

Playboy Admits Being Married To Suzy Parker

St. Augustine, Fla.—(UPI)—French playboy Pierre de La Salle has admitted he married model-actress Suzy Parker but kept secret their 1955 New York ceremony because "I didn't want to reveal my private life."

De La Salle's admission, plus church records discovered in a quaint 100-year-old Greenwich Village church, apparently settled the confusion surrounding the beautiful actress' marital status.

The first hint that Miss Parker was married came Saturday night after the tragic car-train accident in which both her arms were broken and her father was killed.

Not Her 'Cup of Tea' The 25-year-old auburn-haired star, who repeatedly has said that marriage was not her "cup of tea," identified herself at the hospital as Mrs. P. de La Salle. Previously she had said she would never get married.

De La Salle, a former writer for a French magazine, rushed to her bedside, but told newsmen that he was not married and had never been married.

Earlier, the wife of the Rev. Philip S. Watters said in New York that her husband's records at the Washington Square Methodist Church showed Cecilia Ann Rene Parker was married to Pierre Jacques de La Salle on Aug. 6, 1955.

Body of Surgeon's Girl Friend Found

Framingham, Mass.—(UPI)—A prominent surgeon, father of six children, who had searched night-long for his blonde girl friend after a lover's quarrel, found her body floating in a reservoir early Wednesday, police said.

Dr. Stephen J. Starr, of Worcester, Mass., became hysterical after the discovery, police said and was taken to Westboro State Mental Hospital "for his own protection." No charges were filed against him.

Police said they were convinced that Mrs. Eleanor Converse, 26, with whom Starr had carried on a clandestine romance for three years, had drowned herself.

Her fully-clad body was found about four feet from the tree-lined shore. Her blue pumps were on the bank.

Long before Utah was admitted to the Union, its legislature offered $1,000 rewards to anyone locating a workable vein of coal near the city.
