

STRAPPING IS—British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan straps himself into the seat for a helicopter ride from the White House lawn in Washington to Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, where they were to participate in commencement exercises. The Chief Executive gave up his customary seat in the plane to his guest so that Macmillan might have a better view from the window.

Outstanding Students at Hanby School Are Named at Promotion Exercises

By MRS. CLYDE SELL
Gold Hill—David Molloy was named as the outstanding eighth grade boy and Miss Vervia Beman and Miss Janet (Jan) Newland as outstanding girls of this year's class at the Hanby eighth grade promotion exercises recently.

Russell Carr, eighth grade teacher, made the awards. The advanced Hanby school band, under the direction of Charles W. Cook, presented the prelude and procession. Opening statements were made by Gilbert Mack, principal of Hanby and Patrick schools. The welcome was given by Ronald R. Beman, student body president. The Rev. Howard Walton, pastor of the Gold Hill Community Methodist church, offered the invocation.

The 1958 class was introduced by Carr. The eighth grade class sang "Oregon State Song," accompanied by the band, which also provided several numbers.

David Molloy, class president, presented the flag to Mack on behalf of the class.

Also providing music was the Harmonettes choral group under the direction of Mrs. Norman Gail, school music teacher. Mrs. Walter Doherty, school pianist, accompanied vocal numbers.

"Word of Advice" was the title of the address by Don Lacy. He was introduced by H. P. Jewitt, superintendent of schools in district 6C. Lacy told the students to begin to plan for their future now. He said each should set a goal and go as high as possible to accomplish personal success and happiness.

Following Lacy's address, Mack suggested that each pupil graduating make the most of the first week in high school, and begin to plan then for the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester James of Sams Valley were introduced. He is retiring from the school board after serving five years. Norman Gail, chairman of the board, presented diplomas to 31 students.

Those receiving diplomas were Harriet A. Foley, Mary Lee Governor, Janet Ann Newland, Michael Richard Erickson, James A. McCoy, Reba Florence Taylor, Albert G. Harrison, Terry D. Moehle, Vervia Iola Beman, Mark Louis Schmidt, Peter Dizick, Delmer C. Smith, Elwin Dale

Paulsen, Barbara Dean Allen, Mary Beth Bailey, Darwin Lee Clark, Clayton D. Barry, David Paul Molloy, Judith Ann Whaley, Kenneth Wayne White, Fred G. Governor, Ronald Richard Beman, Judith Elonna Force, Kerry Leigh Koopman, Bonnie Lynn Knapp, Terrance Tommy Payne, Daniel Paul Richardson, Linda Marie Ramsey, John A. Jaksch, Sue E. Woodward and Phil Cameron.

Following the promotion exercises a party was given for the graduates and their parents at the Gold Hill Grange hall. Parents in charge of the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Molloy, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. John Jaksch, Mr. and Mrs. Al Beman, Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Richardson, Mrs. Edsel White, and Mr. H. D. Forcé.

BLAMES SCIENTISTS—Col. William O. Davis, 38, key figure in USAF rocket and space planning, resigned from the service to enter private research as a means of helping "in the war." Col. Davis put the blame on scientists for the U. S. lag in space technology.

Roseburg Plywood Plant To Resume

Roseburg—(UPI)—Roseburg Plywood company said today it would resume operations Monday. The plant had shut down last month because of low prices, idling 225 men.

UAL, Air Force To File Reports On Near-Crash

San Francisco—(UPI)—United Air Lines and the Air Force prepared today to file with the Civil Aeronautics Authority reports of a near miss between two planes that might have spelled death for 18 persons.

The near miss took place Wednesday south of Modesto, Calif., a central California city about 90 miles southwest of San Francisco. The UAL plane made a sudden 500 foot dive to avoid hitting a B52 jet bomber.

The airliner dove so suddenly that a passenger, Peter S. Rodgers, and stewardess J. B. Hooper, both of Los Angeles, were taken to a Modesto hospital for examination of possible neck injuries.

The Convair had given passengers aboard and a pilot, co-pilot and stewardess. Castle Air Force Base near Merced, from which the B52 had just taken off, said 10 crewmen were aboard the B52. None was injured.

Both planes were flying CAA-approved courses. The near-collision was one of a number reported across the nation in recent weeks. They have inspired congressmen to urge changes in existing regulations on military planes and passenger airlines.

Grange Notes

Roxy Ann Grange
Roxy Ann Grange met Friday, June 6, with Master Al Sims presiding. HEC Chairman Verd Quackenbush reported 32 members present. Evelyn Hendricks, Verd Quackenbush and Irene Shirley were hostesses.

Marie Pfister welcomed the Densmores from Roseburg, Mrs. Don Meadows Jr. from Midland Grange, Klamath county, and some of our members who hadn't attended lately, also Mrs. Stevie McMahon, who is back with us after living in California for several years.

Charlie Whitcher reported new calves are selling as high as $49.50, there is a good demand for them. Grass fed cattle are down, sheep market is good, wool is starting to climb and feeder steers are in demand. He also told about a big plastic bag being used to haul milk to market from eastern Oregon.

The display table contained unusual dolls from different countries, and some made from sugar. Mrs. Ethel Byers brought them.

Roscoe Roberts reported men in service can have insurance at no extra charge. Grange insurance is backed by Lloyds of London.

Mrs. Helen Myhre was elected Ceres in place of Irene Burns, who has moved to Eugene.

Chaplain May Dalton reported Anna Roberts is doing fine after surgery in Portland. Paul Larsen improved enough to take a trip.

Marie announced the Gillmans gave an Hawaiian party for the senior class of Crater High.

Marguerite Shaw thanked the Grange for use of the hall for the graduating class of Lone Pine.

Several of the Grangers went to Midland Grange, Klamath county, to put on fifth degree for Pamona.

Roxy Ann voted to put on third and fourth degrees at Upper Applegate June 27.

The Van Ortwick and Walters babies were each given a doll for their first attendance. This is being written after the first day at State Grange convention in Eugene.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Meadows and Mrs. Grace Walters. Willetta Sims, Publicity.

British Girls Lose Singing Idol To Love

London—(UPI)—Thousands of teen-age British girls mourned today the loss of their idol—tousle-haired rock 'n' roll star, Tommy Steele. They lost Tommy to love.

Just before midnight Wednesday, the young man, who zoomed almost overnight from an unknown ship's cabin boy to a teen-age idol, announced his engagement to shapely 21-year-old showgirl Ann Donoghue.

Said Steele: "I don't want to hurt my fans. But love's love."

Woman Accused Of Two Robberies Waives Hearing

Birmingham, Ala.—(UPI)—Mrs. Kathryn Anderson, 28, charged with robbing of two savings and loan associations of about $3,000, waived the preliminary hearing Tuesday she had requested last month. But the stork may delay a hearing set this fall.

U. S. Commissioner Louise

O. Charlton ordered the "typical" suburban housewife and mother of two held under $10,000 bond pending grand jury action. Mrs. Anderson posted the bond after the 10-minute hearing.

"We do desire to waive the hearing," defense attorney L. Drew Redden told Mrs. Charl ton. "But as far as our plea is concerned, our plea is not guilty."

Mrs. Anderson, dressed in a two-piece black maternity dress with white accessories and a white summer hat, appeared calm during the brief hearing and smiled several times. Before the hearing, she

Redden said later the hearing was waived after a conference with Mrs. Anderson's doctor, who told the attorney. "There is no need to put her through it if it isn't necessary."

Mrs. Anderson was arrested late last month on charges of robbing the City Federal Savings and Loan association on Feb. 28, and the Jefferson

Federal Savings and Loan association on May 22.
