John Nuich Cops Kiwanis Links Tourney Prize

John Nuich was low gross with a 79 and Dr. Paul Walker low net with 80-9-71 Wednesday in the Kiwanis club golf tournament at the Rogue Valley Country club.

Bill Clark was second low gross with an 80 and Fred Sears and Bob Voegtly tied for third with 86s. Dr. Ted Sicksels and Club President Bill Singler tied for second low net with 91-19-72 each and E. Ron Rice followed with 100-27-73.

Paul Haviland had long drive on No. 10 fairway 300 yards, and Brad Pritchett short drive. Kiwanis officials said the short drive was 8 1/2 inches after two misses.

Ray Wise was closest to the pin, 34 inches on No. 17 green. High gross was Jennings Pierce with 120.

There were 22 entries.

Mary Janseen Eastern Champ

Pittsburgh — (UPI) — Mary Pat Janseen, who plays golf to relax after her secretarial duties, said today winning the Women's Eastern Amateur title "put me at ease."

The 32-year-old blonde from Charlottesville, Va., carded a two over par 75 in the final round of the 54-hole event at Allegheny country club Thursday to post a winning 229 total.

Joanne Goodwin, slim attractive golfer from Dartmouth, Mass., failed by four strokes to retain the title. She went around in 76 for the last time after posting a 79 and a 78.

By LEO H. PETERSEN

Tulsa, Okla. — (UPI) — The toughest and one of the most criticized U.S. Open championships of them all saw three veterans of the golfing wars — Julius Boros, Tommy Bolt and Dick Metz — lead the field into the second round today with the Southern Hills course's tough par 70 proving more than the nation's best golfers could crack.

Boros, who won the Open in 1952 and who is 38; Bolt, who is 39, and Metz, who is 50, carded one over par 71s in the first round — the first time since the Open was held at scorned Oakland Hills at Birmingham, Mich., in 1951, that the field hasn't been able to break par.

Back then, Sam Snead, the 5-1 favorite to win this one, shot a 71. Thursday, Snead, whose driver went sour on him, carded a 75.

The 95-degree heat, the clutching rough, the 25-mile-an-hour winds, the powdery fine sand traps, the mud in the watered fairways, the pin placements and the spike marks on the green had most of the 162 players in the field groaning. Two of them — Ernie Ball and Johnny Bulla — gave up the ghost and withdrew without completing the first round.

Believe Course is Fair Not since Oakland Hills, has a course come in for so much complaining. But there was a big difference — here, they think the course is tough but fair.

They blame the conditions here, except for the heat and wind, on the U.S. Golf association.

The scores bore out their crying when 81 players — exactly half the field — failed to break 80, which is 10 over par, and five were in the 90s. Never has an Open seen such high scores.

The pin placements came in for the most criticism.

"What are they trying to do, drive all the young golfers out of business," asked the 56-year-old Gene Sarazen, competing in his 28th Open. Sarazen carded an 84.

Ben Complains Ben Hogan, shooting for an unprecedented fifth Open crown, said the spike marks on the greens late in the afternoon made it "impossible to get a true line on a putt."

Ed Furgol, the 1954 Open champion, had a ball bury in the mud on the first fairway.

A stroke off the pace of the leaders was 43-year-old Lloyd Mangrum, who won this one back in 1946 and 35-year-old Frank Stranahan. At 73, two strokes behind the front running trio, were Bruce Crampton and grandpaw Jimmy Demaret, who is 47.

At 74, two-time U.S. amateur champion Harvie Ward, 33; 27-year-old Gene Littler; Smiley Quick, who is 48; and 50-year-old Labron Harris, a teaching pro from Stillwater, Okla.

There were 20 at 75. Besides Hogan, Snead and Middlecoff and Harbert, they included Chick Harbert, Pat Schwab, the young bridegroom from Dayton, Ohio; Mike Souchak, former PGA king Walter Burkemo, Masters champion and leading money winner, Arnold Palmer, the veteran Freddie Haas and Rosburg.

Six-run splurges aided both verdicts. Bureau of Reclamation got its half-dozen in the sixth inning on four hits. Chain Saw picked up its six in the third.

Routine Test Flight Of Thor Successful

Cape Canaveral, Fla. — (UPI) — A big Thor intermediate range missile, which the Air Force will use as the main stage of its moon rockets, roared up from Cape Canaveral today on a "routine" test flight.

The towering Thor, some 65 feet tall and five or six feet thick at its base, was launched without the two additional high-power stages it will have mounted atop it for the moon shots.

The firing appeared to be successful.

LEAPFROG—Trying for a record 5th Open win, Ben Hogan appears to be leaping for the crown as he comes up from a sighting of his ball on the seventh green during a practice round at the Southern Hills Country Club in Tulsa, Okla. Hogan will compete along with 161 other golfers when the first round of the 58th U. S. Open starts.

Cheney Studs Nick GP Legion Nine; Play Lakeview Saturday

Dennis Pfaff batted in Loyall Higinbotham with the lone run here last night for a 1 to 0 Central Point Cheney Stud victory over the Grants Pass American Legion junior baseball team.

The marker in the non-district action came just in time to prevent the contest from going into extra frames. It was scored in the bottom of the seventh inning of the fast played encounter. No one was out at the time.

Higinbotham led off the Studs' final batting turn by drawing a base on balls from pitcher Dick Hayes. Bill Anhorn, the Central Point hurler, helped his own cause with a bunt single. Harley Dickerson bunted and was safe on first baseman Frank Sprinkle's fielding miscue. That loaded the sacks. Then, on the fourth pitch to him, Pfaff knocked an infield bouncer.

Higinbotham beat the throw to the plate on the fielder's option, ending the game. Start League Play

The verdict carries the Central Point club into their opening Legion district tuckus with a 2-win, 1-loss pre-loop record. Central Point will be host to Lakeview at 8 p.m. at Cheney field on Saturday night in the Studs' district starter. Lakeview will be in its second counting fray and, since the Lake County club lost 3 to 15 to Grants Pass last Sunday, the Cheney crew enters tomorrow's action as favorite.

Medford's Legion nine goes to Klamath Falls Sunday for a district starter while Lakeview moves over to Grants Pass.

In last night's battle the batters were limited to just two hits on each side. Harley Dickerson laid down a fine bunt in the first inning for the Studs first safety. Marvin

LINE SCORES: Grants Pass 000 000 0-0 2 3, Central Point 000 000 1-1 2 2, Hayes and Huneycutt; B. Anhorn and Tucker.
