

Norman Debut Big Day for Tiger Crew; Thomas Stars for Pirates

By United Press International
It's a toss-up who's the happiest guy in baseball today, Detroit's new Manager Bill Norman or Pittsburgh slugger Frank Thomas.

Norman put in his first day as a major league manager with the Tigers Wednesday and it was a dilly. The Bengals made it a banner debut for him by sweeping a day-night doubleheader from the Red Sox, 7-0 and 9-3, to climb out of the American League cellar.

The Tigers treated their new 47-year-old skipper to a little of everything. Frank Lary showed him some fine five-hit pitching in posting his sixth victory in the opener and Billy Martin belted successive homers in the second and third innings of the nightcap to help Jim Bunning gain his third triumph.

Thomas also enjoyed the kind of day he'll remember a long time and not simply because it happened to be his 29th birthday.

The husky Pirate third baseman clouted two home runs and drove in seven in a 14-6 win over the Giants at San Francisco that knocked them out of the National league lead.

19 Homers
Thomas now has 19 homers and 57 runs batted in. Both are tops in the circuit. Bill Mazeroski highlighted a six-run first inning for the Pirates with a three-run homer and Thomas hit one with the bases full in the second. Vern Law registered his sixth victory.

The New York Yankees, possibly spurred on by Casey Stengel's worried warning, "We ain't home yet," and then again, possibly not, stretched their lead to nine games with 10-2 and 2-1 victories over the Kansas City Athletics in a doubleheader.

Tony Kubek and Elston Howard each drove in three runs with three hits in the opener as Don Larsen notched his fifth victory with late-inning help from fireballer Ryne Duren. Reliever Virgil Trucks, pitching in a steady rain, forced across the winning run in the night-cap when he walked four men in a row in the ninth. Bob Turley, tossed a six-hitter to become the majors' first 10-game winner.

Orioles Win
The light-hitting Baltimore Orioles erupted for five runs in the fourth inning to lick the Cleveland Indians, 7-4. Brooks Robinson drove in three of Baltimore's runs with a pair of singles as 19-year-old Mill Pappas bested Dick Tomaneck.

Russ Kemmerer pitched a six-hitter and retired the last 14 batters in a row as Washington beat Chicago, 5-2. The Senators rapped Bill Fischer and three other White Sox pitchers for 11 hits, including Neil Chrissy's two-run triple during a three-run rally in the second inning.

Ken Boyer broke up an extra-inning struggle when he homered off Hal Jeffcoat in the 12th to give the St. Louis Cardinals a 3-2 win over the Cincinnati Redlegs. Morris Martin relieved St. Louis starter Sam Jones in the ninth, gave up only two singles over the last four innings, and was the winner. Boyer's game-winning homer was his 11th.

Streak Halted
Milwaukee broke a five-game losing streak and bounced back into first place with a 10-7 decision over the Cubs. Joe Adcock got the Braves off to a good start with a grand slam homer in the first inning but the world champs had to break a 5-5 tie with a three-run rally in the eighth. Lee Walls hit his 15th homer for the Cubs.

Gil Hodges drove in three runs and Don Drysdale pitched his first complete game of the season in leading the Los Angeles Dodgers to a 7-4 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies. Jim Hearn, who relieved starter Curt Simmons, was the loser when the Dodgers rallied for four runs in the third inning to go ahead, 5-4.

Benson Foley Named On PCC Honor Roll

Los Angeles — Thirty senior athletes in Pacific Coast conference schools have been honored for superior scholarship during their course of college study, it was announced today.

Six on the list of 30 also have been elected to Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary, according to the announcement from the office of Victor O. Schmidt, conference commissioner.

The conference honor roll gives recognition to athletes from the nine conference schools who have completed eligibility and who have earned a cumulative average of B or better for all college study. The list released today includes those athletes who had qualified as of the conclusion of winter term. Others may be added upon the completion of spring semester and quarter grades, it was explained.

Phi Beta Kappa
Those named to the conference honor roll who also have been elected to Phi Beta Kappa include John (Jack) Douglas, three-year football letterman and tennis star from Stanford, and two-year football letterman Bruce Brenn and John Raventos, both of Oregon. Others also honored by Phi Beta Kappa include Peter Mansfield and Richard Smith, both baseball, and John Strohhenn, gymnast, all of Stanford.

Two other outstanding conference athletes recognized by the honor roll were Gary Simmons of Idaho, member of the 1958 all-conference basketball team and the 1958 conference scoring leader, and Bob Voiles, a two-sport letterman of Southern California. Voiles was the 1956 conference javelin champion, won the 1957 National AAU javelin title and is the school record holder in that event.

Also cited were such prominent athletes as Bob McKittick, Oregon State two-year football letterman; Fred Peters, Stanford school record-holder in the discus, and Gail Strait, Washington State three-year football letterman.

List of Oregon State college and University of Oregon athletes honored follows:

Thomas N. Bowen, Oregon State, baseball; residence—Covallis, Ore.; graduate Center (Oklahoma City, Okla.) H.S.
Bruce Brenn, Oregon, football; Phi Beta Kappa; residence—Boise, Idaho; graduate Moscow (Idaho) H.S.
Robert Decker, Oregon, track; residence—Eugene, Oregon.
Benson Foley, Oregon State, track; residence—Central Point, Ore.; graduate Medford H.S.
Robert McKittick, Oregon State, football; residence—Baker H.S., Ore.; graduate Baker H.S.
John Raventos, Oregon, football; Phi Beta Kappa; residence—Atherton, Calif.; graduate Menlo-Atkinson H.S.

ON HONOR ROLL—Benson Foley, Oregon State college and ex-Medford high pole vaulter, was among 30 senior athletes named to the Pacific Coast Conference Honor Roll for scholarship. The above picture was taken during his high school days.

Rogue Streams Begin To Clear

Portland — (UPI) — The weekly fishing report prepared by the State Game Commission:

Central: Lost lake fair to good; Hood river fair; East and Paulina lakes still good; Crane Prairie improved; Elk lake good for eastern brook trout; Big Lava only fair; Deschutes from Bend to mouth of Crooked river fair to good on files and bait; Waldo lake road open to 1 1/2 miles beyond Lemish lake trail; Ochoco reservoir fair to good; Odell lake fair to good.

Ladies' Leader Made Alternate

Marblehead, Mass.—(UPI) One of the most promising of the touring women professionals was on the sidelines today after leading the group through a preliminary round to the $12,000 Triangle Invitation Round Robin golf tournament.

Jo Ann Prentice of Columbia, S.C., was named by veteran Patty Berg just a week ago as one of the most promising players on the tour. But she was relegated to the role of alternate as the 90-hole "richest tournament on the tour" got under way on the newly-renovated Tedesco Country club course.

Vancouver Mounties Score Six Victories With Seven Tallies

BY GENE BRYANT
United Press International
The Vancouver Mounties, not a club given to over-coming its opponents recently, nevertheless made it six straight wins in a row Wednesday night — and for the fifth time out of the last six games it was by a score of 1-0.

Wednesday night's victory over Seattle, which sent the Mounties a full two games ahead of second-place Phoenix in the Pacific Coast league standings, also marked the shutouts' sixth straight shutout, running their string of consecutive scoreless innings to 41.

Even more remarkable, Vancouver has scored but seven runs while winning its last six contests.

Unearned Run
The Mounties pushed across their only run, unearned, in the fifth when Barry Shetron singled in Buddy Peterson, who had walked and then gone to third on an outfield error. Charlie Beamon, down from Baltimore, allowed the Rainiers only three hits while picking up his first PCL victory of the year. Art Fowler, who gave the Mounties but five safeties was charged with

Hunting & Fishing Southern Oregon

By MEL REES
The weather held the key to the fishing this past week. When it was possible to get out on the lakes—the fishing was worth it. All lakes in the area were producing some of the best fish of the season.

Norman Sneed, Medford, fishing eggs in Fish Lake snared an 18 1/2 rainbow along with several others in the better than 12 inch class. Richard Plumley, of Hawthorne, Calif., made an excellent catch of nice fish including a 17 inch brookie. Anyone who has taken a brookie this large knows that it is quite a fish—and tasty too!

Scanty reports from Willow Creek reservoir say that some nice fish have been taken there. The fishing at Four-Mile is reported as excellent although the fish are much smaller. These fish in Four-Mile may be smaller on the average but it is certain that they are some of the finest eating in the state. The water is icy cold and the blue-backs and brooks that come from there are among the finest.

WILL PROLONG SEASON
The heavy snow-pack in the high mountains has kept the streams in the area a little on the high side for really good fishing yet but this is better for it will prolong it farther out into the summer. It is low water, when the fish are concentrated in the deeper holes that makes the fishing reports soar—but it is hard on the fish population.

7 1/2 POUNDER
The weather didn't hurt the fishing at Harriman's resort on Upper Klamath lake—but it sure hurt the fishermen. Due to the stormy week very few anglers were brave enough to go out but those who did had good fishing. A number of limits were taken. C. S. Sullivan of Medford who took a 4-pounder a week ago came back and bailed out one that hit 7 1/2 pounds. M. M. Koster of Morro Bay, Calif., connected for 4 1/2. Mr. Koster
