

Four Fire Perfect 100 Scores In PITA State Tourney Warm-Up

Keen rivalry anticipated in the annual Oregon State shoot of the Pacific International Trapshooting association was heralded yesterday when four men smashed 100 straight targets at 16 yards and three others tied in the handicap event in registered warm-up gunning at Medford Gun club.

Ray Yasui, Hood River, and Eugene Hunt, Medford each shattered 97 birds. In the first extra 25 Armstrong and Hunt each busted 24 and Yasui 21. Hunt took runner-up spot when Armstrong nipped him 24 to 23 in the second 25.

Shooting on Saturday and Sunday opens at 9 a.m. and the public is welcome to watch the scattergunners. Medford Gun club is operating breakfast, lunch and refreshment concession at its dining hall.

Among top guns in the handicap were George Blum, Tillamook, 95, Jack Maulding, Cottage Grove, Ned Cox, Madras, George Jantzer, Madras, and Jones Sr., 94, and Ohnstead, Davis and Wallace 93s. Pros were led by Harvey Fisher, Portland, and McCrady with 91s.

Wightman Net Tussle Underway

Wimbledon, Eng. —(UPI)—The United States sent one of its weakest squads or recent years into the opening matches of the women's Wightman Cup tennis matches against Britain today, but still was a solid 2-1 favorite to win the cup.

The two-day, best-of-seven matches competition opening on the historic courts here is the latest renewal of one of the most lopsided rivalries in sports history.

The Americans have won 25 of the 29 series played to date, the last 21 in a row. Britain hasn't won since 1930 and, with a squad composed of too-young hopefuls and mediocre has-beens, is given very little chance of an upset this time.

Today's matches include Althea Gibson, New York, vs. Shirley Bloomer, Britain.

The Gibson-Bloomer match brings together the aces of the two squads.

Harold Carter, Besmanoff Vie

New York —(UPI)—Harold Carter, a potential heavyweight challenger before he entered the Army 17 months ago, returns to the ring tonight in a TV fight with contender Willjo Besmanoff at Madison Square Garden.

Despite the long lay-off, Carter, 24, of Linden, N.J., is favored at 13-5 over the stocky but speedy ex-baker from Munich, Germany.

Hart, Turner Draw in Bout

Philadelphia —(UPI)—Garnet Sugar Hart and Gil Turner, Philadelphia buddies clamoring for a crack at the welterweight title, battled to a 10-round draw at Connie Mack Stadium Thursday night before a crowd of 8,769.

The 22-year-old Hart, who is ranked fourth to Turner's sixth by the National Boxing association, offset his opponent's crowding tactics with a late left-hook attack to the head which enabled him to draw even with Turner.

Judge Nate Lopinson awarded 46 points to each fighter under Pennsylvania's five-point must scoring system.

Judge Jim Mina gave the bout to the 27-year-old Turner, 46-45. Referee Zach Calyton scored it 48-44 for Hart.

United Press International favored Hart, 47-41.

Hagge Nabs Front Spot In Triangle

Marblehead, Mass. —(UPI)—Red-haired Marlene Bauer Hagge wields her putter with authority. And it was that "bold" power on the greens that gave her a commanding 10-point lead in the second round of the Triangle Round Robin Invitational golf tournament today.

Mrs. Hagge virtually ran away from the field in the opening round of the unique match-a-medal tournament Thursday. Her putting, perfect for the spacious-but-slow greens of the lush 6,174-yard Tesesco country club course, gave her a near-record 23 points from the first 18 holes.

Marlene was three-under-par with a sizzling 70 under ideal weather conditions. That gave her 23 points, just 10 more than Betty Dodd who landed second on a 73 score.

Louise Suggs, Triangle winner in 1955, had a better medal score of 71 but collected only six points in the stiff competition of a foursome composed of Kathy Cornelius, Alice Bauer and defending champion Mickey Wright.

BOUT RESCHEDULED

Detroit —(UPI)—The Detroit Red Wings have named Gordie Howe captain of the 1958-59 season. Howe, the National Hockey league's most valuable player last season, succeeds Red Kelly as team leader.

Maids Will Oppose Florists on Sunday

When the Rogue Valley Dairy Maids entertain the strong Erv Lind Florists at Veterans Administration Memorial Stadium, Camp White, in a softball feature on Sunday evening, June 15, there will be no set charge for admission, because of VA rules.

However, the hat will be passed for donations. And, the Dairy Maids are hoping for general contributions since a considerable guarantee was required to bring the Florists to southern Oregon.

The Florists, an entry in the Northwest Women's Softball league and one of the big names in western competition for many years, will meet the Maids at 7:30 p.m. Three All-American and several other players of recognized high caliber are on the Lind squad.

Either Darla Logan or Jackie Rice is expected to pitch for the Portland team Sunday. Miss Logan is a small girl with a good fast ball. She has developed several changes of pace and appears destined for stardom with seasoning. Miss Rice, at 17, is the youngster on the club. She has a good assortment of pitches and her softball future looks bright. Pearl Pinion is the club's veteran chucker.

The Lind infield may be made up of Lois Williams at first base, Carolyn Fitzwater at second, Margaret Dobson at third and among Carolyn Spady, Fran Gannon, Sherry Larson and Noreen Stoddard at shortstop. Bev Wadsworth is the catcher. In the outfield it may be Elizabeth Locke, Hap Piper and Delores Price.

The Dairy Maids were to drill today and again Saturday to tune up for the game. Pat Barron is slated for the pitching chores. Doris Hickson and Ellen Callaghan will be available if relief is needed.

The Maids and Florists drew a more than capacity crowd at the VA field last summer.

FLORIST FIELDER — Elizabeth (Liz) Locke has been a mainstay of the Erv Lind Florist softball team since 1946. She holds down the left field spot and is expected to be in that position Sunday night when the Florists play the Rogue Valley Dairy Maids at Veterans Administration Memorial stadium, Camp White. Game time will be 8 p.m. Liz, also called Freckles, is a long ball hitter and is considered to have one of the strongest and most accurate arms in women's softball. She attends Humboldt State college.

JOKE CURRENT in Madison avenue advertising agencies: An account executive was told to provide an exhaustive study about fleas. He laboriously trained a medium-sized flea to jump over his finger every time he said "Hup." Then he pulled off two of the flea's six legs. "Hup," he grunted. The flea jumped over his finger. Off came two more legs. "Hup," repeated the executive. Again the flea jumped. Then he pulled off the flea's last two legs. Alas, the flea no longer moved. The executive nodded sagely, and wrote in his report, "When a flea loses all six of its legs, it becomes deaf."
