Prices Paid To Oregon Farmers Dip
 Corvallis — (UPI) — Prices paid Oregon farmers fell during May for the second consecutive month, according to Oregon State college economist Mrs. Elvera Horrell.

Mrs. Horrell reported that downturns in prices paid for potatoes, hay, dairy products, lambs and food grains more than offset increases in prices for feed grains, beef cattle and calves, wool, broilers and eggs.

The drop was two per cent from mid-April to mid-May but prices are still two per cent higher than in mid-May a year ago.

Senator Killed By Court Clerk

Bennettsville, S.C. — (UPI) — State Sen. Paul A. Wallace was shot to death Tuesday night in the sheriff's office at the county courthouse just as his victory in the state Democratic primary was assured.

The killer was County Court Clerk Henry A. Rogers, 63, a long-time friend and business associate of Wallace.

Wallace, 56, a farmer and veteran state senator, was sitting in a chair in the small private office of the sheriff on the ground floor of the Marlboro County courthouse when the quiet court clerk entered.

Rogers was hardly noticed as he walked into the office crowded with well-wishers. He stopped about four feet from Wallace, pulled out a .32 caliber pistol and fired five times.

Wallace slid from his chair to the floor, mortally wounded. He had been struck by all five bullets.

The sheriff and several others, recovering from their initial shock, leaped to disarm Rogers who offered no resistance and made no attempt to escape.

UAW Finding Task Of Keeping Workers On Job Difficult

Detroit — (UPI) — The United Auto workers found itself Tuesday serving a strike threat on Chrysler Corp. at one plant and urging workers to stay on the job at another.

It was all part of the UAW's increasingly difficult task of keeping angry workers on the job until the union feels a strike will be effective.

UAW members started working without a contract when pacts with General Motors, Ford and Chrysler expired May 29-June 1. There has been little trouble except at Chrysler, where the company has made big changes in the working hours of union committeemen and stewards.

Chrysler, like the other companies during the no-contract period, has cut the number of hours which stewards could spend negotiating worker grievances on company time. Chrysler said its reduction of the grievance negotiating time of stewards merely puts it in line with other companies.

The UAW charged Chrysler is trying to weaken the union. It also charged Chrysler is taking advantage of the no-contract period to increase work loads.

Tuesday, there was labor action on three fronts at Chrysler plants. A wildcat walkout of about 400 employees at Dodge truck assembly, called in sympathy for 21 union stewards who were suspended by the company, shut down the truck plant, idling 1,400.

The 400 employees who left their jobs at the noon break at Dodge Tuesday reported for work today as ordered by UAW Local 140 officers.

UAW Plymouth Local 51 got unanimous approval of its membership to take a strike vote. No date was set for the vote and the UAW international emphasized any strike action should be held up until it can be effective.

UAW Chrysler Local 7 held a mass meeting at the Chrysler Division Jefferson ave. plant to get the workers to go along with the union's policy of staying on the job until the auto companies meet Little Progress.

The UAW is holding daily contract negotiations with all three auto firms. But there is no inkling of rapid progress. Informed sources reported a contract signing is hardly possible before July. By that time, the UAW's strike power should be growing, with model changeover work only a month or so away.

Biggest Building Year Starts at OSC

Corvallis — (UPI) — The biggest building year in the history of Oregon State college has been launched on the Corvallis campus, including two new dormitories, a dormitory cafeteria, and a new five-story physics-chemistry building.

College officials said the buildings should all be finished in time for classes in the fall of 1959.

OSC, Oregon's largest college, had an enrollment of 7,676 this year, nearly 200 more than the previous high set right after World War II.

OSC's largest building program, with model changeover work only a month or so away.

But some company sources point out most auto plants will close down in late July, with plenty of 1958 cars on hand to last until 1959 models come out in the fall. These sources believe the union will have a hard time launching a successful strike by workers who have been laid off for four weeks or more.

Before contracts expired the companies had offered two-year renewals of old contracts, including at least 16 cents in hourly pay hikes. The union insisted a new contract must include better unemployment benefits, pensions and job transfer protection.

Soviet Astronomers Can't Spot Satellites

Moscow — (UPI) — Soviet astronomers have not been able to spot the U.S. earth satellites in space because they are too small and follow paths unfavorable for sighting from Soviet soil, Moscow radio said Tuesday.

But the broadcast said the Soviet Sputnik was being tracked carefully by 70 special stations in the USSR.

About 300 million road maps are given away each year.
