurling.

Triandos slammed his 12th homer off Cal McLish in the first inning following singles by Al Pilarcik and Gene Woodling. That proved to be all the margin O'Dell needed for his sixth victory against seven defeats.

J. W. Porter doubled home two runs for Cleveland in the bottom of the first inning. O'Dell then settled down to retire the next 16 batters before Rocky Colavito singled in the seventh inning.

Rain cheated the White Sox out of an apparent victory when it forced postponement of a game against the Senators with Chicago leading, 7-1, in the fourth inning.

Early Wynn appeared to be breezing to his sixth victory when the game was called. He had allowed two hits while the White Sox raked Al Cicotte and Chuck Stobbs for nine, including three singles by Billy Goodman and a home run by Tito Francona.

Bob Purkey pitched Cincinnati to third place with a 3-0 victory over San Francisco in the only National league game scheduled.

Purkey yielded only six hits and didn't walk a batter as he rolled to his fifth victory in a row and eighth of the season against a single defeat.

Steve Bilko connected for a two-run homer off left-hander Johnny Antonelli in the fourth inning and the Redlegs scored another run in the seventh when Eddie Miksis singled home Don Hoak.

Despite the defeat, their ninth in the last 13 games, the Giants retained first place by three percentage points over the Milwaukee Braves.

National League Pennant Race Open To Eight Teams Fighting For Flag

San Francisco — (UPI)—The National league pennant race is such a wide open affair that all eight teams are in contention for the flag, a jubilant Birdie Tebbets of the Cincinnati Redlegs proclaimed Monday.

"We're up in third place, now, said Birdie after watching his team take three out of four from the league leading San Francisco Giants. "We've won seven of our last nine games. Our boys are playing well."

"We have the best second base combination in the entire league in Roy McMillan at short and Johnny Temple at second. We are getting good pitching, fine fielding and timely hitting."

"Our hitting didn't click at first, but now we seem to be getting the safe blows when they count. We have a fine first base combination. We can use Steve Bilko against left-handers, George Crowe against right-handers. And they both hit well this way."

It was Bilko who smashed a two-run homer to provide the cushion in yesterday's 3-0 victory. He clouted the ball into the left field pavilion off lefty Johnny Antonelli on a 3-0 pitch.

Bob Purkey pitched the shutout against the Giants. "He's a fine hurler," said Tebbets. "He has good control and knows what he is doing. He won three from the Giants last year and went 23 innings without allowing them a run. And he starts off with nine more scoreless innings this year."

"But we'll need all that kind of pitching we can get and we'll need a lot of good hitting. Every team in this league has a chance to win the pennant—and that includes Los Angeles. The Dodgers are coming back fast. And by the last of the season, you watch and see, they'll be right there."

"These Giants that we beat this series are a real solid ball club—and so are the rest of the clubs in the league."

Moore Gets Decision But Lacks Knockout

Sacramento, Calif. — (UPI)—Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore, the forever man in the world of boxing, worked up a good sweat Monday night, but could not score his 127th knockout as he took an easy decision over Howard King.

Moore was trying to beat a record he already equaled, which was set by Young Stribling between 1921 and 1933. But though he floored the 194½ pound King three times during the 10 round bout, Moore was unable to keep him on the canvas.

In three previous fights, Moore had floored the Reno, Nev., fighter a total of six times. However, he has never been able to keep King down. Moore said he tried "to get him (King) in the later rounds, but he was too elusive. He's getting to be mighty foxy, that boy."

The light heavy champion did a good deal of road work chasing King around the ring for the first six rounds. Then in the seventh Moore uned a hard, short right which dumped his opponent into the press section.

Undaunted, King scrambled back into the ring before the full count, only to run into another smashing right that dropped him for nine just before the bell.

Once again, in the ninth, Moore caught his younger opponent with a jolting right. That one also sent King down for a nine count. But he hung on long enough to lose by a decision.
